Language Assessment for Remediation Dave J. Müller, Siân M. Munro, Christopher Code, 1981 Language Assessment for Remediation Dave J. Müller, 1981 The Grammatical Analysis of Language Disability David Crystal, Paul Fletcher, Michael Garman, 1976 Language Assessment, Remediation and Screening Procedure (LARSP) David Crystal, 1981 A Guide to Global Language Assessment Mellissa Bortz, 2024-05-30 For decades the speech language therapy profession has expressed the need for the development of language assessment materials in languages other than English for children and adults A Guide to Global Language Assessment A Lifespan Approach aims to meet this need by providing comprehensive information about how to assess the language of bi and multilingual and culturally diverse clients across the world Featuring the viewpoints of contributors from around the world A Guide to Global Language Assessment also boasts a complete database of available global language assessments What s included in A Guide to Global Language Assessment Case studies assessment frameworks and resources for conducting global language assessments for culturally and linguistically diverse populations An array of language assessment methods across a continuum such as ethnographic and dynamic assessments narratives and standardized language assessment Methods for developing local norms A Guide to Global Language Assessment A Lifespan Approach is an essential tool for empowering current and future speech language therapists professors and researchers to address global language assessment across the lifespan A Clinical Evaluation of an Approach to Language Assessment and Remediation with Six Language Impaired Children B. E. Christie, 1978

Resources in Education , 1988 Bilingualism and Language Disability Niklas Miller, 2013-12-11 Assessment of Language Disorders in Children Rebecca J. McCauley, 2013-03-07 This book constitutes a clear comprehensive up to date introduction to the basic principles of psychological and educational assessment that underlie effective clinical decisions about childhood language disorders Rebecca McCauley describes specific commonly used tools as well as general approaches ranging from traditional standardized norm referenced testing to more recent ones such as dynamic and qualitative assessment Highlighting special considerations in testing and expected patterns of performance she reviews the challenges presented by children with a variety of problems specific language impairment hearing loss mental retardation and autism spectrum disorders Three extended case examples illustrate her discussion of each of these target groups Her overarching theme is the crucial role of well formed questions as fundamental guides to decision making independent of approach Each chapter features lists of key concepts and terms study questions and recommended readings Tables throughout offer succinct summaries and aids to memory Students their instructors and speech language pathologists continuing their professional education will all welcome this invaluable new resource Distinctive features include A comprehensive consideration of both psychometric and descriptive approaches to the characterization of children s language A detailed discussion of background issues important in the language assessment of the major groups of children with language impairment Timely information on assessment of change a topic frequently not covered in other texts Extensive guidance on how to evaluate individual norm referenced measures for adoption An extensive appendix listing about 50 measures used to assess language in children A test review guide that can be reproduced for use by readers Profiling Grammar Paul Fletcher, Martin J. Ball, David Crystal, 2016-02-02 This book brings together twelve previously unpublished language profiles based on the original Language Assessment Remediation and Screening Procedure LARSP The languages featured are Afrikaans Bulgarian Cantonese Finnish Greek Hindi Hungarian Japanese Kannada Korean Malay and Swedish Each chapter includes a grammatical sketch of the language details of typical language development in speakers of the language as well as a description of and justification for the profile itself The book will be an invaluable resource for speech language pathologists and others wishing to analyse the grammatical abilities of individuals speaking one of these languages This new collection complements a previous book in this series on the same theme Assessing Grammar The Languages of LARSP Ball et al 2012 Bilingualism and Language Disability (PLE: Psycholinguistics) Nick Miller, 2013-11-12 Society is becoming increasingly multi lingual and this presents monolingual professionals particularly those in special education and speech pathology with severe problems Is the language delay in a child from a bilingual environment a result of this background or is there a specific speech problem Is a child s poor performance in school due to his problems of coping with two languages or does he need remedial teaching Originally published in 1984 this book is not concerned with second language learning but with speech and learning difficulties in bilingual children as they are presented to remedial teachers psychologists and speech therapists To this end the first group of specially written articles deals with the patterns of language usage in bilingual communities and the social and psychological factors which shape these patterns with processes in normal bilingual language acquisition and with the relationship between cognitive development and growing up with two languages Management issues and methods involved in helping children with language problems are also tackled they include taking case histories family liaison counselling bilingual programmes mother tongue teaching curriculum development and the training of personnel to work in the bilingual bicultural field This book provided a great deal of practical help in a field that was relatively new at the time of writing and helped to enlighten readers on the issues involved and assist in crystalising thought and directing future research Assessing Grammar Martin J. Ball, David Crystal, Paul Fletcher, 2012-03-08 This collection is a resource book for those working with language disordered clients in a range of languages It collects together versions of the well known Language Assessment Remediation Screening Procedure LARSP prepared for different languages Starting with the original version for English the book then presents versions in more than a dozen other languages Some of these are likely to be encountered as home languages of clients by speech language therapists and pathologists working in the UK Ireland the US and Australia and New Zealand Others are included because they are major languages found where speech language pathology services are provided but where no grammatical profile already exists Emergentist Approaches to Language Brian MacWhinney, Vera Kempe, Ping Li, Patricia J. Brooks, 2022-02-16 Issues of Language Assessment Stanley S. Seidner, 1982 Handbook of Acquired Communication Disorders in Childhood B. E. Murdoch, 2011-03-01 Developing, Modelling and Assessing Second Languages Jörg-U. Keßler, Anke Lenzing, Mathias Liebner, 2016-06-29 This edited volume brings together the work of a number of researchers working in the framework of Processability Theory PT a psycholinguistic theory of second language acquisition SLA Pienemann 1998 2005 The aim of the volume is two fold It engages with current issues in both theory development and theory application and focuses on theoretical developments within the framework of PT as well as issues related to second language teaching and assessment In coordinating approaches to addressing both theoretical and applied aspects of SLA this volume aims at bridging the gap between theory and practice It also reflects the richness of debate within the field of PT based research The volume is intended for postgraduate students SLA researchers as well as language teachers As of January 2019 this e book is freely available thanks to the support of libraries working with Knowledge Unlatched Early Detection and Intervention in Audiology Katijah Khoza-Shangase, Amisha Kanji, 2021-02-01 A textbook of case studies for audiologists and speech pathologists that makes recommendations for early detection and intervention of hearing impairments in the South African context Early hearing detection and intervention EHDI is the gold standard for any practicing audiologist and for families of infants and children with hearing impairment EHDI programs aim to identify diagnose and provide intervention to children with hearing impairment from as early as six months old as well as those at risk for hearing impairment to ensure they develop and achieve to their potential Yet EHDI remains a significant challenge for Africa and various initiatives are in place to address this gap in transferring policy into practice within the southern African context The diversity of factors in the southern African context presents unique challenges to teaching and research in this field which has prompted this book project The South African government's heightened focus on increasing access to health care which includes ongoing Early Childhood Development ECD programs make this an opportune time for establishing and documenting evidence based research for current undergraduate and postgraduate students Early Detection and Intervention in Audiology An African Perspective aims to address this opportunity Grounded in an African context with detailed case studies this book provides rich content that pays careful attention to contextual relevance and contextual responsiveness to both identification and intervention in hearing impairment With diverse contributions from experts in local and international contexts but always with an African perspective this is textbook will be an invaluable resource for students researchers and practitioners Grammatical Profiles Martin J. Ball, Paul Fletcher, David Crystal, 2019-07-15 This book brings together 12 previously unpublished language profiles based on the original Language Assessment Remediation and Screening Procedure LARSP The languages featured are Bangla Croatian Colombian Spanish Inuktitut Norwegian Portuguese Russian Slovak Slovenian Swahili Tamil and Turkish Some of these languages are included as they are likely to be encountered as home languages of clients by speech language therapists and pathologists working in the UK the US Australia and elsewhere Others are included because they are languages found where speech language pathology services are provided but where no grammatical profile already exists The collection will be an invaluable resource book for speech language pathologists who wish to analyse and assess the grammatical abilities of their clients who speak one of these languages This new collection complements previous books in this series on the same theme and together they cover 34 languages of the world

The Routledge Handbook of Applied Linguistics James Simpson, 2011-03-15 The Routledge Handbook of Applied Linguistics serves as an introduction and reference point to key areas in the field of applied linguistics The five sections of the volume encompass a wide range of topics from a variety of perspectives applied linguistics in action language learning language education language culture and identity perspectives on language in use descriptions of language for applied linguistics The forty seven chapters connect knowledge about language to decision making in the real world The volume as a whole highlights the role of applied linguistics which is to make insights drawn from language study relevant to such decision making The chapters are written by specialists from around the world Each one provides an overview of the history of the topic the main current issues and possible future trajectory Where appropriate authors discuss the impact and use of new technology in the area Suggestions for further reading are provided with every chapter The Routledge Handbook of Applied Linguistics is an essential purchase for postgraduate students of applied linguistics Editorial board Ronald Carter Guy Cook Diane Larsen Freeman and Amy Tsui
