MAPS DESIGNED BY RICHARD EDIS HARRISON

THERE IS SOMETHING ABOUT THE VERY WORD "EXPLORATION" THAT CREATES AN ATMOSPHERE OF ITS OWN. It sends the fancy flying to strange and remote countries; it conjures up visions of scorching deserts and of heroic journeys afoot through dark, swamp-infested lowlands and over soaring Olympus-like mountains. You hear the roar of tropical gales, the thunder of the tumbling icepack, the crash of the waves upon a lonely shore.

They were rebels—ambitious, ruthless, undaunted—men of fabulous courage and skepticism of things as they seemed. Driven by curiosity, by lust for wealth and glory, they created their own destinies.

By permitting the great adventurers to record their stories in their own words, Dr. Stefansson has captured the spirit of the times, as well as the emotions

Great Adventures and Explorations from the Earliest Times to the Present, as Told by the Explorers Themselves Vilhjalmur Stefansson, Olive Rathbun Wilcox, 1947 The Greatest Adventure Books of All Time - Jules Verne Collection Jules Verne, 2023-12-29 In The Greatest Adventure Books of All Time Jules Verne Collection readers are invited to traverse the vivid landscapes of human curiosity and innovation This anthology showcases Verne's masterful blending of science fiction and adventure encapsulating the spirit of the 19th century's burgeoning exploration narrative Featuring thrilling tales such as Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea and Journey to the Center of the Earth Verne's prose is characterized by meticulous research and imaginative detail reflecting the era's fascination with technology and the unknown Each story transports readers into uncharted territories where the boundaries between science and imagination effortlessly dissolve Jules Verne often hailed as the father of science fiction was influenced by his early exposure to maritime adventures and the scientific advancements of his time Born in 1828 in France his writings reveal an astute understanding of contemporary scientific theories and human ingenuity Verne's early experiences as a law student and his encounters with sailors and explorers profoundly shaped his narrative style leading him to craft unforgettable tales that resonate with the quest for knowledge and exploration This collection is highly recommended for anyone who seeks to rekindle their sense of wonder and adventure Verne's compelling storytelling not only entertains but also inspires a deeper appreciation for the natural world and the limits of human potential Readers of all ages will find themselves captivated by the timeless themes and innovative spirit that continue to influence modern literature The Greatest Adventure Colin Burgess, 2021-08-12 The Greatest Adventure explores the past present and future of the space race The space race was perhaps the greatest technological contest of the twentieth century It was a thrilling era of innovation discovery and exploration as astronauts and cosmonauts were launched on space missions of increasing length complexity and danger The Greatest Adventure traces the events of this extraordinary period describing the initial string of Soviet achievements the first satellite in orbit the first animal man and woman in space the first spacewalk as well as the ultimate US victory in the race to land on the moon The book then takes the reader on a journey through the following decades of space exploration to the present time detailing the many successes tragedies risks and rewards of space exploration Great Adventures and Explorations Vilhjalmur Stefansson, Olive Rathbun Wilcox, Richard Edes Harrison, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1947 edition The Magnificent Adventure: Being the Story of the World's Greatest Exploration and the Romance of a Very Gallant Gentleman Emerson Hough, 2020-09-28 A woman tall somewhat angular dark of hair and eye strong of features a woman now approaching middle age sat looking out over the long tree clad slopes that ran down from the gallery front of the mansion house to the gate at the distant roadway She had sat thus for some moments many moments her gaze intently fixed as though waiting for something something or someone that she did not now see but expected soon to see It was late afternoon of a day so beautiful that not even old Albemarle beauty spot of Virginia ever produced one more beautiful not in the hundred years preceding that day nor in the century since then For this was more than a hundred years ago and what is now an ancient land was then a half opened region settled only here and there by the great plantations of the well to do The house that lay at the summit of the long and gentle slope flanked by its wide galleries its flung doors opening it from front to rear to the gaze as one approached had all the rude comfort and assuredness usual with the gentry of that time and place It was the privilege and the habit of the Widow Lewis to sit idly when she liked but her attitude now was not that of idleness Intentness reposeful acceptance of life rather showed in her motionless long sustained position She was patient as women are but her strong pose its freedom from material support her restrained power to do or to endure gave her the look of owning something more than resignation something more than patience A strong figure of a woman one would have said had one seen her sitting on the gallery of her old home a hundred and twenty four years ago The Widow Lewis stared straight down at the gate a quarter of a mile away with yearning in her gaze But as so often happens what she awaited did not appear at the time and place she herself had set There fell at the western end of the gallery a shadow a tall shadow but she did not see it She did not hear the footfall not stealthy but quite silent with which the tall owner of the shadow came toward her from the gallery end It was a young man or rather boy no more than eighteen years of age who stood now and gazed at her after his silent approach so like that of an Indian savage Half savage himself he seemed now as he stood clad in the buckskin garments of the chase then not unusual in the Virginian borderlands among settlers and hunters and not held out among a people so often called to the chase or to war

New Spaces of Exploration Simon Naylor, James R. Ryan, 2009-12-18 For many the dawn of the twentieth century ushered in an era where the world map had few if any blank spaces left to discover The age of exploration was supposedly dead New Spaces of Exploration challenges this assumption Focusing specifically on exploration in the twentieth century the authors demonstrate how new technologies and changing geopolitical configurations have ensured that exploration has remained a key feature of our rapidly globalizing world Ranging widely in their geographical focus from the Europe and Asia to Australia and from the polar regions to outer space they demonstrate the increasing diversity of modern exploration and reveal the continuing political military industrial and cultural motivations at play The result is a major contribution to our understanding of the significance of exploration in the twentieth century Contributors include E Baigent C Collis K Dodds F Driver M Godwin J Hill F Korsmo F MacDonald S Naylor J Ryan N Thomas and K Yusoff
