M. Sparrow, 2018-09-19 Why are Americans of African descent as a group not flourishing like other racial groups in America Dr J M Sparrow in Rebels with Insufficient Cause proposes that value formation through the biblical model of the family is lacking The secular world is redefining and reinterpreting the social structures that God created in order for humans to enjoy maximum human flourishing Every person or social group that chooses to ignore God s designs for humanity will experience chaos but every person and social group that submits to God s designs for humanity will experience order Americans of African descent are experiencing that chaos in greater measure than any other racial group Since this book holds to a biblical worldview that teaches that all humans are created equal Americans of African descent are not inherently more debased than other races However since the out of wedlock birth rate is astronomically higher in black communities than in others they are experiencing a greater share of the chaos Yet all is not lost When Americans of African descent begin to hold up the truths of the Bible as normative and encourage future generations to practice the same things will begin to turn around Americans of African descent must choose to reject the victim mentality see themselves as part of the larger American culture rather than as outsiders and inculcate biblical values on their children in the midst of loving supportive and God honoring family units American Reference Books Annual Bohdan S. Speer, 2005-01-01 The holding of prisoners of war has always been both a political and a military enterprise yet the military prisons of the Civil War which held more than four hundred thousand soldiers and caused the deaths of fifty six thousand men have been nearly forgotten Now Lonnie R Speer has brought to life the least known men in the great struggle between the Union and the Confederacy using their own words and observations as they endured a true hell on earth Drawing on scores of previously unpublished firsthand accounts Portals to Hell presents the prisoners experiences in great detail and from an impartial perspective The first comprehensive study of all major prisons of both the North and the South this chronicle analyzes the many complexities of the relationships among prisoners guards commandants and government leaders Finding List of the Minneapolis Public Library Minneapolis Public Library, 1900 10 Little Americans, Instruction and Training for Enhanced Reference Service Anne Cerstvik Nolan, 1998 Finding Purple America Jon Smith, 2013-05-01 The new southern studies has had an uneasy relationship with both American studies and the old southern studies In Finding Purple America Jon Smith one of the founders of the new movement locates the source of that unease in the fundamentally antimodern fantasies of both older fields The old southern studies tends to view modernity as a threat to a mystic southern essence a dangerous outside force taking the form of everything from a bulldozer revolution to a national project of forgetting Since the rise of the New Americanists American studies has also imagined itself to be in a permanent crisis mode seeking to affiliate the field and the national essence with youth countercultures that sixties leftists once imagined to be the future Such fantasies Smith argues have resulted in an old southern studies that cannot understand places like Birmingham or Atlanta or cities at all and an American studies that cannot understand red states Most Americans live in neither a comforting premodern Mayberry nor an exciting postmodern Los Angeles but rather in what postcolonialists call alternative modernities and hybrid cultures whose relationships to past and future to stability and change are complex and ambivalent

Looking at how the South has played in global metropolitan pop culture since the nineties and at how southern popular and high culture alike have in fact repeatedly embraced urban modernity Smith masterfully weaves together postcolonial theory cultural studies Lacanian psychoanalysis and surprisingly marketing theory to open up the inconveniently in between purple spaces and places that Americanist and southernist fantasies about who we are have so long sought to foreclose
