Wherever I have gone recently among educated Christians in Britain and America I have encountered profound curiosity and a good deal of anxiety concerning modern methods in philosophy as they relate to the logical nature and validity of theological affirmations. Similarly I have found many of my students in contemporary philosophy and in the philosophy of religion becoming deeply absorbed in the issues raised by a critical examination of theological speech. From both groups the intellectually alert Christians and the thoughtful graduate and undergraduate students of philosophy and religion I have been heavily bombarded with appeals for direction to some book which would 1 set forth the central issues and arguments concerning theological discourse for readers who have familiarity with traditional philosophy but who are relatively untrained in contemporary philosophical practices and 2 place into perspective the present state of philosophical and theological discussion in this area of burgeoning interest. To my frustration I have had to answer such requests with the admission that no such book exists and with the promise that I would try some day to provide that book myself. In preparing this volume therefore I have done my best to keep those promises in mind.      God-talk John Macquarrie, 1967 Bibliographical footnotes The problem introduced How some contemporary theologians view language Some general reflections on language The theological vocabulary Theology and logical empiricism Types of theological discourse Case study The language of St. Athanasius Language and interpretation Case study Heidegger on hermeneutics Mythology Symbolism Case study Light as a religious symbol Analogy and paradox Empirical language the language of existence and being      Language, logic, and god Frédéric Ferré, 1969      God, Revelation and Authority: God Who Speaks and Shows (Vol. 3) Carl F. H. Henry, 1999-01-25 Part 3 in a monumental six-volume set that presents an undeniable case for the revealed authority of God to a generation that has forgotten who he is and what he has done      Logic Vern S. Poythress, 2013-02-28 For the well-rounded Christian looking to improve their critical thinking skills here is an accessible introduction to the study of logic parts 1-2 as well as an in-depth treatment of the discipline parts

3 4 from a professor with 6 academic degrees and over 30 years experience teaching Questions for further reflection are included at the end of each chapter as well as helpful diagrams and charts that are appropriate for use in high school home school college and graduate level classrooms Overall Vern Poythress has undertaken a radical recasting of the study of logic in this revolutionary work from a Christian worldview Logic, God and Metaphysics James Franklin Harris,2012-12-06 The papers in this volume are in honor of Bowman L Clarke Bowman Clarke earned degrees from Millsaps College the University of Mississippi and Emory University in Atlanta Georgia including the PhD in philosophy from Emory in 1961 He spent most of his academic career a total of twenty nine years as a member of the Philosophy Department of the University of Georgia Athens Georgia from which he retired in 1990 He also served as Head of the Department for several years He has held many positions of distinction in professional societies including President of the Georgia Philosophical Society President of the Society for the Philosophy of Religion and President of the Southern Society for Philosophy and Psychology He also served as Editor in Chief of the International Journal for the Philosophy of Religion from 1975 1989 Professor Clarke is the author of Language and Natural Theology The Hague Mouton and Co 1966 as well as numerous articles in professional journals He has made major contributions in the areas of the philosophy of religion the study of the philosophy of Alfred North Whitehead and the development of the calculus of individuals ix J F Harris ed Logic God and Metaphysics ix 1992 Kluwer Academic Publishers Introduction The title for this volume Logic God and Metaphysics was chosen very carefully and deliberately The papers in this volume are directed at the issues and problems which lie in the domain of the juncture of these three different areas of philosophical inquiry In the Eyes of God Brian C. Howell,2013-09-24 Throughout the Bible divine interaction with humanity is portrayed in almost embarrassingly human terms He sees hears thinks feels runs rides chariots laughs wields weapons gives birth and even repents Many of these expressions taken at face value seem to run afoul of much classical theology including divine simplicity transcendence omniscience omnipotence omnipresence and especially immutability Traditionally these texts have been seen as accommodations to human intellectual and moral limitations That is they were deemed as giving God a more approachable feel but not as representing any real part of his character being or interaction with humanity For example references to God seeing or hearing are not deemed to represent real acts as God already knows everything However this view is largely based on an Aristotelian conception of metaphors as rhetorical devices not vehicles that carry any truth content Since the 1970s the understanding of how metaphors convey meaning has taken great strides These advances can help unlock how divine action often inadvertently flattened under theological presuppositions functions within a text This book aims to explore the biblical metaphor of divine sight and how current understandings of metaphorical function can enrich our reading of the text and its theology God, Revelation and Authority (Set of 6) Carl F. H. Henry,1999-01-25 A monumental six volume set that presents an undeniable case for the revealed authority of God to a generation that has forgotten who he is and what he has done Embracing Vulnerability Roberto Sirvent,2017-04-27

Arguments in favour of divine impassibility take many forms one of which is moral This argument views emotional risk vulnerability suffering and self love as obstacles to moral perfection In Embracing Vulnerability Human and Divine the author challenges these mistaken assumptions about moral judgment Through an analysis of Hebrew thought and modern philosophical accounts of love justice and emotion Roberto Sirvent reveals a fundamental incompatibility between divine impassibility and the Imitation of God ethic imitatio Dei This book shows that a God who is not emotionally vulnerable is a God unworthy of our imitation But in what sense can we call divine impassibility immoral To be sure God's moral nature teaches humans what it means to live virtuously But can human understandings of morality teach us something about God's moral character If true how should we go about judging God's moral character Isn't it presumptuous to do so After all if we are going to challenge divine impassibility on moral grounds what reason do we have to assume that God is bound by our standards of morality Embracing Vulnerability Human and Divine addresses these questions and many others In the process Sirvent argues for the importance of thinking morally about theology inviting scholars in the fields of philosophical theology and Christian ethics to place their theological commitments under close moral scrutiny and to consider how these commitments reflect and shape our understanding of the good life

The Spirit of American Liberal Theology Gary Dorrien, 2023-09-05 The Spirit of American Liberal Theology is an interpretation of the entire U S American tradition of liberal theology A highly condensed and far more accessible summary of Gary Dorrien's three volume trilogy The Making of American Liberal Theology Westminster John Knox Press 2001 2003 and 2006 Dorrien here presses the argument that the most abundant diverse and persistent tradition of liberal theology is the one that blossomed in the United States and is still refashioning itself While discussions of English and German liberalism persist new material includes expanded treatment of the Black social gospel the Universalists' developments into early 2020s and a robust expression of the author's post Hegelian liberal liberationist perspective

The Collected Works of Edward Schillebeeckx Volume 7 Edward Schillebeeckx, 2014-09-25 Christ The Christian Experience in the Modern World focuses on the question of salvation for all people Using seven anthropological constants Schillebeeckx innovatively shows the social and political relevance of faith Inspired by liberation and feminist theologies he puts strong emphasis on human experience and on the importance of examining church teaching in its historical context This volume is a testimony of Schillebeeckx' ground breaking attempt to rethink doctrine in the light of the research on the historical Jesus Instead of starting with Christianity's great creedal statements about Christ and the Trinity he focuses on the subjective experience of the first generations of believers as expressed in the New Testament This choice stirred considerable controversy and a Vatican investigation but inspired and still keeps to inspire readers in their personal approach to Christian faith

God, the Almighty Donald G. Bloesch, 1995 Covers encoding and binary digits entropy language and meaning efficient encoding and the noisy channel and explores ways in which information theory relates to physics cybernetics psychology and art Uncommonly good the most satisfying discussion to be found Scientific American 1980 edition     The Ground of Certainty Donald G. Bloesch, 2002-01-29 In this book Dr Donald Bloesch sharply diverges from much traditional thinking on the relationship between theology and philosophy and suggests an alternative that is solidly anchored in biblical faith Instead of seeing this relationship in terms of synthesis or correlation or even simple subordination he calls for the conversion and transformation of philosophical meanings in the light of the biblical revelation Philosophy can be of considerable aid to theologians but they must take care not to let philosophical concepts determine the meaning of faith Reason can be enlisted in the service of revelation but it cannot establish the truth of revelation Against the irrationalism of contemporary existentialist theology and the rationalism that has pervaded both scholastic orthodoxy Catholic and Protestant and liberal philosophical theology Bloesch proposes an evangelical theology of revelation that seeks to employ reason in the task of understanding the faith The author upholds not an autonomous reason but an obedient reason and he shows that this ideal has support in the history of theology as well as in the Bible     Kairos, Crisis, and Global Apartheid Allan Aubrey Boesak, 2016-01-12 In 1985 the Kairos Document emerged out of the anti apartheid struggle as a devastating critique of apartheid and a challenge to the church in that society This book is a call to discern new moments of crisis discernment and kairos and respond with prophetic resistance to global injustice     In My Place Condemned He Stood James Innell Packer, Mark Dever, C. J. Mahaney, Ligon Duncan, R. Albert Mohler Jr., 2008 Combining three classic articles by J I Packer with a recent article by Mark Dever this penetrating anthology takes a classically biblical stance on the increasingly controversial doctrine of substitutionary atonement     Three Faiths — One God Meltzer, 1989-07-17 The interactions of the Jewish Christian and Muslim communities through the centuries have often been hostile and sometimes violent Today a new dialogue between them is developing in several parts of the world One of the most ambitious ventures so far of this kind took place recently in California and produced this set of exploratory papers and responses The subjects are the concepts of God in the three traditions their attitudes to the material world and their understandings of human life and history The discussions were frank and realistic but at the same time hopeful     Christian Ethical Implications of the Presence of the Kingdom as God's Performative Action in the Light of Speech Act Theory Anna Cho , 2019 This book presents a novel Biblical ethical hermeneutic approach that emerges from an understanding of the presence of the kingdom of God in the Biblical text The approach is predicated upon the use of speech act theory abbreviated as SAT in relation to kingdom language in the Biblical text The approach shows how the notion of kingdom language as God's divine activity is elicited in the contemporary Christian's life by allowing it to operate beyond the world of the Biblical text In other words this approach establishes a Biblical ethical hermeneutic bridge between the text and its context and the context of contemporary readers of the text The alternative linguistic epistemology in SAT considers the principle of the kingdom of God in the past locution level the present illocutionary level and the future perlocutionary level The dynamic equivalences of the past present and future of the kingdom of God based on an SAT approach to the Biblical text can inform Christian ethical theory and moral action in the present world It can also provide a new moral sensibility in relation to God s sovereignty and the responsibility of Christians in contemporary society
