Language Faith Studies In Sign Symbol:

Wittgenstein's Secret Diaries Dinda L. Gorlée, 2020-02-06 Ludwig Wittgenstein's works encompass a huge number of published philosophical manuscripts notebooks lectures remarks and responses as well as his unpublished private diaries The diaries were written mainly in coded script to interpolate his writings on the philosophy of language with autobiographic passages but were previously unknown to the public and impossible to decode without learning the coding system This book deciphers the cryptography of the diary entries to examine what Wittgenstein's personal idiom reveals about his public and private identities Employing the semiotic doctrine of Charles S Peirce Dinda L Gorlée argues that the style of writing reflects the variety of Wittgenstein's emotional moods which were profoundly affected by his medical symptoms Bringing Peirce's reasoning of abduction together with induction and deduction the book investigates how the semiosis of the emotional energetic and logical interpretations of signs and objects reveal Wittgenstein's psychological states in the coded diaries

On Translating Signs Dinda L. Gorlée, 2004 Translation produces meaningful versions of textual information But what is a text What is translation What is meaning And what is a translational version This book On Translating Signs Exploring Text and Semio Translation responds to those and other eternal translation theoretical questions from a semiotic point of view Dinda L Gorlée notes that in this world of interpretation and translation surrounded by our semio translational universe perfused with signs we can intuit whether or not an object in front of us disqualifies as a text. This spontaneous understanding requires no formalized definition in order to happen in the receivers of text signs. The author further observes that translated signs are not only intelligible for target audiences but also work together as a theatre of consciousness or a theatre of controversy which the author views as powered by Charles S Peirce's three categories of Firstness Secondness and Thirdness. This book presents the virtual community of translators as emotional dynamical intellectual but not infallible semioticians. They translate text signs from one language and culture into another thus creating an innovative sign milieu packed with intuitive dynamic and changeable signs. Translators produce fleeting and fallible text translations with obvious errors caused by ignorance or misguided knowledge. Text signs are translatable yet there is no such thing as a perfect or final translation. And without the ongoing creating of translated signs of all kinds there would be no novelty no vagueness no manipulation of texts and for that matter no semiosis.

Language and its Functions Pieter A. Verburg, 1998-08-15. When Pieter Verburg 1905-1989 published Taal en Functionaliteit in 1952 the work was received with admiration by linguistic scholars though the number of those who could read the Dutch text for themselves remained limited. The title alludes to the theories of linguistic function set out in 1936 by Karl Bühler but Verburg regards the three functions of discourse focussing respectively on the speaker the person addressed and the matter discussed as no more than subfunctions of the human function of speech. His central concern is to explore the relationships between thought and language and language and reality and the work sets out to provide a historical analysis of views on these relationships in the period 1100 to 1800. The great strength of the work lies in the way in which the views of language are related to contemporaneous moves in philosophy and science contrasting essentially the mediaeval acceptance of authority the beginnings of induction in the Renaissance the dependence of early rationalism on calculation based on axiomatic truths and the further development of independent observation. All these trends are reflected in the way men thought about language as well as in the way they used it. Much has been written on the history of linguistics since this book was written but it still offers a unique view of the development of thinking about language.

The Symbolic Language of Religion Thomas Fawcett, 1971 Jonathan Edwards Harold P. Simonson, 2009-05-20. The vast corpus of Jonathan Edwards includes sermons treatises dissertations Miscellanies Diary and Resolves and his Personal Narrative. Underlying all his writing is his Calvinist God whose anger justice matched his love glory. Equally important is the human condition its darkness and its regenerative light sin and salvation. For these reasons Simonson aptly calls Edwards a theologian of the heart one not satisfied with only theological abstractions but also a necessary heartfelt sense of them. Penetrating to these levels where literary artists do their work he shares company with the likes of Herman Melville Nathaniel Hawthorne Emily Dickinson and William Faulkner. Since the resurgence of interest starting in the 1950s Edwards is now recognized as America's foremost religious thinker. Simonson emphasizes Edwards language its imagery metaphors grand sweeps of cadences along with Edwards intensity of both thought and feeling.

Throughout Simonson's book provides an incisive and carefully documented introduction to Edwards' magisterial range of mind and style

Song and Significance, 2005-01-01 Vocal translation is an old art but the interpretive feeling skill and craft have expanded into a relatively new area in translation studies Vocal translation is the translation of the poetic discourse in the hybrid art of the musicopoetic or poeticomusical forms shapes and skills This symbiotic construct harmonizes together the conflicting roles of music and language in face to face singing performances The artist sings in an accurate but free flow but sung in a language different from the original lyrics Vocal translation is a living together community of composer and poet and translator they work together though separately in time and place through the structure and meaning of the vocalized verbal language The meaning of the songs is influenced by the elements of musical expression melody impulse pitch duration loudness timbre and dynamics each of which is governed by its own rules and emotions The movement of the lyrics is an essential and meaningful attribute of the musical rhythms pauses pitches stresses and articulations of the entire songs The presence of the original and translated song structures its sounds senses and gestures to suggest semiotic meaningfulness In opera folksong hymn and art song as well as in operetta musical song and popular song we have musical genres allied to a libretto with lyrical text A libretto is a linguistic text which is a pre-existing work of art but is subordinated to the musical text The essays in Song and Significance Virtues and Vices of Vocal Translation provide interpretive models for the juxtaposition of different orders of the singing sign events in different languages extending the meaning and range of the musical and literary concepts and putting the mixed signs to a true and false test

The Theologian's Craft John Warwick Montgomery, 2017-03-09 What is it to do theology Numerous conflicting and inadequate answers e.g. Bultmannian existentialism the post-Bultmannian New Hermeneutic hold the field today these have in common a basic misunderstanding as to the relation of theological theologizing to theory construction in other fields of knowledge and a fundamental misconception in regard to the proper way of confirming or disconfirming theological judgments In this essay a detailed comparison between scientific and theological methodologies is set forth and the artistic and sacred dimensions of theological theorizing are explicated by way of an original structural model suggested by Wittgensteinian philosophical and linguistic analysis ideological interests Research in this area by Muslims and non Muslim scholars alike should address the question of what Muslims have made of their Islam in specific circumstances Current political contexts have created an unhealthy climate for pursuing an open approach to Islam based on reading observing listening and reflecting Yet precisely nowadays we need to look anew at ways of Muslim thinking and acting that refer to Islam and to avoid certain schemes of interpreting Muslim realities that are no longer adequate for present day Muslim life situations Muslim recourses to Islam can be studied as human constructions of value and meaning and relations between Muslims and others can be seen in terms of human interaction without blame always falling on Islam as such
