Men on the Moon Simon J. Ortiz, 2022-09-20 When Faustin the old Acoma is given his first television set he considers it a technical wonder a box full of mystery What he sees on its screen that first day however is even more startling than the television itself men have landed on the moon Can this be real For Simon Ortiz Faustin's reaction proves that tales of ordinary occurrences can truly touch the heart For me he observes there's never been a conscious moment without story Best known for his poetry Ortiz also has authored 26 short stories that have won the hearts of readers through the years Men on the Moon brings these stories together stories filled with memorable characters written with love by a keen observer and interpreter of his people's community and culture True to Native American tradition these tales possess the immediacy and intimacy of stories conveyed orally They are drawn from Ortiz's Acoma Pueblo experience but focus on situations common to Native people whether living on the land or in cities and on the issues that affect their lives We meet Jimmo a young boy learning that his father is being hunted for murder and Kaiser the draft refuser who always wears the suit he was given when he left prison We also meet some curious Anglos radicals supporting Indian causes scholars studying Indian ways and San Francisco hippies who want to become Indians too Whether telling of migrants working potato fields in Idaho and pining for their Arizona home or of a father teaching his son to fly a kite Ortiz takes readers to the heart of storytelling Men on the Moon shows that stories told by a poet especially resound with beauty and depth
