Anderson, 2002-04-16 The 9/11 attacks on America marked the beginning of a new era in history one in which everyday safety is no longer taken for granted But the forces that triggered those horrific actions have been in place for years and experts estimate that as many as 500 terrorist cells exist in America today In The Cell John Miller and Michael Stone follow the key agents and detectives who know their whereabouts Listeners will join in the step by step process of identifying and linking suspects as well as learn the politics and pressures the magnitude and the feel of the greatest manhunt in the history of the world Captain Nemo Kevin J. Anderson, 2019-12-11 A New York Times bestseller imagines the life of Jules Verne in this rollicking whopper of a novel that glides down smoothly Publishers Weekly Captain Nemo is the fictional life story of one of Jules Verne's most memorable characters from 20,000 Leagues Under the Sea and The Mysterious Island This alternate history covers his boyhood friendship with the dreamer Jules Verne adventures aboard sailing ships battles with pirates and survival on a mysterious deserted island Each time he returns home to his beloved France Captain Nemo shares the tales of his exploits with the struggling writer Verne We follow Nemo's exploration of hidden caverns that lead to the center of the earth travels across darkest Africa in a hydrogen balloon and his imprisonment by an evil Ottoman caliph who commands the fascinating book Michel Thys explores the limitations of human imagination and symbolization showing the potentially destructive result of a mind that cannot confront reality His wide ranging research takes us into the domain of the unimaginable unthinkable and unspeakable Divided into four parts On the Edge of Human Imagination sees Thys adopt a phenomenological perspective to move through experiences encountered in the analyst's room from depression and psychosis to PTSD Through a dialogue with philosophers such as Jean Paul Sartre Maurice Blanchot and Emmanuel Levinas Thys investigates the relationship between fascination identification socio cultural phenomena and aesthetic pleasure Throughout he uses the paintings of Edward Hopper Sophocles Antigone Mary Shelley's Frankenstein Franz Kafka's Metamorphosis and Charlie Chaplin's Modern Times to support his ideas Integrating Freudian Kleinian and Bionian theories he shows the psychic impact of humanity's attempt to balance fear and passion on the edge of the imaginable and the liminality of the search for meaning The book brings together psychoanalytic theory and practice and philosophical anthropology confronting in the end Freud's ideas of the death drive with Sartre's understanding of the desire for being as the main driving force in human existence This book offers an illuminating evaluation of what it means to be human making it an important read for psychoanalysts psychologists and psychotherapists as well as philosophers interested in the intersection between psychoanalytic philosophical and phenomenological thought
