The Fatal Englishman Sebastian Faulks, 2002-03-12 In The Fatal Englishman his first work of nonfiction Sebastian Faulks explores the lives of three remarkable men Each had the seeds of greatness each was a beacon to his generation and left something of value behind yet each one died tragically young Christopher Wood only twenty nine when he killed himself was a painter who lived most of his short life in the beau monde of 1920s Paris where his charm good looks and the dissolute life that followed them sometimes frustrated his ambition and achievement as an artist Richard Hillary was a WWII fighter pilot who wrote a classic account of his experiences The Last Enemy but died in a mysterious training accident while defying doctor s orders to stay grounded after horrific burn injuries he was twenty three Jeremy Wolfenden hailed by his contemporaries as the brightest Englishman of his generation rejected the call of academia to become a hack journalist in Cold War Moscow A spy alcoholic and open homosexual at a time when such activity was still illegal he died at the age of thirty one a victim of his own recklessness and of the peculiar pressures of his time Through the lives of these doomed young men Faulks paints an oblique portrait of English society as it changed in the twentieth century from the Victorian era to the modern world Charlotte Gray Sebastian Faulks, 2014-09-03 Faulks s first novel since the extraordinary success of Birdsong is written with the same passion power and breadth of vision Set in England and France during the darkest days of World War II Charlotte Gray like Birdsong depicts a complex love affair that is both shaped and thwarted by war It is 1942 London is blacked out but France is under a greater darkness as the occupying Nazi forces encroach ever closer in a tense waiting game Charlotte Gray a volatile but determined young woman travels south from Edinburgh Working in London she has a brief but intense love affair with an RAF pilot When his plane is lost over France she contrives to go there herself to work in the Resistance and to search for him but then is unwilling to leave as she finds that the struggle for the country's fate is intimately linked to her own battle to take control of her life Faulks's novel is an examination of lost paradises politics without belief the limits of memory the redemptive power of art and the existence of hope beyond reason It is also a brilliant evocation of life in Occupied France and more significantly a revelation of the appalling price many Frenchmen paid to survive in unoccupied so called Free France As the men women and children of Charlotte's small town prepare to meet their terrible destiny the truth of what took place in wartime France is finally exposed When private lives and public events fatally collide the roots of the characters lives are torn up and exposed These harrowing scenes are presented with the passion and narrative force that readers will recall from Birdsong Charlotte Gray will attract even more readers to Faulks's remarkable fiction

McFarlane Screening the Past Self Impression Max Saunders,2010-04-22 Ford Madox Ford A Dual Life Volume II The After War World Max Saunders Lost Voices of Modernity Denise Gimpel,2001-08-31 Lost Voices of Modernity uncovers the story of the most popular and perhaps the most maligned modern Chinese literary journal Xiaoshuo yuebao The Short Story Magazine First published in Shanghai in 1910 Xiaoshuo yuebao boasted a circulation of ten thousand within its first three years of publication Scholars have long characterized the journal as little more than superficial popular entertainment primarily action adventure and love stories and attributed its early popularity to an urban audience s need for distraction and escape Now however Denise Gimpel s persuasive and effective study reveals a journal of serious appearance and intent By placing publication contributions and contributors within their specific cultural social and political contexts Gimpel provides an astonishingly cogent picture of a reform through fiction project created and managed by a dedicated body of writers attempting to address the concerns of the day Xiaoshuo yuebao informed the growing reading public of national and international issues science and foreign lands Read in context the stories essays plays and poems published in its pages largely in the form of the new fiction that had been hailed as the sociopolitical cure all of the early twentieth century constitute a panorama of the reforms being discussed at the time at all levels of public and private life Research Handbook on International Drug Policy David R. Bewley-Taylor,Khalid Tinasti,2020-09-25 Analysing arguably one of the most controversial areas in public policy this pioneering Research Handbook brings together contributions from expert researchers to provide a global overview of the shifting dynamics of drug policy Emphasising connections between the domestic and the international contributors illustrate the intersections between drug policy human rights obligations and the 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda offering an insightful analysis of the regional dynamics of drug control and the contemporary and emerging problems it is facing Fighting Fit Kevin Brown,2008-09-01 The twentieth century saw two world wars and many other conflicts characterised by technological change and severity of casualties Medicine has adapted quickly to deal with such challenges and new medical innovations in the military field have had advantages in civil medicine There has thus been interplay between war and medicine that has not only been confined to the armed forces and military medicine but which has impacted on health and medicine for us all These themes will be examined from the Boer War to the dawn of a new century and a war against terror the experiences of individuals as doctors nurses and patients are highlighted with personal sometimes graphic first hand accounts bringing home the realities of medical treatment in wartime Picturing the Closet Dominic Janes,2015 Picturing the Closet takes a pioneering approach to visual culture and by so doing builds on Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick s Epistemology of the Closet in order to present a compelling new approach to the British experience of queer culture since the eighteenth century Mediating Criticism Roger D. Sell,2001 In the twentieth century literature was under threat Not only was there the challenge of new forms of oral and visual culture Even literary education and literary criticism could sometimes actually distance novels poems and plays from their potential audience This is the trend which Roger D Sell now seeks to reverse Arguing that literature can still be a significant and democratic channel of human interactivity he sees the most helpful role of teachers and critics as one of mediation Through their own example they can encourage readers to empathize with otherness to recognize the historical achievement of significant acts of writing and to respond to literary authors own faith in communication itself By way of illustration he offers major re assessments of five canonical figures Vaughan Fielding Dickens T S Eliot and Frost and of two fascinating twentieth century writers who were somewhat misunderstood the novelist William Gerhardie and the poet Andrew Young

Prostitution, Women and Misuse of the Law Helen J. Self, 2004-08-02 This is an examination from a feminist historian s standpoint of the background to the present system of regulating prostitution in Britain which is generally admitted to be not only unjust and discriminatory but ineffective even in achieving its stated aims Concentrating on the 1950s and especially on the Wolfenden Report and the 1959 Street Offences Act it is a thorough exposure of the sexual double standard and general misogynist assumptions underlying legislation relating to prostitution In addition to the detailed analysis of the 1950s legislation and the background to it there is an exposition of the subsequent workings of the Act and of attempts to amend or repeal it

A Season in Fitzrovia K. A. Lalani, 2023-11-28 It is 1922 and the aftermath of a horrific war hangs over a talented group of artists as they begin their freshmen year at the Slade School of Fine Art

Art, Propaganda and Aerial Warfare in Britain during the Second World War Rebecca Searle, 2020-07-23 The War Artists Advisory Committee WAAC were responsible for the production of some of the most iconic images of the Second World War Despite its rich historical value this collection has been poorly utilised by historians and hasn t been subjected to the levels of analysis afforded to other forms of wartime culture This innovative study addresses this gap by bringing official war art into dialogue with the social economic and military histories of the Second World War Rebecca Searle explores the tensions between the documentarist and propagandistic roles of the WAAC in their representation of aerial warfare in the battle for production the Battle of Britain the Blitz and the bombing of Germany Her analyses demonstrate that whilst there was a strong correlation between war art and propaganda the WAAC depicted many aspects of experience that were absent from wartime propaganda such as class divisions within the services gendered hierarchies within industries civilian death and the true nature of the bombing of Germany In addition she shows that propagandistic constructions were not entirely separate from lived experience but reflected experience and shaped the way that individuals made sense of the war Accessibly written highly illustrated and packed with valuable examples of the use of war art as historical source this book will enhance our understanding of the social and cultural history of Britain during the Second World War

The Official History of Criminal Justice in England and Wales Paul Rock, 2019-04-23 Volume I of The Official History of Criminal Justice in England and Wales frames what was known about crime and criminal justice in the 1960s before describing the liberalising legislation of the decade Commissioned by the Cabinet Office and using interviews British Government records and papers housed in private and institutional collections this is the first of a collaboratively written series of official histories that analyse the evolution of criminal justice between 1959 and 1997 It opens with an account of the inception of the series before describing what was known about crime and criminal justice at the time It then outlines the genesis of three key criminal justice Acts that not only redefined the relations between the State and citizen but also shaped what some believed to be the spirit of the age the abolition of capital punishment and the reform of the laws on abortion and homosexuality The Acts were taken to be so contentious morally and politically that Governments of different stripes were hesitant about promoting them formally The onus was instead passed to backbenchers who were supported by interlocking groups of reformers with a pooled knowledge about how to effectively organise a rhetoric that drew on the language of utilitarianism and the clarity and authority of a Church of England This came to play an increasingly consequential and largely unacknowledged part in resolving what were often confusing moral questions This book will be of much interest to students of criminology and British history politics and law

The Flyer Martin Francis, 2011-05-19 Between 1939 and 1945 the British public was spellbound by the martial endeavours and dashing style of the young men of the RAF especially those with silvery fabric wings sewn above the breast pocket of their glamorous slate blue uniform Martin Francis provides the first scholarly study of the place of the flyer in British culture during the Second World War Examining the lives of RAF personnel and their popular representation in literary and cinematic texts he illuminates broader issues of gender social class national and racial identities emotional life and the creation of a national myth in twentieth century Britain In particular Francis argues that the flyer's relationship to fear aggression loss of his comrades bodily dismemberment and psychological breakdown reveals broader ambiguities surrounding the dominant understandings of masculinity in the middle decades of the century Despite his star appeal cultural representations of the flyer encompassed both the gentle chivalrous warrior and the uncompromising agent of destruction Paying particular attention to the romantic universe of wartime aircrew Francis reveals the extraordinary contrasts of their daily lives dicing with death in the sky one moment before sitting down to lunch with wives and children in the next Male and female experiences during the war were not polarized and antithetical but were complementary and interrelated a conclusion which has implications for the history of gender in modern Britain that reach well beyond either the specialized military culture of the wartime RAF or the chronological parameters of the Second World War

The Passing of Protestant England S. J. D. Green, 2011 An important account of the causes courses and consequences of the secularisation of modern English society

Jeeves and the Wedding Bells Sebastian Faulks, 2013-11-05 Faulksie nails it again in this pastiche novel featuring Jeeves and Bertie evoking rather than imitating Wodehouse but doing so in perfect pitch Booklist starred review P G Wodehouse documented the lives of the inimitable Jeeves and Wooster for nearly sixty years from their first appearance in the 1915 short story Extricating Young Gus to Wodehouse's final novel Aunts Aren't Gentlemen in 1974 These fictional single men were two of the greatest creations of a novelist widely proclaimed to be the finest comic English writer by critics and fans alike With the approval of the Wodehouse estate acclaimed novelist Sebastian Faulks brings these two back to life for their legion of fans Bertie nursing a bit of heartbreak over the recent engagement of one Georgina Meadowes agrees to help his old friend Peregrine Woody Beeching whose own romance is foundering which means an outing to the English countryside Almost immediately things go awry and the simple plan quickly becomes complicated In a role reversal Jeeves ends up impersonating one Lord Etringham while Bertie pretends to be Jeeves manservant and this all happens under the same roof as the now affianced Ms Meadowes From there the plot becomes even more hilarious in a brilliantly conceived seamlessly written comic work worthy of the master himself This Faulks certainly knows his stuff when it comes to homaging let me tell you Dashed if most of the time I didn t think I was reading the echt thing Christopher Buckley New York Times Book Review Entirely delightful if like me you are a Wodehouse addict you will undoubtedly want to buy three copies for your friends Christmas stocking A N Wilson Financial Times
