Community champions have been recognised in a council's annual awards.

South Kesteven District Council held its 5th Community Awards and presented winners with their prizes in a ceremony at the Goldthorpe Arts Centre.

There were three Grantham area award winners, while several local community champions from across the area, and further afield in the district, were named too.

Gary Gooch, South Grantham, was awarded the Good Neighbour Award as he was hailed as "the most helpful neighbour". Susan Swinburn, CEO of the Active Community Hub, was presented with the Health and Wellbeing Award and Grace Knightall was crowned Lifetime Community Champion for her 30-plus years as district organiser for the Royal British Legion (RBL) Poppy Appeal.

was posted to command a leaderless and demoralized squadron this time flying Hurricanes He continued to prove he was an outstanding fighter ace gaining the rare distinction of three DFCs and then the DSO for his leadership He was shot down over France in January 1942 Imprisoned in Stalag Luft III His room mate was Roger Bushell the mastermind of the Great Escape and Tuck worked with him on the committee and was to be his partner in the escape In January 1944 however around 20 POWs including Tuck were purged to a new camp Still determined to escape when his camp was moved out on the Long March westwards Tuck and a Polish officer took a risky chance and made their way east to Russian forces and thence to England This book reveals a more complex man than the one dimensional hero of the previous biography Post war he became good friends with the Luftwaffe ace Adolf Galland and was a key advisor with him on the film Battle of Britain and often with his other friend Douglas Bader made many media appearances His health suffered in later years from the impact of his war service and his imprisonment and he died aged 70 in 1987 India ; References to "The Canon Law", "Magna Charta",

The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature Frederick Wilse Bateson,1940 In Search of Federal Enforcement Vanessa A. Holloway,2015-05-08 In Search of Federal Enforcement is a call to investigate the history of federal oversight to secure and preserve black Americans voting rights over a ninety five year interregnum This book satiates the reader s harboring curiosity as to why the national government was culpably negligent in protecting the exercise of the franchise for black Americans until the 1965 Voting Rights Act As Holloway explains much of this problem stemmed from Southern Democrats operating in tandem with the power of private actors to circumvent the Fifteenth Amendment This mutual advantage partnership codified disfranchisement safeguarded the interests of recalcitrant Southern states and localities and defended local systems of privilege In the pages of this timely study Holloway lays bare the abject failure of the national government and critically evaluates how the Southern status quo stimulated chaos at the national level Despite market paradigms In Search of Federal Enforcement confronts this historical conundrum and offers keen observations about voting manipulations and electoral abuse by both incumbents and private actors

Margaret Thatcher Jonathan Aitken, 2013-10-14 The complete life of Margaret Thatcher in one volume As Britain's first woman Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher brought about the biggest social and political revolution in the nation's post war history She achieved this largely by the driving force of her personality a subject of endless speculation among both her friends and her foes Jonathan Aitken has an insider's view of Margaret Thatcher's story He is well qualified to explore her strong and sometimes difficult personality during half a century of political dramas From first meeting her when she was a junior shadow minister in the mid 1960s during her time as leader of the Opposition when he was a close family friend and as a Member of Parliament throughout her years in power Aitken had a ring side seat at many private and public spectacles in the Margaret Thatcher saga From his unique vantage point Aitken brings new light to many crucial episodes of Thatcherism They include her ousting of Ted Heath her battles with her Cabinet the Falklands War the Miners Strike her relationships with world leaders such as Ronald Reagan Mikhail Gorbachev and King Fahd of Saudi Arabia and the build up to the Shakespearian coup inside the Conservative Party which brought about her downfall Drawing on his own diaries and a wealth of extensive research including some ninety interviews which range from international statesmen like Mikhail Gorbachev Henry Kissinger and Lord Carrington to many of her No 10 private secretaries and personal friends Jonathan Aitken's Margaret Thatcher Power and Personality breaks new ground as a fresh and fascinating portrait of the most influential political leader of post war Britain
