School Moms Laura Pappano,2024-01-30 An investigative study of the far right s attack on education and an on the ground look at the parent activist battle on either side of the debate to control the future of public schools For well over a century public schools have been a non partisan gathering place and vital center of civic life in America but something has changed In School Moms journalist Laura Pappano explores the on the ground story of how public schools across the country have become ground zero in a cultural and political war as the far right have made efforts to seek power over school boards Pappano argues that the rise of parent activism is actually the culmination of efforts that began in the 1990s after campaigns to stop sex education largely fizzled Recent efforts to make public schools more responsive and inclusive as well as the pandemic have offered openings the far right have been waiting for to organize and sway parents who are frustrated and exhausted by remote learning objections by teachers unions and shifting directives from school leaders Groups like Moms for Liberty and Parents Defending Education are organizing against revised history curricula they have dubbed as CRT banning books pressing for Don't Say Gay laws and asserting parental rights to gain control over the review of classroom materials On the other side progressive groups like Support Our Schools and Red Wine Blue are mobilizing parents to counter such moves Combining on the ground reporting with research and expert interviews School Moms will take a hard look at where these battles are happening what is at stake and why it matters for the future of our schools
