Kabbalah And The Art Of Being The Smithsonian Lectures:

Kabbalah and the Art of Being Shimon Shokek, 2013-10-23 This new approach introduces Kabbalah as a spiritual Jewish way of living a practical wisdom for living creativity and well being and not merely a religious phenomenon or esoteric theology Professor Shokek suggests that the Kabbalistic theme of Creation is the central ingredient in the spiritual teachings of Jewish mysticism He skilfully reveals the core questions that emerge from the wisdom of the Jewish sages opening up a lively avenue of debate in this increasingly popular area of study Language, Eros, Being Elliot R. Wolfson, 2009-08-25 This long awaited magisterial study an unparalleled blend of philosophy poetry and philology draws on theories of sexuality phenomenology comparative religion philological writings on Kabbalah Russian formalism Wittgenstein Rosenzweig William Blake and the very physics of the time space continuum to establish what will surely be a highwater mark in work on Kabbalah Not only a study of texts Language Eros Being is perhaps the fullest confrontation of the body in Jewish studies if not in religious studies as a whole Elliot R Wolfson explores the complex gender symbolism that permeates Kabbalistic literature Focusing on the nexus of asceticism and eroticism he seeks to define the role of symbolic and poetically charged language in the erotically configured visionary imagination of the medieval Kabbalists He demonstrates that the traditional Kabbalistic view of gender was a monolithic and androcentric one in which the feminine was conceived as being derived from the masculine He does not shrink from the negative implications of this doctrine but seeks to make an honest acknowledgment of it as the first step toward the redemption of an ancient wisdom Comparisons with other mystical traditions including those in Christianity Buddhism and Islam are a remarkable feature throughout the book They will make it important well beyond Jewish studies indeed a must for historians of comparative religion in particular of comparative mysticism Praise for Elliot R Wolfson Through a Speculum That Shines is an important and provocative contribution to the study of Jewish mysticism by one of the major scholars now working in this field Speculum Spirit and Salvation Veli-Matti Karkkainen, 2016-12-09 The fourth installment in a wide and deep constructive theology for our time This fourth volume in Veli Matti K rkk inen s ambitious five volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian pneumatology and soteriology in dialogue with the diverse global Christian tradition and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism The Power of Names Mavis Himes, 2016-05-12 Our proper name is as much a part of us as our own skin It travels with us like a passport testifying to our unique presence on this earth The articulation of our name rolls off our tongue with ease and familiarity yet we rarely turn and examine the part our name plays in what makes us who we are Our first name reflects the hopes and dreams of our parents and family our culture and our own sense of self while our surname carries our ancestral history a branding of both affiliation and transmission In The Power of Names Mavis Himes explores both the profound ambivalence that many of us feel toward our names and the conscious and unconscious impact our names have on our lives sometimes for good and sometimes for ill She explores such questions as What do our names mean How do they influence our destiny What does it mean to lose or change our name and what does this reveal or conceal about who we are Himes engages readers through a skillful interweaving of reflections on her own Jewish surname shortened by immigrant ancestors to accommodate a new life in a new world the historical and cultural impact of a group on naming practices the various ways different cultures celebrate the naming of infants the power of names in myth and legend and the impact of names on friends and patients from her practice Readers are invited to consider their own names the names they give others and the names of those around them as a starting point for understanding the stories of our lives Theology in the Pluralistic World Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2019-06-20 K rkk inen s acclaimed five volume constructive theology abridged in one accessible volume Providing a new and unique way of doing theology in our pluralistic world Veli Matti K rkk inen presents historic Christian doctrines in relation to the natural sciences and four other living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism This textbook covers all systematic topics along with a host of current issues such as violence colonialism inclusivity sociopolitical liberation environmental care and more Accessible and student friendly Christian Theology in the Pluralistic World is the ideal text for exploring a theological vision at once rooted in the Christian tradition and constructive in its engagement with the complexities of our global pluralistic world Participation and the Mystery Jorge N. Ferrer, 2017-04-12 Participation and the Mystery is both an introduction to and expansion of Jorge N Ferrer s groundbreaking work on participatory spirituality which holds that human beings are active cocreators of spiritual phenomena worlds and even ultimates After examining the impact of his work since the publication of Revisioning Transpersonal Theory Ferrer discusses the relationship between science and transpersonal psychology the nature of a fully embodied spirituality and the features of integral spiritual practice The book also introduces a participatory philosophy of education and applies it to the academic teaching of mysticism and a novel approach to embodied spiritual inquiry Critically engaging the influential work of Stanislav Grof Ken Wilber and A H Almaas Ferrer concludes with an original solution to the problem of religious pluralism that affirms the ontological richness of religious worlds while avoiding the extremes of perennialism and contextualism offering a hopeful vision for the future of world religion Participation and the Mystery is an invaluable resource to anyone seeking to deepen their understanding of participatory approaches to transpersonal psychology integral and contemplative education contemporary spirituality and religious studies Iewish Theology for a Postmodern Age Miriam Feldmann Kaye, 2019-03-08 Through a critical study of the writings of Rav Shagar and Tamar Ross Miriam Feldmann Kaye asks how Jewish theology can survive the tide of postmodernism and its refutation of a single objective and ultimate truth and suggests how aspects of postmodernism might be conceived of as a potential resource for rejuvenating religion Doing the Work of Comparative Theology Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2020-01-28 In a world that is more religiously diverse than ever before our coworkers and neighbors may well be adherents of other faiths But how many of us really grasp the similarities and differences between the major world religions Comparative theology is one increasingly important way to bridge this gap especially for Christian leaders and professors but also for lay people and students Veli Matti K rkk inen introduces the nature and work of comparative theology then delves into a detailed doctrine by doctrine comparison of Christian teachings with those of historical and contemporary Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism With every doctrine he first presents a summary of consensual Christian belief and then orients the reader to the distinctive teachings of other faith traditions highlighting parallels and differences Ideal for students ministers instructors and lay people interested in interfaith dialogue Doing the Work of Comparative Theology distills the comparative theological rigor of K rkk inen s Constructive Christian Theology for the Pluralistic World series into an accessible and user friendly textbook Readers will not only learn basic methodology but also begin to undertake the actual work of comparative theology
