Feasting And Fasting Religious Topics:

From Feasting To Fasting Veronika Grimm,2002-11 Veronika Grimm discusses early Christian texts dealing with food eating and fasting It will be of interest to all students of Early Christianity and to those searching for historical roots of modern attitudes

Holy Feast and Holy Fast Caroline Walker Bynum,1988-01-07 In the period between 1200 and 1500 in western Europe a number of religious women gained widespread veneration and even canonization as saints for their extraordinary devotion to the Christian eucharist supernatural multiplications of food and drink and miracles of bodily manipulation including stigmata and inedia living without eating The occurrence of such phenomena sheds much light on the nature of medieval society and medieval religion It also forms a chapter in the history of women Previous scholars have occasionally noted the various phenomena in isolation from each other and have sometimes applied modern medical or psychological theories to them Using materials based on saints lives and the religious and mystical writings of medieval women and men Caroline Walker Bynum uncovers the pattern lying behind these aspects of women s religiosity and behind the fascination men and women felt for such miracles and devotional practices She argues that food lies at the heart of much of women s piety Women renounced ordinary food through fasting in order to prepare for receiving extraordinary food in the eucharist They also offered themselves as food in miracles of feeding and bodily manipulation Providing both functionalist and phenomenological explanations Bynum explores the ways in which food practices enabled women to exert control within the family and to define their religious vocations She also describes what women meant by seeing their own bodies and God s body as food and what men meant when they too associated women with food and flesh The author s interpretation of women s piety offers a new view of the nature of medieval asceticism and drawing upon both anthropology and feminist theory she illuminates the distinctive features of women s use of symbols Rejecting presentist interpretations of women as exploited or masochistic she shows the power and creativity of women s writing and women s lives

Food, Feasts, and Faith Paul Fieldhouse,2017-04-17 An indispensable resource for exploring food and faith this two volume set offers information on food related religious beliefs customs and practices from around the world Why do Catholics eat fish on Fridays Why are there retirement homes for aged cows in India What culture holds ceremonies to welcome the first salmon More than five billion people worldwide claim a religious identity that shapes the way they think about themselves how they act and what they eat Food Feasts and Faith An Encyclopedia of Food Culture in World Religions explores how the food we eat every day often serves purposes other than to keep us healthy and stay alive we eat to express our faith and to adhere to ethnic or cultural traditions that are part of who we are This book provides readers with an understanding of the rich world of food and faith It contains more than 200 alphabetically arranged entries that describe the beliefs and customs of well established major world religions and sects as well as those of smaller faith communities and new religious movements The entries cover topics such as religious food rules religious festivals and symbolic foods and vegetarianism and veganism as well as general themes such as rites of passage social justice hospitality and compassion Each entry on religion explains what the religious dietary laws and guidelines are and how these were interpreted and put into practice historically and in modern settings The coverage also includes important festivals and feast days as well as significant religious figures and organizations Additionally some 160 sidebars provide examples and more detailed information as well as fun facts

Feast, Fast or Famine Wendy Mayer, Silke Trzcionka, 2005-01-01 In recent decades there has been an increasing interest in the study of food and drink in the ancient Mediaeval and Byzantine worlds and of their supply and consumption This volume presents selected papers from the biennial conference of the Australian Association for Byzantine Studies which was held at the University of Adelaide 11-12 July 2003 The theme was food and drink in Byzantium Published selectively in the present volume the papers of the conference are augmented by contributions from international scholars While some papers address the use of food directly children's diet fasting or tangentially in love spells or discuss philosophical approaches towards food vegetarianism other papers in this volume examine the topic from another perspective the role and perception of food and drink and their consumption in society Yet others examine issues of supply military logistics and the role it played in shaping Byzantium This volume will appeal to readers interested in the history of food in late antique and Byzantine society in Byzantine rhetoric in magic in late antiquity and in the Jews in early Byzantium

Eating in Isaiah Andrew T. Abernethy, 2014-09-04 In Eating in Isaiah Andrew Abernethy employs a sequential synchronic approach to explore the role of eating in the structure and message of the book of Isaiah By focusing on scaffolding chapters Isaiah 1 36 37 55 65 66 avenues open for exploring how eating operates within the major sections of Isaiah and how the motif enhances the book's coherence Furthermore occurrences of eating in Isaiah create networks of association that grant perspective on significant topics in the book's message such as Zion YHWH's kingship and YHWH's servants Amidst growing scholarly interest in food and drink within biblical literature Eating in Isaiah demonstrates how eating can operate at a literary level within a prophetic book

Mark Timothy J. Geddert, 2001-01-23 Timothy J Geddert views Mark as a profound theologian and accomplished writer not a mere compiler of traditions Mark's text provokes careful reflection on its subtle and challenging message of hope and its call to faithfully follow Jesus on the way Mark's Gospel speaks plainly yet sometimes in riddles of God as revealed in Jesus of Nazareth the Christ the Son of God Mark presents God's reign its present hiddenness and future glory and its surprising way of coming Mark is also about Jesus and his followers crossing barriers to pass God's grace on to those formerly excluded Mark's resurrection message is open ended Readers supply their own ending not just in words but by following their resurrected Lord Includes essays on themes useful for teaching preaching and Bible study bibliographies charts two maps and an index of ancient sources

The Catholic Table: Finding Joy Where Food and Faith Meet Emily Stimpson Chapman, 2016-10-01

The Bioarchaeology of Ritual and Religion Alexandra Livarda, Richard Madgwick, Santiago Riera Mora, 2017-12-21 The Bioarchaeology of Ritual and Religion is the first volume dedicated to exploring ritual and religious practice in past societies from a variety of environmental remains Building on recent debates surrounding for instance performance materiality and the false dichotomy between ritualistic and secular behavior this book investigates notions of ritual and religion through the lens of perishable material culture Research centering on bioarchaeological evidence and drawing on methods from archaeological science has traditionally focused on functional questions surrounding environment and economy However recent years have seen an increased recognition of the under exploited potential for scientific data to provide detailed information relating to ritual and religious practice This volume explores the diverse roles of plant animal and other organic remains in ritual and religion as foods offerings sensory or healing mediums grave goods and worked artifacts It also provides insights into how archaeological science can shed light on the reconstruction of ritual processes and the framing of rituals The 14 papers showcase current and new approaches in the investigation of bioarchaeological evidence for elucidating complex social issues and worldviews The case studies are intentionally broad encompassing a range of sub disciplines of bioarchaeology including archaeobotany anthracology palynology micromorphology geoarchaeology zooarchaeology including avian and worked bone studies archaeomalacology and organic residue analysis The temporal and geographical coverage is equally wide extending across Europe from the Mediterranean and Aegean to the Baltic and North Atlantic regions and from the Mesolithic to the medieval period The volume also includes a discursive paper by Prof Brian Hayden who suggests a different interpretative framework of archaeological contexts and rituals

Junior Assembly Book Doreen Vause, Liz Beaumont, 1989 A source of assembly ideas for the busy teacher this book presents stories and poems many from around the world The material for the 8 to 13 age group is designed to encourage children to think about themselves their world and their feelings fostering understanding and tolerance of the cultures and beliefs of others

The Sacred Home in Renaissance Italy Abigail Brundin, Deborah Howard, Mary Laven, 2018-07-12 The Sacred Home in Renaissance Italy explores the rich devotional life of the Italian household between 1450 and 1600 Rejecting the enduring stereotype of the Renaissance as a secular age this interdisciplinary study reveals the home to have been an important site of spiritual revitalization Books buildings objects spaces images and archival sources are scrutinized to cast new light on the many ways in which religion infused daily life within the household Acts of devotion from routine prayers to extraordinary religious experiences such as miracles and visions frequently took place at home amid the joys and trials of domestic life from childbirth and marriage to sickness and death Breaking free from the usual focus on Venice Florence and Rome The Sacred Home investigates practices of piety across the Italian peninsula with particular attention paid to the city of Naples the Marche and the Venetian mainland It also looks beyond the elite to consider artisanal and lower status households and reveals gender and age as factors that powerfully conditioned religious experience Recovering a host of lost voices and compelling narratives at the intersection between the divine and the everyday The Sacred Home offers unprecedented glimpses through the keyhole into the spiritual lives of Renaissance Italians

The Food and Feasts of Jesus Douglas E. Neel, Joel A. Pugh, 2012-06-28 The Food and Feasts of Jesus offers a new perspective on life in biblical times by taking readers inside the food culture of the day From wedding feasts to a farmer s lunch the book explores the significance of various meals discusses key ingredients and offers accessible recipes for readers to make their own tastes of the first century

Food & Faith in Christian Culture Ken Albala, Trudy Eden, 2011 This anthology follows the intersection of food and faith from the fourteenth to the twenty first century charting the complex relationship among religious eating habits and politics culture and social structure

Food, Religion and Communities in Early Modern Europe Christopher Kissane, 2018-06-14 Using a three part structure focused on the major historical subjects of the Inquisition the Reformation and witchcraft Christopher Kissane examines the relationship between food and religion in early modern Europe Food Religion and Communities in Early Modern Europe employs three key case studies in Castile Zurich and Shetland to explore what food can reveal about the wider social and cultural history of early modern communities undergoing religious upheaval Issues of identity gender cultural symbolism and community relations are analysed in a number of different contexts The book also surveys the place of food in history and argues the need for historians not only to think more about food but also with food in order to gain novel insights into historical issues This is an important study for food historians and anyone seeking to understand the significant issues and events in early modern Europe from a fresh perspective

A Feast of Words Michel Jeanneret, 1991-10-08 The banquet gives rise to a special moment when thought and the senses words and food enhance each other Throughout history the ideal of the symposium has reconciled the angel and the beast in the human renewing the interdependence between the mouth that speaks and the mouth that eats Michel Jeanneret's lively book explores the paradigm of the banquet as a guide to significant tendencies in Renaissance Humanist culture and shows how this culture in turn illuminates the tensions between physical and mental pleasures Ranging widely over French Italian German and Latin texts Jeanneret not only investigates the meal as a narrative artefact but enquires as well into aspects of sixteenth century anthropology and aesthetics

Christian Fasting S.H. Mathews, 2015-01-27 Through the lens of social scientific criticism Christian Fasting Biblical and Evangelical Perspectives explores the social cultural and religious significance of fasting in the first century Mediterranean world Old Testament precedents as well as Mesopotamian Greek and Roman influences are examined to form the backdrop for a detailed interpretation of each fasting text in the New Testament Contemporary evangelical fasting literature is also discussed and analyzed Finally H S Mathews proposes a solution for reconciling a biblical interpretation of fasting with contemporary evangelical practice
