Feature Films as History Kenneth R. M. Short, 2014 American Film History Cynthia Lucia, Roy Grundmann, Art Simon, 2015-09-08 From the American underground film to the blockbuster superhero this authoritative collection of introductory and specialized readings explores the core issues and developments in American cinematic history during the second half of the twentieth century through the present day Considers essential subjects that have shaped the American film industry from the impact of television and CGI to the rise of independent and underground film from the impact of the civil rights feminist and LGBT movements to that of 9 11 Features a student friendly structure dividing coverage into the periods 1960 1975 1976 1990 and 1991 to the present day each of which opens with an historical overview Brings together a rich and varied selection of contributions by established film scholars combining broad historical social and political contexts with detailed analysis of individual films including Midnight Cowboy Nashville Cat Ballou Chicago Back to the Future Killer of Sheep Daughters of the Dust Nothing But a Man Ali Easy Rider The Conversation The Texas Chain Saw Massacre Longtime Companion The Matrix The War Tapes the Batman films and selected avant garde and documentary films among many others Additional online resources such as sample syllabi which include suggested readings and filmographies for both general and specialized courses will be available online May be used alongside American Film History Selected Readings Origins to 1960 to provide an authoritative study of American cinema from its earliest days through the new millennium Film History and Screen Culture in and beyond Greater China Lin Feng, 2025-02-28 Bringing together work from established and emerging scholars and practitioners from around the world this collection expands existing scholarship on cinemas of the Sinosphere by revealing forgotten and emerging aspects of film history Organised chronologically individual chapters cover geographic regions of mainland China Hong Kong and Taiwan to engage with key issues of film history and screen politics that are overlooked by the traditional canon of Chinese cinema Tackling key debates on post colonialism cold war and their sociopolitical impacts on screen culture in these regions this collection challenges the binary paradigms that are perpetuated in the historical scholarship of Chinese cinema such as left wing and right wing cinema commercial entertainment and political propaganda films and mass consumption of genre films versus the critical acclaim of New Wave auteurism Together the essays reveal the cultural mobility across different geographic and sociopolitical borders their intertwined experience of the past and historical events impact on contemporary filmmaking and screen cultures This collection will be of interest to students and researchers of Film Media and Cultural Studies as well as Asian Studies and Chinese Studies The Avant-Garde Feature Film William E.B. Verrone, 2011-11-08 Here is a critical and historical overview of unconventional and aesthetically challenging films all of feature length The author focuses on the particular forms of contemporary avant garde films which often rely on characteristics associated with historical films of the same genre Included are works by such visionary filmmakers as David Lynch Luis Bunuel Jean Cocteau Jean Luc Godard Guy Maddin and Derek Jarman The first of the two appendices contains a filmography of key avant garde feature films from Haxan Witchcraft Through the Ages 1922 to Maximum Shame 2010 The second appendix offers a brief list of directors who have made significant contributions to films that take alternative approaches to cinematic practice establishing new grounds for analysis and evaluation

Film and History James Chapman, 2017-09-16 Film is the pre eminent mass medium of the modern age It is a valuable source of evidence for the study of both the past and the contemporary world and is a social practice that has affected the lives of millions How can historians engage with this important and influential medium Written for both students and teachers Film and History provides a concise accessible introduction to the use of film in historical enquiry and a summary of the main theoretical debates Charts the development of film history as a subject area and a discipline in its own right Considers different approaches to film history including film as an art form as ideology as a historical source and as a social practice Includes case studies to ground discussion of theories and approaches in specific examples Wide ranging and authoritative Film and History equips students with the methods both to analyse film texts and to understand the place of film in history and culture

Film History Through Trade Journal Art, 1916-1920 Jeff Codori, 2020-03-31 The period in film history between the regimentation of the Edison Trust and the vertical integration of the Studio System roughly 1916 through 1920 was a time of structural and artistic experimentation for the American film industry As the nature of the industry was evolving society around it was changing as well arts politics and society were in a state of flux between old and new Before the major studios dominated the industry droves of smaller companies competed for the attention of the independent exhibitor their gateway to the movie goer Their arena was in the pages of the trade press and their weapons were their advertisements often bold and eye catching The reporting of the trade journals as they witnessed the evolution of the industry from its infancy towards the future is the basis of this history Pulled from the pages of the journals themselves as archived by the Media History Digital Library the observations of the trade press writers are accompanied by cleaned and restored advertisements used in the battle among the young film companies They offer a unique and vital look at this formative period of film history

History on Film/Film on History Robert A. Rosenstone, 2023-11-30 History on Film Film on History has established itself as a classic treatise on the historical film and its role in bringing the past to life In the fourth edition of this widely acclaimed text Robert A Rosenstone argues that to leave history films out of the discussion of the meaning of the past is to ignore a major means of understanding historical events This book examines what history films convey about the past and how they convey it demonstrating the need to learn how to read and understand this new visual world and integrating detailed analysis of films such as Schindler s List Glory October and Reds Advocating for the dramatic feature as a legitimate way of doing history this edition includes a new Preface and a new chapter that focuses on films produced in Latin America Africa the Middle East India and East Asia Examining the codes and conventions of how these films tell us about the past and providing guidance on how to effectively analyse films as historical interpretations this book is an essential introduction to the field for students of history and film

Doing Digital Film History Sarah-Mai Dang,Tim van der Heijden,Christian Gosvig Olesen,2024-12-30 How has the digital turn shaped the practices of film historical research and teaching While computational approaches have been used by film historians since the 1960s and 1970s the arrival and use of digital tools and methods in recent decades has fundamentally changed the ways we search analyze interpret present and so think and write about film history from digital archival and curatorial practices data driven search and analysis of film historical collections to the visualization and dissemination of film historical materials online While film historians have increasingly embraced the new possibilities brought by digital technologies their practical epistemological and methodological implications need further exploration What opportunities does the digitization of film historical sources provide for film historians What new questions can be raised by using digital methods What new perspectives emerge from analyzing interpreting and visualizing film historical data at the levels of both close and distant or scalable reading and viewing By focusing on the concepts tools and practices of digital film historiography this edited volume aims to contribute to a better understanding and critical reflection on the changes and continuities of doing film history in the digital age

The Routledge Companion to American Film History Pamela Robertson Wojcik, Paula J. Massood, 2025-02-12 Presenting new and diverse scholarship this collection brings together original essays that explore American film history from a fresh perspective Comprising an introduction and 34 chapters written by leading scholars from around the globe and edited by Pamela Robertson Wojcik and Paula J Massood this collection offers discussions of the American film industry from previously unexplored vantage points Rather than follow a chronological format as with most film histories this Companion offers a multiplicity of approaches to historiography and is arranged according to often underdeveloped or overlooked areas in American film including topics such as alternate archives hidden labor histories of style racialized technologies cinema s material cultures spectators and fans transnational film production intermedial histories history in and about films and the historical afterlives of cinema An exciting collection for serious film studies students and scholars interested in new perspectives and fresh approaches to thinking about and doing American film history VCR and Film Catalog ,1987 The Picture that Will Live Forever Ina Bertrand,William D. Routt,2007 The story of the Kelly Gang is considered the first narrative feature film ever made Filmed outside Melbourne when the Kelly legend was still fresh it was believed lost for many years The Australian National Film and Sound Archive and the BFI have restored parts of the original 1906 film to create an amazing package which includes two commentaries on the national and worldwide significance of the film alongside soundtracks and a variety of viewing modes The Columbia Companion to American History on Film Peter C. Rollins,2004-03-24 American history has always been an irresistible source of inspiration for filmmakers and today for good or ill most Americans sense of the past likely comes more from Hollywood than from the works of historians In important films such as The Birth of a Nation 1915 Roots 1977 Apocalypse Now 1979 and Saving Private Ryan 1998 how much is entertainment and how much is rooted in historical fact In The Columbia Companion to American History on Film more than seventy scholars consider the gap between history and Hollywood They examine how filmmakers have presented and interpreted the most important events topics eras and figures in the American past often comparing the film versions of events with the interpretations of the best historians who have explored the topic Divided into eight broad categories Eras Wars and Other Major Events Notable People Groups Institutions and Movements Places Themes and Topics and Myths and Heroes the volume features extensive cross references a filmography of discussed and relevant films notes and a bibliography of selected historical works on each subject The Columbia Companion to American History on Film is also an important resource for teachers with extensive information for research or for course development appropriate for both high school and college students Though each essay reflects the unique body of film and print works covering the subject at hand every essay addresses several fundamental questions What are the key films on this topic What sources did the filmmaker use and how did the film deviate or remain true to its sources How have film interpretations of a particular historical topic changed and what sorts of factors technological social political historiographical have affected their evolution Have filmmakers altered the historical record with a view to enhancing drama or to enhance the truth of their putative message Computational Engineering of Historical Memories Andrea

Nanetti,2022-09-26 Nanetti outlines a methodology for deploying artificial intelligence and machine learning to enhance historical research Historical events are the treasure of human experiences the heritage that societies have used to remain resilient and express their identities Nanetti has created and developed an interdisciplinary methodology supported by practice based research that serves as a pathway between historical and computer sciences to design and build computational structures that analyse how societies create narratives about historical events This consilience pathway aims to make historical memory machine understandable It turns history into a computational discipline through an interdisciplinary blend of philological accuracy historical scholarship history based media projects and computational tools Nanetti presents the theory behind this methodology from a humanities perspective and discusses its practical application in user interface and experience An essential read for historians and scholars working in the digital humanities History of civilizations of Central Asia Adle, Chahryar, UNESCO, 2005-10-03 This major six volume project co published with Macmillan covers the historical experience of the peoples and societies of the Caribbean region from the earliest times to the present day The sixth volume brings this series to an end as it takes in the whole of the modern period from colonial conquest and domination to decolonization the Cold War from start to finish the disintegration of the Soviet Union and the renewed instability in certain areas Not only did the colonial regimes lay a new patina over the region but nationalism remoulded all old identities into a series of new ones That process of the twentieth century was perhaps the most transformative of all after the colonial subjugation of the nineteenth While it has been the basis of remarkable stability in vast stretches of the region it has been a fertile source of tension and even wars in other parts The impact and the results of such changes have been astonishingly variable despite the proximity of these states to each other and their being subject to or driven by virtually the same compulsions
