The Nomadic Alternative Wolfgang

Weissleder, 2011-06-15 No detailed description available for The Nomadic Alternative Mobility and Territoriality Michael Casimir, Aparnu Rao, 2021-01-07 Territorial behaviour among various herders and hunter gatherers has been discussed in earlier studies but this is the first time that a comparison of these three types of mobile populations has been attempted The original papers presented in this volume discuss the conditions and problems of securing access to resources among pastoralists peripatetics and hunting gathering and fishing communities in Africa Asia Europe and the Middle East A comprehensive introductory chapter places these empirical studies in a broader theoretical context of the behavioural sciences Bibliography of Periodical Literature on the Near and Middle East, 1970

The Post-Colonial State and

Civil War in Sudan Noah R. Bassil, 2015-08-25 The humanitarian crisis in Darfur a consequence of the civil war and ongoing violence has attracted significant international media attention Here Noah Bassil offers a re conception of the conflict in Darfur by examining the origins and progression of the conflict through the broader issue of state failure in post colonial Sudan By moving away from a localised view of the conflict Bassil is able to demonstrate the extent to which the breakdown of social relations in Darfur is interconnected with the wider breakdown of Sudanese and post colonial societies offering an examination of the nexus between international national and local forces Through its coherent framework for understanding the causes of the civil war that erupted in the Darfur region in 2003 this book provides a unique examination of the conflict and the wider post colonial situation making it an important contribution to the fields of History International Relations and Peace Studies Wanderings Rogaia Mustafa Abusharaf, 2018-08-06 In one of the first books devoted to the experience of Sudanese immigrants and exiles in the United States Rogaia Mustafa Abusharaf places her community into context showing its increasing historical and political significance Abusharaf herself participates in many aspects of life in the migrant community and in the Sudan in ways that a non Sudanese could not Attending religious events social gatherings and meetings Abusharaf discovers that a national sense of common Sudanese identity emerges more strongly among immigrants in North America than it does at home Sudanese immigrants use informal transatlantic networks to ease the immigration process and act on the local level to help others find housing and employment They gather for political activism to share feasts and to celebrate marriages always negotiating between tradition and the challenges of their new surroundings Abusharaf uses a combination of conversations with Sudanese friends interviews and life histories to portray several groups among the Sudanese immigrant population Southern war refugees including the Lost Boys of Sudan spent years in camps in Kenya or Uganda professionals were expelled from the Gulf because their country's rulers backed Iraq in the Gulf War Christian Copts suffered from religious persecution in Sudan and women migrated alone Kordafan Invaded Endre Stiansen, Michael Kevane, 1998 The book will be of interest to scholars of Africa and Islam because of its novel focus on regional institutions and their relation to state structures Kordofan Invaded Stiansen,Kevane,2021-10-11 This volume addresses economic change regional politics and Islamisation in Kordofan a large province in the Sudan Kordofan s history is characterised by resistance and adaptation to expanding states and market forces causing both sectoral transformation and stagnation The contributions in different ways examine the interplay between local and invading institutions and include studies of Kordofan as a terra media between Darfur and Sinnar international trade in the nineteenth century the Mahdist revolt the Anglo Egyptian Condominium with particular reference to land tenure and tribal identity Kordofan in Sudanese nationalist poetry local politics in the Nuba Mountains and the conflict between religious orthodoxy and local practice The book will be of interest to scholars of Africa and Islam because of its novel focus on regional institutions and their relation to the state structures This edited volume explores the history social structure and economy of Kordofan in the Sudan Representing several academic disciplines each chapter is concerned with the long term incorporation through invasions of the region into wider socio political and economic structures The Sudan Handbook John Ryle,2011 The handbook offers a concise introduction to all aspects of the country rooted in a broad historical account of the development of the Sudanese state from publisher description Autonomy Aparna Rao,1998 The question of individuality in non European and especially South Asian societies is a controversial one Studies in anthropology and psychology undertaken in recent years on concepts of person and self approach the problem by concentrating on ideologies the question of practice remains largely neglected This is the first study to examine the individual dividual debate empirically from the emic perspective of decision making observed over a two year period among the Bakkarwal Himalayan Muslim pastoralists Of particular significance is the fact that the author bases her approach on the life cycle and on gender and status differences Morality, Crisis and Capitalism Jean-Paul Baldacchino,Jon P. Mitchell,2022-09-13 May you live in interesting times was made famous by Sir Austen Chamberlain The premise is that interesting times are times of upheaval conflict and insecurity troubled times With the growing numbers of displaced populations and the rise in the politics of fear and hate we are facing challenges to our very species being Papers in the volume include ethnographic studies on the refugee crisis the financial crisis and the rule of law crisis in the Mediterranean as well as the crisis of violence and hunger in South America Kinship, Honour, and Solidarity Ladislav Holý,1989 Gender Politics In Sudan Sondra Hale,2018-10-08 Focusing on the relationship between gender and the state in the construction national identity politics in twentieth century northern Sudan the author investigates the mechanisms that the state and political and religious interest groups employ for achieving political and cultural hegemony Hale argues that such a process involves the transformation of culture through the involvement of women in both left wing and Islamist revolutionary movements In drawing parallels between the gender ideology of secular and religious organizations in Sudan Hale analyzes male positioning of women within the culture to serve the movement Using data from fieldwork conducted between 1961 and 1988 she investigates the conditions under which women s culture can be active generating positive expressions of resistance and transformation Hale argues that in northern Sudan women may be using Islam to construct their own identities and improve their situation Nevertheless she raises questions about the barriers that women may face now that the Islamic state is achieving hegemony and discusses limits of identity politics

Islam's Perfect Stranger Edward Thomas, 2010-11-23 Can Sudan one of Africa's most diverse countries function as an Islamic state Mahmud Muhammad Taha posed an original answer to this question Taha was the charismatic leader of the Republican Brothers and Sisters a small group of Sudanese nationalists who called for a mystical inclusive reinterpretation of Islam that ended traditional legal discriminations against women and non Muslims Taha's followers pitched his sometimes controversial mix of law and mysticism on Sudanese street corners in the 1970s Sudanese Islamist politicians who used a more divisive interpretation of Islam opposed him vigorously When they gained control of the state in the chaotic 1980s Taha was executed In Taha's first biography Edward Thomas explores the life and ideas of an important Sudanese reformer who has become a symbol for resistance tolerance and human rights

Muslim Society Ernest Gellner, 1983-03-03 Why contemporary Islam is able to support austere traditional and conservative regimes as well as revolutionary ones is the subject of this collection of essays Professor Gellner's position is supported by a series of case studies and critical evaluations of rival interpretations

An Islamic Alliance Jay Spaulding, Lidwien Kapteijns, 2011-08-31 An Islamic Alliance uses non European sources to portray the defense by devoutly Islamic leaders of some of the last parts of the African continent to be conquered during the imperial European scramble for Africa that ended with the First World War These surviving pieces of diplomatic correspondence concentrate on the alliance between Ali Dinar prince of the sultanate of Dar Fur in the western Sudan and the leaders of the Sanusi brotherhood then based in southern Libya In contrast to the European view of the alliance as ephemeral the documents indicate a sincere passionate attempt to join despite immense physical difficulties an ancient monarchist tradition to a more modern trade based sociopolitical organization

The Routledge Encyclopedia of Social and Cultural Anthropology Alan Barnard, Jonathan Spencer, 2009-12-04 Written by leading scholars in the field this comprehensive and readable resource gives anthropology students a unique guide to the ideas arguments and history of the discipline Combining anthropological theory and ethnography it includes 275 substantial entries over 300 short biographies of important figures in anthropology and nearly 600 glossary items The fully revised and expanded second edition reflects major changes in anthropology in the past decade

Indigeneity, Marginality and the State in Bangladesh Nasir Uddin, 2024-08-14 This book explores the critical linkages between indigeneity marginality and the state in Bangladesh Indigeneity is progressively gaining currency in politics and thereby becoming an active force in the larger context of national activism with transnational patronage and international support Drawing on comprehensive and solid ethnographic accounts the book offers a broader understanding of the process of marginalisation and the emergence of new leadership among the Khumi an indigenous group of Bangladesh It illuminates how the Khumi have realised their position on the margin of the state within the socio economic political and ethnic history of the Chittagong Hill Tracts It also looks at how kin based social organisations and non kin based social relations become bases of power and authority as well as cooperation and reciprocity in Khumi society Lucid and topical the book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of indigenous studies anthropology ethnic studies sociology political sciences international relations border studies and South Asian studies especially those concerned with Bangladesh The Nubians of West Aswan Anne M.
