Hair The Long Short Of It:

The Long Short Michael Lachance, 2017-09-01 The plane from Paris slammed into the Atlantic and broke apart Bill and Martin joined Claire in the tail section where the last raft was anchored to the door with a tether Claire lugged her Gucci bags into the raft and Martin had his rollaboard clutched tightly in his arms Bill fought to get the tether untied from the door but the base of the door was under water He had to go into the dark depths while thunder and lightning roared overhead He pulled at the tether and got it untied The raft shot up and slammed Bill's head into the metal frame of the door he felt the gash and shook his head Adrift Bill and Claire fought over why Martin was no longer with them Bill told Claire that it was just the two of them now Claire asked if that was a threat and Bill happily replied yes They found an island and ditched the raft on the beachhead Claire's mind was on two things rescue and to do anything to get away from Bill Bill's head injury set his mind adrift in a sea of mystery about pirates and treasure He looked at Claire and felt anger surge up his throat like lava rising to the top of a volcano where it would spew destruction Bill and Claire had two different goals one of them will get to their way at the expense of the other

Whiskerology Sarah Gold McBride, 2025 Whiskerology traces how hair became a significant marker of identity and belonging in nineteenth century America Viewed during the colonial period as disposable to be donned or removed like clothing hair later became an external sign of internal truths about the self especially one's gender race and nationality

Let's Talk about Hair Lynn Gauthier, 2013-05 Through the lens of her hair struggles Lynn Gauthier takes us on her life's journey hair salons hairstylists some she'd rather forget and unforgettable hair stories Gauthier's experiences not only shaped her hair but also brought her astounding insight into the nature of her personal struggle with vanity and the search for perfection She begins her story with excerpts from her daily journal that led to her epiphany that she had self image issues marking the beginning of her recovery from the vanity that had strangled her for years She recalls seasons of hair changes and relates them to the pathways of an evolving spiritual life from her early school days through two marriages and finally motherhood Most every woman alive has a hair story and will relate to Gauthier's stories about hair and our emotional attachment to it

A Long Short Life Merle W. McMorrow, 2010-12 In A Long Short Life Merle W. McMorrow documents a trail of events of his own and his family's experiences from his youth into adulthood He was born during a time of uncertainty following World War I Both his father and mother grew up in families that put very little value on education and therefore neither one finished high school Their marriage resulted in family difficulties due to religious differences among other factors Tragedy struck the family many times but the event that left a permanent mark on McMorrow and his family was the divorce of his parents These problems were followed by the deaths of some of other family members as well as a diagnosis of diabetes for his father This period of difficulties would ultimately extend through three major historical time periods the Great Depression World War II and the Cold War Despite the many problems his family endured however they enjoyed twenty years as a close knit family all lovingly chronicled in A Long Short Life
