A Blissful Feast Teresa Lust, 2020-03-03 A delicious journey through Italy and a celebration of the relationship between family and food Moving from the Italian Piedmont to the Maremma and then to Le Marche chef Teresa Lust interweaves portraits of the people who served as her culinary guides with cultural and natural history in this charming exploration of authentic Italian cuisine We learn how to prepare bagna cauda a robust dipping sauce of anchovies garlic and olive oil with Lust s relatives outside Torino We learn about making hand stretched grissini Italy s iconic breadstick the secrets of whipping up zabaione a classic dessert of ethereal foam made with egg yolks sugar and marsala Then there is acquacotta a rustic soup that nourished generations of the area s shepherds and cowhands In the town of Camerano an eighty year old woman reveals the art of hand rolling pasta with a three foot rolling pin Underpinning Lust s travels is our journey from chef to cook mirroring the fact that Italians have been masters of home cooking for generations so they are an obvious source of inspiration Today more and more people are rediscovering the pleasures of cooking at home and Lust s account and wonderful recipes will help readers bring an Italian sensibility to their home tables

American Swineherd ,1907 Personalities on the Plate Barbara J. King, 2017-03-07 In recent years scientific advances in our understanding of animal minds have led to major changes in how we think about and treat animals in zoos and aquariums The general public it seems is slowly coming to understand that animals like apes elephants and dolphins have not just brains but complicated inner and social lives and that we need to act accordingly Yet that realization hasn t yet made its presence felt to any great degree in our most intimate relationship with animals at the dinner table Sure there are vegetarians and vegans all over but at the same time meat consumption is up and meat remains a central part of the culinary and dining experience for the majority of people in the developed world With Personalities on the Plate Barbara King asks us to think hard about our meat eating and how we might reduce it But this isn t a polemic intended to convert readers to veganism What she is interested in is why we ve not drawn food animals into our concern and just what we do know about the minds and lives of chickens cows octopuses fish and more Rooted in the latest science and built on a mix of firsthand experience including entomophagy which yes is what you think it is and close engagement with the work of scientists farmers vets and chefs Personalities on the Plate is an unforgettable journey through the world of animals we eat Knowing what we know and what we may yet learn what is the proper ethical stance toward eating meat What are the consequences for the planet How can we live an ethically and ecologically sound life through our food choices We could have
