H G Wells in Love H G Wells,2002-10-19 H. G. Wells in Love H. G. Wells,2011-03-17 I was never a great amorist wrote H G Wells in his Experiment in Autobiography in 1934 though I have loved several people very deeply H G Wells composed his most candid volume of autobiography H G Wells in Love secretly knowing it would never be published in his own lifetime It is a great writer's true confession of the loves of his life beginning in the 1930s when Wells was at the summit of fame having published The Invisible Man Kipps and The War of the Worlds Though he had already written his published autobiography the two volumes of Experiment in Autobiography are also available as Faber Finds he saved his most private reflections for this detailing his engagement in a series of romantic affairs including his famous liason with feminist author Rebecca West twenty six years his junior and his second wife Amy Catherine Robbins This volume completes and complements the published volumes and offers a unique insight into the life of one of the best loved of British writers H

Swoon: Great Seducers and Why Women Love Them Betsy Prioleau,2013-02-04 The author of Seductress examines the ladies man and answers the eternal question what do women want Love and Mr. Lewisham by H. G. Wells, Fiction, Classics, Literary H. G. Wells,2004-09 At the particular moment when this story begins he was in his bedroom An attic it was with lead framed dormer windows a slanting ceiling and a bulging wall covered as a number of torn places witnessed with innumerable strata of florid old fashioned paper To judge by the room Mr Lewisham thought little of Love but much on Greatness Love and Russian Literature Ira Nadel,2023-11-30 Russia haunted the British cultural imagination throughout the 20th century whether as a romantic source of literary and political inspiration or as a warning of creeping totalitarianism In this new book Ira Nadel charts the story of that influence through the work of some of the key figures in British literature across the century including Joseph Conrad Somerset Maugham Jane Harrison Virginia Woolf and H G Wells Framed by the story of two romantic encounters between Walter Benjamin and the actress Asja Lais in Moscow in 1926 and between Isaiah Berlin and Anna Akhmatova in 1945 Love and Russian Literature casts a vivid new light on the ways in which responses to Russia shaped the history of British modernism H. G. Wells - Love and Mr. Lewisham H. G. Wells,2020-10-12 Young impoverished and ambitious science student Mr Lewisham is locked in a struggle to further himself through academic achievement But when his former sweetheart Ethel Henderson re enters his life his strictly regimented existence is thrown into chaos by the resurgence of old passion Driven by overwhelming desire he pursues Ethel passionately only to find that while she returns his love she also hides a dark secret For she is involved in a plot of trickery that goes against his firmest beliefs working as an assistant to her stepfather a cynical charlatan mystic who earns his living by deluding the weak willed with sly trickery Includes a biography of the author The Correspondence of H G Wells Vol 4 H G Wells,David Smith,Patrick Parrinder,2024-10-28 This collection of H G Wells s correspondence draws on over 50 archives and libraries worldwide including the papers of Wells s daughter by Amber Reeves The book contains over 2000 letters both business and personal Wells s private correspondence includes letters to Winston Churchill Portraits from Life Jerome Boyd Maunsell,2018-01-05 What happens when novelists write about their own lives directly in memoirs and autobiographies rather than in novels How do they present themselves and what do their self portraits reveal In a series of biographical case studies Portraits from Life examines how seven canonical Modernist writers Joseph Conrad Ford Madox Ford Henry James Wyndham Lewis Gertrude Stein H G Wells and Edith Wharton depicted themselves in their memoirs and autobiographies during the first half of the twentieth century Drawing on a range of life writing sources in this innovative group portrait Jerome Boyd Maunsell reconstructs the periods during which these authors worked on their memoirs often towards the end of their lives and shows how memoirs and autobiographies are just as artful as novels The seven portraits in the book also create a rich network of encounters as many of these writers knew each other and wrote about each other in their reminiscences Portraits from Life investigates the difficulties and possibilities of autobiography the relation of fact and fiction biography and autobiography the ethical issues of dealing with real people the thin generic lines between novels and autobiographies and the deceptive workings of memory and how all these writers dealt with these concerns as they looked back on their lives An act of portraiture and biography as well as an act of criticism moving from London to Paris and through two world wars it also pieces together a fresh and constantly inter connecting narrative of the Modernist era in England and France Love and Mr. Lewisham Herbert George Wells Herbert George Wells,2019-01-10 Love and Mr Lewisham subtitled The Story of a Very Young Couple is a 1900 novel set in the 1880s by H G Wells It was among his first fictional writings outside the science fiction genre Wells took considerable pains over the manuscript and said that the writing was an altogether more serious undertaking than I have ever done before He later included it in a 1933 anthology Stories of Men and Women in Love Love and Mr. Lewisham H. 1920s sex reformers emerged as a group of diverse and culturally influential professionals doctors psychologists artists political activists novelists and academics who shared a profound commitment to changing the world by changing the practice of sex Sex reformers reinvented love as a scientific practice of sex that brought humans and nonhumans into the fold of early twentieth century racial gender and sexual politics Carla Christina Hustak illuminates how sex reformers insistence that love can shift human and nonhuman relations is more than just a historical narrative it is a moment in time interconnected with urgent contemporary concerns over the global implications of our emotional relationships to other humans animals the earth and atmospheric and technological forces Love and Mr. Lewisham (Annotated) H. Person,2007-04-02 This groundbreaking study has been widely hailed for its focus on a human emotion generally considered impervious to rational analysis romantic passionate love Ethel Person views romantic love as a powerful agent of change arguing that it is as central to human culture as it is to human existence This new edition of Dreams of Love and Fateful Encounters emphasizes the relevance of passion not only to lovers but also to mental health professionals whose patients often enter treatment because of love related issues from the inability to love or make a commitment to the perils of extramarital love to love sickness or loss of love She forthrightly addresses not only the power of love to unlock the soul but also its inherent paradoxes and conflicts Employing a philosophical perspective in order to understand the existential dilemmas posed by love and a cultural perspective in order to understand its cultural variability Dr Person breaks with contemporary intellectual and philosophical dismissive assumptions about romantic love She acknowledges love's vital importance and power proposing that passion serves an important function not only for the individual but also for the culture while charging psychoanalysis with a reductionist emphasis on sexuality and psychopathology that has narrowed the focus of inquiry into love Among the issues she discusses are romantic love's sources in our early lives its relationship to imagination and creativity and its capacity to enable the lover to transcend the self how romantic love often demands a reordering of values and promotes personal growth by exposing the self to new risks and possibilities the transformational potential of transference love in the therapy process flaws in the common misperception that women are more influenced by romantic love than men considerations of homosexual love love across generations and love triangles focusing on the individual growth that can result from such relationships Citing accounts of love drawn from literature film and real life Person focuses on the lover's internal soliloquy and external dialogue with the beloved that can develop over an individual's life An uplifting resource for people experiencing failing or unorthodox romances Dreams of Love and Fateful Encounters boldly takes on issues pertinent to lovers to professionals who encounter patients for whom key conflicts revolve around romantic love and to anyone who has struggled to understand the importance of romantic love in his or her own life

Between the Sheets Lesley McDowell, 2012-02-28 The literary critic examines the love lives and career ambitions of some of the twentieth century's greatest female authors from Sylvia Plath to Anaïs Nin Why did a gifted writer like Sylvia Plath stumble into a marriage that drove her to suicide Why did Hilda Doolittle H.D. want to marry Ezra Pound when she was far more attracted to women Why did Simone de Beauvoir pimp for Jean Paul Sartre In Between the Sheets author and feminist scholar Lesley McDowell examines nine famously troubled literary romances to arrive at a provocative insight into the motivations of these and other great female writers The list of the damages done in each of these sexual relationships is long but each provokes the same question would these women have become the writers they became without these relationships Delving into their diaries letters and journals McDowell examines the extent to which each woman was prepared to put artistic ambition before personal happiness and how dependent on their male writing partners they felt themselves to be McDowell has culled incredibly juicy details With so many affairs and broken hearts the most surprising thing may be that anything got written in the last 100 years The New York Times Book Review
