Presidents and Mass Incarceration Linda K. Mancillas, 2018-01-12 Taking an innovative approach this book looks at how U S presidents and their administrations policies from the late 1960s to 2017 have led to rampant over imprisonment and a public policy catastrophe in the United States Mandatory minimum sentencing three strikes and you're out legislation harsher sentences and less parole and probation the result of draconian criminal justice policies in the last six decades is that the United States is the largest incarcerator in the world surpassing Russia and China with significant overrepresentation of African Americans and Latinos in U S prisons especially for low level nonviolent drug offenses Presidents and Mass Incarceration Choices at the Top Repercussions at the Bottom shows how American presidents from Lyndon B Johnson to Donald J Trump have operated as significant political criminal justice entrepreneurs and how the leadership choices made at the top by these chief executives have severe repercussions for the citizens at the lowest levels of our communities Linda K Mancillas references State of the Union Addresses presidential initiatives laws passed by Congress Supreme Court decisions and public opinion on high profile crime events to assemble a cohesive framework of data that supports each president's impact on the incarceration explosion Readers will come away with a greater appreciation for the complexity and magnitude of the political economic and societal issue of over imprisonment that both the federal and state governments are attempting to address

*108-1 Hearing: Global Trends in Trafficking and The "Trafficking in Persons Report", June 25, 2003, , 2004

The Death Penalty Roger Hood, Carolyn Hoyle, 2015 The fifth edition of this highly praised study charts and explains the progress that continues to be made towards the goal of worldwide abolition of the death penalty The majority of nations have now abolished the death penalty and the number of executions has dropped in almost all countries where abolition has not yet taken place Emphasizing the impact of international human rights principles and evidence of abuse the authors examine how this has fueled challenges to the death penalty and they analyze and appraise the likely obstacles political and cultural to further abolition They discuss the cruel realities of the death penalty and the failure of international standards always to ensure fair trials and to avoid arbitrariness discrimination and conviction of the innocent all violations of the right to life They provide further evidence of the lack of a general deterrent effect shed new light on the influence and limits of public opinion and argue that substituting for the death penalty life imprisonment without parole raises many similar human rights concerns This edition provides a strong intellectual and evidential basis for regarding capital punishment as undeniably cruel inhuman and degrading Widely relied upon and fully updated to reflect the current state of affairs worldwide this is an invaluable resource for all those who study the death penalty and work towards its removal as an international goal The Cambridge Handbook of Australian Criminology Adam Graycar, Peter

Grabosky, 2002-06-20 As a unique work of reference The Cambridge Handbook of Australian Criminology covers the broad range of contemporary and historical subjects of criminology combining statistical and narrative analyses The book provides the most up to date figures and facts traces historical trends in Australian crime and criminal justice and comprehensively covers the key contemporary issues in Australian criminology Including valuable crime statistics compiled by the Australian Bureau of Statistics this book is the complete companion to Australian criminology the single most important resource for Australian criminology and criminal justice United States Congressional Serial Set, Serial No. 14924, House

Report No. 724, 9/11 Recommendations Implementation Act, Pts. 1-6 , International Peacekeeping: The Yearbook of International Peace Operations Harvey Langholtz, Boris Kondoch, Alan Wells, 2021-11-22 International Peacekeeping is devoted to reporting upon and analyzing international peacekeeping with an emphasis upon legal and policy issues but is not limited to these issues It is recognized that in today's world there is a wealth of information available from the internet and through other sources It is therefore the goal of this Yearbook to make this information available in one publication which both organizes and records events over the course of a year through analytical articles a chronicle primary documents and a bibliography Topics include inter alia peacekeeping peace war conflict resolution diplomacy international law international security humanitarian relief humanitarian law and terrorism The Yearbook is of scholarly quality but is not narrowly theoretical It provides the interested public diplomats civil servants politicians the military academics journalists NGO employees and serious citizens with a document of record comment and a starting point for further research on peacekeeping and related topics This is achieved not only by the provision of basic documents on CD ROM such as Security Council Resolutions and Reports of the UN Secretary General but also by expert commentaries on world events Peacekeeping is treated in a pragmatic light seen as a form of international military cooperation for the preservation or restoration of international peace and security Attention is focused not only on UN peacekeeping operations but other missions as well This Yearbook is the continuation of the journal International Peacekeeping
