D. M. Snell, 2016-06-16 Concern about the decline of community and the theme of community spirit are internationally widespread in the modern world The English past has featured many representations of declining community expressed by those who lamented its loss in quite different periods and in diverse genres This book analyses how community spirit and the passing of community have been described in the past whether for good or ill with an eye to modern issues such as the so called loneliness epidemic or the social consequences of alternative structures of community It does this through examination of authors such as Thomas Hardy James Wentworth Day Adrian Bell and H E Bates by appraising detective fiction writers analysing parish magazines considering the letter writing of the parish poor in the 18th and 19th centuries and through the depictions of realist landscape painters such as George Morland K D M Snell addresses modern social concerns showing how many current preoccupations had earlier precedents In presenting past representations of declining communities and the way these affected individuals of very different political persuasions the book draws out lessons and examples from the past about what community has meant hitherto setting into context modern predicaments and judgements about spirits of community today     The English Calendar St. Bede the Venerable, D.P. Curtin, 2015-11-01 The English Calendar Kalendarium Anglicanum is a Menologium or liturgical calendar of saints used by the Anglo Saxon church in the 8th century St Bede composed this using the ancient Roman calendar as his basis which involves both the nones and ides of each month and the days are not counted in our familiar contemporary chronology This work also includes the original Latin version of the text as well as its English translation     Πανσεβεια, or, a View of all Religions in the world, etc. With a portrait Alexander ROSS (Master of Southampton Grammar School.), 1655     Pansebeia: Or, A View of All Religions in the World: Alexander Ross, 1696     Alleluia to Amen Justin McClain, 2020-05-29 Alleluia to Amen is an indispensable resource for parish leaders and volunteers looking for prayers to offer at gatherings outside of Mass Justin McClain author of Called to Pray and Called to Teach provides busy leaders like you with original and traditional prayers to help you lead your faith community in prayer with confidence and ease While Catholics regularly gather for liturgical celebrations and for devotions such as the Rosary and Stations of the Cross we also pray in all sorts of settings and for many reasons to begin and end meetings to bless events and to mark the launch of major undertakings such as a capital campaign for example We instinctively gather in prayer in sorrow during times of tragedy and in gratitude for unexpected good fortune Alleluia to Amen The Prayer Book for Catholic Parishes has your needs covered for the myriad of occasions that fall outside liturgical celebrations and communal devotions Catholic author and high school theology teacher Justin McClain provides prayers for each day of the week the natural and liturgical seasons of the year regularly scheduled meetings for various ministry groups

The Great Hall, Winchester Castle ... Melville Portal, 1899      The Roman Missal adapted to the use of the laity ,1899      Communities of Saint Martin Sharon Farmer, 2019-03-15 Sharon Farmer here investigates the ways in which three medieval communities the town of Tours the basilica of Saint Martin there and the abbey of Marmoutier nearby all defined themselves through the cult of Saint Martin She demonstrates how in the early Middle Ages the bishops of Tours used the cult of Martin their fourth century predecessor to shape an idealized image of Tours as Martin's town As the heirs to Martin's see the bishops projected themselves as the rightful leaders of the community However in the late eleventh century she shows the canons of Saint Martin where the saint's relics resided and the monks of Marmoutier which Martin had founded took control of the cult and produced new legends and rituals to strengthen their corporate interests Since the basilica and the abbey differed in their spiritualities structures and external ties the canons and monks elaborated and manipulated Martin's cult in quite different ways Farmer shows how one saint's cult lent itself to these varying uses and analyzes the strikingly dissimilar Martins that emerged Her skillful inquiry into the relationship between group identity and cultural expression illuminates the degree to which culture is contested territory Farmer's rich blend of social history and hagiography will appeal to a wide range of medievalists cultural anthropologists religious historians and urban historians
