Granton Manor:

Dangerous Shores Jessica Blair, 2011-11-10 When John Mitchell inherits property from a distant relative he and his family move from a comfortable living in Whitby to a large country estate in Cornwall It seems an ideal place for John and his wife to raise their young daughter Abigail However life in the South is not without its problems and he finds himself clashing with the Gaisfords a powerful old Cornish family Any problems the family encounter over the years however seem to be averted when Abigail marries handsome Luke Gaisford in spite of her father's warning that still waters run deep But Abigail soon learns she should have heeded her father's warning when she uncovers the secrets Luke has been harbouring about his life

Demons Alex Binney, 2012 We all have demons inside us It's how we deal with them that dictates the sort of people we become said the psychiatrist This platitude does not help the Murder Squad at Scotland Yard when they are called in to solve five unlawful killings that occur within a twentyfour hour period in the London area To complicate matters they are also asked to re open a murder case when a man tried for the homicide is acquitted at the Old Bailey Their problems escalate when a Jack the Ripper copy cat starts his bloody slaughters in the Whitechapel area It is 1958 when the advantages of modern forensic science are not available Superintendent William Lamb is assigned to the case with the assistance of several detectives His actions are called in to question by his peers when it becomes obvious that the superintendent has his own dark secrets to conceal A demonic story which is a challenge to take up and even more difficult to put down Another spine chilling tale from Alex Binney that will keep you awake at night
