Language The Self In D H Lawrence:

Language and the Self in D.H. Lawrence Diane S. Bonds, 1987 D. H. Lawrence: The Early Philosophical Works Michael Black, 1992-01-31 This second volume of Michael Black's commentary on Lawrence's prose works concentrates on the extraordinary sequence of nonfiction texts written between 1913 and 1917 The Foreword to Sons and Lovers Study of Thomas Hardy Twilight in Italy The Crown The Reality of Peace In all of them Lawrence was compulsively rewriting what he called my philosophy They are difficult works highly metaphorical in places prophetically expressionist even surreal This extended commentary makes sense of them treating them as a succession of experimental writings that support each other develop non discursive modes of writing and are linked by shared metaphors that reveal shared preoccupations Black s highly useful analysis is like the close reading of poetry D.H. Lawrence and Attachment Ronald Granofsky, 2022-06-15 Though we all face a tug of war between dependency and autonomy while growing up British author D H Lawrence 1885 1930 experienced the struggle with particular intensity Later in life his acute observational skills high emotional intelligence and expressive abilities would allow him to articulate this conflict in his works as few other writers have Applying concepts from attachment theory D H Lawrence and Attachment presents innovative readings of a broad swath of Lawrence's fiction Ronald Granofsky teases out hidden patterns in Lawrence's work deepening our understanding of his fictional characters and revealing new significance to key thematic concerns like gender identification marriage and class Lawrence s too close relationship with his own mother in particular was the foundation for his lifelong interest in attachment as well as the impetus for his literary exploration of the delicate balance between the desire for closeness and the need for separation While the theories of Margaret S Mahler D W Winnicott John Bowlby and others were developed after Lawrence s death his writing about relationships and how they are influenced by early childhood experiences bears a striking resemblance to the concepts of attachment theory The Lawrence who emerges from D H Lawrence and Attachment is a psychological writer of great power whose intuitive insights into the vagaries of attachment resulted in rich complex fiction D.H. Lawrence Fiona Becket, Annotation This guide moves beyond the controversy surrounding Lady Chatterley's Lover to examine the prolific output of poetry novels and non fiction that made Lawrence a central figure in the Modernist movement Lawrence: The Thinker as Poet F. Becket, 2015-12-17 D H Lawrence The Thinker as Poet addresses a particular body of language and thought within Lawrence's oeuvre where the metaphorical the poetic and the philosophical are intricately enmeshed Lawrence emerges as a writer who pulls metaphor away from its merely rhetorical moorings his distinctive style is the hallmark of one who thinks not analytically but poetically about the birth of the self the body unconscious complex kinds of otherness and about metaphor itself as a mode of understanding The Rhetoric of the Unselfconscious in D.H. Lawrence Masami Nakabayashi,2011 In this study of the Lady Chatterley novels Masami Nakabayashi pays particular attention to D H Lawrence's language for the feelings and for the life of the unselfconscious sexual body. The novels constantly find ways of verbalising the characters internalised experiences as they occur in states of unselfconsciousness Lawrence's language for sensual feelings and emotions has always been regarded as simply sexual and no previous critics have explored or made sense of the complexities of his peculiar but extremely sophisticated writing practice in the Lady Chatterley novels Lawrence was a habitual reviser of his work and despite the availability of reliable texts in the Cambridge edition few critics have traced the nature and significance of his changes from one draft to the next By examining and analysing the novels particular linguistic revisions Masami Nakabayashi reveals the textual impulse behind Lawrence s Self and Otherness in D.H. Lawrence's "The Woman Who original conception and its subsequent change and development Rode Away". Dialogism vs Solipsism Mansour Khelifa, 2016-02-29 Research Paper postgraduate from the year 2015 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature language English abstract Departing from the belief that humanity has been perverted by idealism Lawrence engages in a lifelong struggle in order to save modern society from decay and madness Throughout his work he tries to draw our attention to empirical experience as opposed to abstract theorising and awaken our sensuous mode of being in distinct polarisation with our mental consciousness He likes to point out the many marvels of the living world For Lawrence humanity's salvation depends on among other things the healthy physical relationship between man and woman In The Woman Who Rode Away Lawrence dramatises the relation between two diametrically opposed cultures the Western and the Amerindian The story of the woman who escaped from her ranch at once highlights and subverts the preconceived ideas about the Red Indians savage 48 culture and cult Yet in filigree the narrator of the story subtly arouses the reader s willing suspension of disbelief and awe by conferring respectability on the white woman's self sacrifice for the sake of the Red Indians sun In a masterly tour de force Lawrence uses this highly dramatised narrative to serve his own overarching assertion that Western civilisation as a universal ideal has no future The White Man s Burden as an imperialist predicament has turned the world into a nightmarish place prone to global warfare and strife The only escape from this deadly situation seems to lie in the dialectical interchange with other different cultures different but not inferior which might vitally contaminate and even rejuvenate decadent Western civilisation D.H. Lawrence and 'difference' Amit Chaudhuri, 2003 This Is Probably The First Instance Of Lawrence S Poetry Being Discussed In The Light Of Recent Theoretical Developments It Is Also Certainly The First Time A Leading Postcolonial Writer Of His Generation Has Taken As His Subject A Major Canonical English Writer And Through Him Remapped The English Canon As A Site Of Difference The Changing Fictions of Masculinity David Rosen, 1993 In a sensitive and provocative study of six great works of British literature David Rosen traces the evolution of masculinity inviting readers to contemplate the shifting joys and sorrows men have experienced throughout the last millennium and the changing but constant tensions between their lives and ideals Focusing on Beowulf Sir Gawain and the Green Knight Hamlet Paradise Lost Hard Times and Sons and Lovers Rosen shows how the actions of heroes fail to resolve tensions between masculine ideals and male experiences The Rainbow David Herbert Lawrence, 1995 Set in the rural midlands of England this tale recounts the lives of three generations of the Brangwen family When Tom Brangwen marries a Polish widow Lydia Lensky and adopts her daughter Anna as his own he is unprepared for the conflict and passion that erupts between them Stalking the Subject Carrie Rohman, 2009 Human and animal subjectivity converge in a historically unprecedented way within modernism as evolutionary theory imperialism antirationalism and psychoanalysis all grapple with the place of the human in relation to the animal Drawing on the thought of Jacques Derrida and Georges Bataille Carrie Rohman outlines the complex philosophical and ethical stakes involved in theorizing the animal in humanism including the difficulty in determining an ontological place for the animal the question of animal consciousness and language and the paradoxical status of the human as both a primate body and a human mind abstracting itself from the physical and material world Rohman then turns to the work of Joseph Conrad D H Lawrence H G Wells and Djuna Barnes authors who were deeply invested in the relationship between animality and identity The Island of Dr Moreau embodies a Darwinian nightmare of the evolutionary continuum The Croquet Player thematizes the dialectic between evolutionary theory and psychoanalysis and Women in Love St Mawr and Nightwood all refuse to project animality onto others inverting the traditional humanist position by valuing animal consciousness A novel treatment of the animal in literature Stalking the Subject provides vital perspective on modernism's most compelling intellectual and philosophical Nature and Culture in D.H. Lawrence Aidan Burns, 1980-06-18 D.H. Lawrence's Final Fictions Ben issues Stoltzfus, 2024-04-08 D H Lawrence's Final Fictions A Lacanian Perspective explores how literature thinks more specifically how the reading of fiction influences behavior Lawrence writes passionately about our alienation from ourselves from other people and from the cosmos He believes that we need to heed the voices of our unconscious and he shows us how to meld body and mind so that psychoanalytically speaking Id and Ego can come together In this endeavor there is a salient convergence between Lawrence's writings and those of Jacques Lacan the French psychoanalyst In this book Stoltzfus examines the poetics of seven major fictions that Lawrence wrote between 1925 and 1930 five productive years that are referred to as his fabulation period In each of the book s seven chapters in tandem with Lacan s writings Stoltzfus analyzes seven major characters four of whom move from alienation to the renewal of self and the cosmos He argues that Lawrence s fiction is simultaneously descriptive and prescriptive by showing us how to circumvent dysfunction Stoltzfus brings literature and psychoanalysis together in readings that are both aesthetic and epistemological They are recipes for curing the Consciousness in Modernist Fiction V. Sotirova, 2013-05-09 This stylistic study of consciousness in the Anthropocene Modernist novel explores shifts across different viewpoints and the techniques through which they are dialogically interconnected The dialogic resonances in the presentation of character consciousness are analysed using linguistic evidence and evidence drawn from everyday conversational practices Language, Selfhood and Otherness in the Works of D.H.
