Langrishe Go Down:

Langrishe, Go Down Aidan Higgins, 2022-11-29 An eminently poetic book Langrishe Go Down Higgins's first novel traces the fall of the Langrishes a once wealthy highly respected Irish family through the lives of their four daughters especially the youngest Imogen whose love affair with a self centered German scholar resonates throughout the book Their relationship told in lush erotic and occasionally melancholic prose comes to represent not only the invasion and decline of this insular family but the decline of Ireland and Western Europe as a whole in the years preceding World War II In the tradition of great Irish writing Higgins's prose is a direct descendent from that of James Joyce and Samuel Beckett and nowhere else in his mastery of the language as evident as in Langrishe Go Down which the Irish Times applauded as the best Irish novel since At Swim Two Birds and the novels of Beckett      Langrishe, Go Down Harold Pinter, 2003      Sharp Cut Steven H.

Gale, 2021-02-16 While best known as one of the most important playwrights of the twentieth century Harold Pinter 1930 2008 had an equally successful career writing screenplays His collaborations with director Joseph Losey garnered great attention and esteem and two of his screenplays earned Academy Award nominations The French Lieutenant's Woman 1981 and Betrayal 1983 He is also credited for writing an unproduced script to remake Stanley Kubrick's 1962 adaptation of Lolita Much scholarship has been dedicated to the subject of Pinter as playwright but the rich landscape of his work in film has been left largely undisturbed In Sharp Cut Harold Pinter's Screenplays and the Artistic Process Steven H Gale the world's foremost Pinter scholar analyzes Pinter's creative process from initial conception to finished film Gale makes careful point by point comparisons of each stage in the screenplay's creation the source material the adaptations themselves and the films made from the scripts in order to reveal the meaning behind each film script and to explain the cinematic techniques used to express that meaning Unlike most Pinter scholars who focus almost solely on the written word Gale devotes discussion to the cinematic interpretation of the scripts through camera angles and movement cutting and other techniques Pinter does not merely convert his stage scripts to screenplays he adapts the works to succeed in the other medium avoiding elements of the live play that do not work onscreen and using the camera's focusing operations in ways that are not possible on the stage As Pinter's career progressed and his writing evolved screenplays became for him an increasingly vital means of creative expression Sharp Cut is the first study to fully explore this important component of the Pinter canon      The Pinter Ethic Penelope Prentice, 2000 First Published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company      The Anglo-Irish Novel and the Big House Vera Kreilkamp, 1998-10-01 This book is a comprehensive study of the ascendancy novel from Maria Edgeworth's Castle Rackrent 1800 through contemporary reinventions of the form Kreilkamp argues that Irish fiction needs to be rescued from the critical assumptions underlying attacks on the historical mythologies of Yeats and the Literary Revival Exploring the uniquely Irish dimensions of colonial and post colonial societies Kreilkamp charts the self critical formulations of a gentry culture facing its extinction more often and more successfully with comic irony than nostalgia Kreilkamp positions the Big House novels within current debates in postcolonial criticism and theory She argues that these fictional representations of a beleaguered society provide a complex nuanced gaze into a hybrid colonial group that distanced itself from the self aggrandizements of the revivalists As she examines the gothic revisionist and postmodern permutations of an enduring national form she illustrates the ways ascendancy women transformed conventions of an English domestic genre into political fiction Her attention to Edgeworth s Irish works the fiction of the neglected Victorian novelist Charles Lever and the gothic forms of the Big House by Sheridan Le Fanu and Charles Maturin provide a historical context for later reformulations of the genre by Somerville and Ross Elizabeth Bowen Molly Keane William Trevor Jennifer Johnston Aidan Higgins and John Banville

Kafka and Pinter R. Armstrong,1998-11-16 Kafka and Pinter is the first major study to focus on the extraordinary affinity between these two heavyweights of twentieth century literature As well as offering a bold new interpretation of Kafka s portrayal of the struggle between father and son in his classic stories The Judgement and The Metamorphosis the book seeks to assess and document through a detailed exposition of textual and other evidence the extent to which Pinter s treatment of the same theme has been influenced by Kafka s example Three of Pinter s plays The Homecoming Family Voices and Moonlight are examined in depth the last two more comprehensively perhaps than ever before Clearly written and replete with all manner of fascinating parallels and interconnections this book commends itself not only to students of Kafka and or Pinter but also to those with a more general interest in such areas as comparative literature theatre studies religion and psychology

Irish Writing in the Twentieth Century David Pierce,2000 Arranged chronologically by decade from the 1890s to the 1990s each decade is divided into two different types of writing critical documentary and imaginative writing and is accompanied by a headnote which situates it thematically and chronologically The Reader is also structured for thematic study by listing all the pieces included under a series of topic headings The wide range of material encompasses writings of well known figures in the Irish canon and neglected writers alike This will appeal to the general reader but also makes Irish Writing in the Twentieth Century ideal as a core text providing a unique focus for detailed study in a single volume

BOOK JACKET

Versions Of Ireland Éoin Flannery,2021-03-04 Versions of Ireland brings a refined postcolonial theoretical optic to bear on many of the most urgent questions within contemporary Irish cultural studies Drawing on and extending the most advanced critical work within the discipline the book offers a subtle critical genealogy of the development of Ireland s diverse postcolonial projects Furthermore it reflects on the relevance and the effectiveness of postcolonial and subaltern historiographical methodologies in an Irish context interrogating the ethical and political problematics of such discursive importation Flannery s work highlights the operative dynamics of imperial modernity together with its representational agents in Ireland and also divines moments of explicit and implicit resistance to modernity s rationalising and accumulative urges The book is pioneering in the facility and ease with which it navigates the interdisciplinary terrain of Irish studies Flannery provides enabling and challenging new readings of the poetry of the bi lingual poet Michael Hartnett the politically imaginative vistas of the republican mural tradition in the North of Ireland the gothic anxieties inherent in the fiction of Eugene McCabe and the semi fictional writing of Seamus Deane and the differential codes of visual surveillance apparent in Irish tourist posters and late nineteenth century photography in Ireland Versions of Ireland does not dwell on the exclusively theoretical but offers rich critical analyses of a range of Irish cultural artefacts in terms of Ireland's protracted colonial history and contested postcolonial condition

As Mirrors Are Lonely Peter Guy, 2014-10-16 The Irish novel has demonstrated an ability to sample other forms and influences to improvise and evolve in the light of changing circumstances Peter Guy's new study helps investigate the way in which Irish writers since the sixties have responded to these influences re-examining their work through the theory of the French theorist Jacques Lacan Focusing on the novelists John McGahern Brian Moore and John Broderick in a simultaneous reading and applying a psychoanalytical theory which centers in particular on gender and family relations this new study also covers a number of other complex issues issues which span the claustrophobic and repressive atmosphere of the 1950s to the secular ahistorical Ireland of today

My History Antonia Fraser, 2015-10-13 The acclaimed New York Times bestselling author shares vivid memories of her childhood and recalls the experiences that set her on the path to a writing life Ever since she received Our Island Story by H E Marshall as a Christmas present in 1936 Antonia Fraser's deep love of history has been a constant in her remarkable life The book made such an impression that it inspired her to write Mary Queen of Scots thirty years later Born into British aristocracy the author's idyllic early childhood was interrupted by a wartime evacuation to North Oxford The relocation had profound effects on her life not the least of which was her education at a Catholic convent and her eventual conversion from the Protestant faith to Catholicism Her memories of holidays spent at Dunsany Castle and Pakenham Hall a stint as Miss Tony selling hats in a London department store and her early days working in publishing are all told in her singular irresistible voice My History is a heartfelt memoir that is also a love letter to a British way of life that has all but disappeared Anglophiles history lovers and Downton Abbey fans are sure to be enthralled

Balancing Acts Frank Ferguson, 2023-02-15 Balancing Acts gathers together interviews and conversations between Gerald Dawe and a wide cast of interlocutors between 1995 and 2020 Drawn from exchanges on television and radio print and online media these conversations with fellow poets critics journalists colleagues and friends are a testament to Dawe's generous open hearted and open minded approachability as a poet for whom the artful way of making poetry has always been informed by an attitude of just getting on with it In the same way that memory for him is not just about the past but involves a route into the present these fascinating interviews and conversations provide an insight into the poet on the go in the process of making unforgettable poetry happen

1939 and the re emergence of violence in Northern Ireland in the 1970s It situates modern Irish writing within the contexts of cultural transition and transnational connection often challenging pre existing perceptions of Irish literature in this period as stagnant and mundane While taking into account the grip of Irish censorship and cultural nationalism during the mid twentieth century these essays identify an Irish literary culture stimulated by international political horizons and fully responsive to changes in publishing readership and education The book combines valuable cultural surveys with focussed discussions of key literary moments and of individual authors such as Se n O Faol in Samuel Beckett Edna O'Brien and John McGahern
