Chekhov Gorky Zola Fontane Proust Mann Kafka and Pirandello The author's skills as critic and bibliographer are demonstrated in the practical guide to translations in and out of print and the recommendations for further reading There are four appendices to the book that examine issues and problems of translation giving examples side by side of different translations for comparison provide quotations from texts in their original languages advise on the form and pronunciation of Russian names and describe the value of money in the mid to late nineteenth century Aimed at those who want to explore European literature for themselves this is an extremely readable and entertaining introductory guide Evaluates thirty two of the greatest works of European literature Clear explanation of critical terms and modern literary developments Includes short biographies of each author The literary and historical contexts are expertly summarised Suggests the best available paperback translations

The Novel and Europe Andrew Hammond, 2016-10-05 This book examines the ways in which fiction has addressed the continent since the Second World War Drawing on novelists from Europe and elsewhere the volume analyzes the literary response to seven dominant concerns ideas of Europe conflict borders empire unification migration and marginalization offering a ground breaking study of how modern and contemporary writers have participated in the European debate The sixteen essays view the chosen writers not as representatives of national literatures but as participants in transcontinental discussion that has occurred across borders cultures and languages In doing so the contributors raise questions about the forms of power operating across and radiating from Europe challenging both the institutionalized divisions of the Cold War and the triumphalist narrative of continental unity currently being written in Brussels

Periods of European Literature , 1907

Landmarks in the German Novel Peter Hutchinson, Michael Minden, 2007 The nine essays in this volume deal with major achievements in the German novel since 1959 They range from the very well known such as Brussig's Helden wie wir an extravagant treatment of life under the Stasi and the fall of the Berlin Wall to the much more recondite such as Hubert Fichte's Detleivs Imitationen Gr nspan one of the first and most important products of the abolition of the discrimination against gays in 1969 What is most surprising about this collection is that in contrast to the majority of successful novels written in German before 1959 only one of these is by a clearly West German author Hubert Fichte There is by contrast a surprising number who have their roots in the GDR Plenzdorf Wolf Brussig Schulze or in Austria Bachmann Bernhard This is also a period in which women writers emerge powerfully Bachmann Wolf and zdamar Virtually all these novels aroused controversy in some quarters at the time of their publication often for their treatment of semi taboo or at least uncomfortable subject matter These essays all by specialists in the relevant field were originally delivered as lectures in the University of Cambridge
