Hunted And Harried:

Hunted and Harried Ballantyne, R. M.,2007 The executioner was about to obey when a noise was heard at the door of the Council Chamber and a cavalier booted and spurred and splashed with mud as if he had ridden fast and far strode hastily up to the Duke and whispered in his ear The effect of the whisper was striking for an expression of mingled surprise horror and alarm overspread for a few moments even his hard visage At the same time the Bishop of Galloway was observed to turn deadly pale and an air of consternation generally marked the members of Council Illustrated Hunted and Harried R. The treatment of the Scottish Covenanters by the British crown under the Stuart dynasty in the seventeenth century is a subject to which little space has ever been afforded in history books yet that story goes a long way toward illustrating why religious worship needs to remain free of state control Written in the nineteenth century by R M Ballantyne this novel is a sympathetic portrayal of what is termed the killing time in Anglo Scottish relations Amazon Hunted and Harried Robert Michael Ballantyne,1893 Hunted and Harried Robert Michael
