Language And Time And Gertrude Stein:

Language and Time and Gertrude Stein Carolyn Faunce Copeland, 1975-01-01 Language & Time & Gertrude Stein Carolyn Faunce Copeland, 1975 Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger, 2014-04-08 The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important Similarly an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel not only form analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre A wide range of topic entries explore the history criticism theory production dissemination and reception of the novel A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world Postmodernism and After Regina Rudaitytė, 2009-05-05 The present collection of academic articles is an attempt to reflect on new openings and recent developments in literature literary theory and culture which seem to point beyond postmodernism and register a return to traditional concepts theoretical premises and authorial practices Interestingly enough forty years after the publication of John Barth's seminal essay The Literature of Exhaustion 1967 the book is trying to diagnose the exhaustion of postmodernism which was predicted by David Lodge already two decades ago It also attempts to trace the signs in contemporary literature indicating that postmodernism is past its heyday that it is losing or has lost its shine fascination and attraction and that writers have been turning to the old or pre modern forms practices and strategies Herbert Grabes comprehensive and illuminating article From the Postmodern to the Pre Modern More Recent Changes in Literature Art and Theory which opens and sets the tone for this collection of essays is a major assessment of new developments in literary culture focusing on the evolution of the postmodern to the premodern mode it also highlights the role and current popularity of cultural studies and cultural history theoretical movements which have been prevailing for some time now after the end of deconstruction The articles assembled in this collection are on diverse thematics and written from diverse theoretical perspectives they differ in scope and methodology and their focus ranges from the postmodern intertextual aspect to the open questioning of it and to more recent developments in the literary culture Focusing on literary icons like A S Byatt John Banville Margaret Atwood Umberto Eco Vladimir Nabokov but also extending into a less known regions geographically as well they invite reconsideration and reconceptualization of such key notions as truth meaning production textuality and literary interpretation This book aims at opening fresh discussion debate and reflection on the new age reaching beyond postmodernism and the budding literary mode whatever labels we might stick to it Russian and American Poetry of Experiment Vladimir Feshchenko, 2023-07-17 An experiment with language Is it an object cultivated in poetic laboratories where entry is locked for mere mortals And what do language scholars think about it Specialists in language and literature studies interested in linguistic innovation and experimental poetry will find answers to these questions in Vladimir Feshchenko's book The Study investigates various strategies of radical linguistic creativity in Russian and American experimental writing of the 20th century and explores cases of contemporary language oriented and trans language poetry. It is a comparative examination of two national avant garde cultures but also a juxtaposition of the relationships that Russian and American avant garde poetics had with linguistic ideas of their times. The monograph may serve as a wonderful introduction to the entire field of linguistic poetics of the avant garde.

Fictional Space in the Modernist and Post-modernist American Novel Carl Darryl Malmgren, 1985. Fictional space is the imaginal expanse of field created by fictional discourse a space which through ultimately self referential and self validating necessarily exists in ascertainable relation to the real world outside the text. After defining his theoretical framework the author applies it to American fiction of the twentieth century.

The Norton Anthology of Literature by Women: Early twentieth-century through contemporary Sandra M. Gilbert, Susan Gubar, 2007. Long the standard teaching anthology the landmark Norton Anthology of Literature by Women has introduced generations of readers to the rich variety of women's writing in English.

The Reader's Adviser, 1986.

The Aesthetics of Japanese Fascism Alan Tansman, 2009. The range of Alan Tansman's coverage is truly prodigious and diverse from the most obscurantist cultural analysis through mawkish sentimentality and orchestrated nostalgia for the medium past. His scholarship is impeccable he knows the relevant secondary literature and has absorbed an impressively wide ranging metacritical literature which he has used with great originality and authority to untangle the knotted relationship between aesthetic modernism and fascism. He reads difficult texts brilliantly with seeming and enviable effortlessness and his translations are a joy to read.

Harry Harootunian University of Chicago. Alan Tansman opens up a new apprehension of the fantastic possibilities of these works through his attention to the senses. He is as much attuned to the specifically rhythmic and tonal dimensions of writing as he is to its visual possibilities. And he has the capacity to evoke these varied sensorial domains in his own re-writings which in their refusal to give up on beauty critically recapitulate the very dilemma that his object texts stage the dilemma of beauty within capitalist modernity and its complicity with an aesthetics of unification that often presages violence.

Different Dispatches David T. Humphries, 2006-03-09. In Different Dispatches David Humphries brings together in a new way a diverse group of well known American writers of the inter war period including Willa Cather Sherwood Anderson Ernest Hemmingway Zora Neale Hurston James Agee and Robert Penn Warren. He demonstrates how these writers engage journalism in creating innovative texts that address mass culture as well as underlying cultural conditions. The book will be of interest to readers approaching these well known authors for the first time or for scholars grappling with larger issues of cultural production and reception.

Voices Made Flesh Lynn C. Miller, Jacqueline Taylor, M. Heather Carver, 2003. Voices Made Flesh includes scripts and essays about performances of the lives of women such as Gertrude Stein Georgia O'Keeffe and Anus Nin which consider issues that arise when a woman represents another woman's life. In the second section seven performers tell their own stories engaging issues of sexual orientation ethnicity race loss of parent disability life and death Voices highlights issues of representation identity and staging in autobiographical performance It examines the links between theory and criticism of women s autobiography feminist performance theory and performance practice Beside You in Time Elizabeth Freeman,2019-09-06 Elizabeth Freeman expands bipolitical and queer theory by outlining a temporal view of the long nineteenth century and showing how time became a social and sensory means by which people resisted disciplinary regimes and assembled into groups in ways that created new forms of sociality Lost Generation Journal ,1976 The Grand Valley Morgan Meis,2025-08-26 In the final absorbing volume of his Three Paintings Trilogy philosopher and critic Morgan Meis explores the art of Joan Mitchell and in particular one of her crowning achievements the Grand Valley series Mitchell a twentieth century American artist who found herself living and working in France is a figure of contradictions at once formidable and fragile solitary and hungry for human connection The Grand Valley paintings born from a memory not her own become a focal point for understanding Mitchell s approach to abstraction and landscape Meis examines the pain and at times even violence within Mitchell s work connecting it to her turbulent life and the critical interpretations of her art including her struggle to be treated as seriously as her male peers As with the previous acclaimed volumes in this trilogy Meis begins with a work of art and moves outward toward history philosophy and religion to provide context and insight With his characteristically disarming wit and linguistic playfulness Meis investigates the idea of the artist s self drawing upon the mystical aspects of Carl Jung s thought and discovering parallels between Mitchell and obsessive creators like Claude Monet and Gertrude Stein Humorous and accessible yet always willing to grapple with the most vexing and challenging issues of human finitude The Grand Valley brings an innovative trilogy to a rich and satisfying conclusion The Collected Works of Wyndham Lewis: Time and Western Man Paul Edwards,2023 Part of the Collected Works of Wyndham Lewis critical edition which brings together all of Wyndham Lewis s published writings for the first time this is the first comprehensive edition of Time and Western Man and includes explanatory notes previously unpublished drafts a history of composition and an account of its critical reception Exiles from a Future Time Alan M. Wald,2012-12-01 With this book Alan Wald launches a bold and passionate account of the U S Literary Left from the 1920s through the 1960s Exiles from a Future Time the first volume of a trilogy focuses on the forging of a Communist led literary tradition in the 1930s Exploring writers intimate lives and heartfelt political commitments Wald draws on original research in scores of archives and personal collections of papers correspondence and interviews with hundreds of writers and their friends and families and a treasure trove of unpublished memoirs fiction and poetry In fashioning a humanscape of the Literary Left Wald not only reassesses acclaimed authors but also returns to memory dozens of forgotten talented writers The authors range from the familiar Mike Gold Langston Hughes and Muriel Rukeyser to William Attaway John Malcolm Brinnin Stanley Burnshaw Joy Davidman Sol Funaroff Joseph Freeman Alfred Hayes Eugene Clay Holmes V J Jerome Ruth Lechlitner and Frances Winwar Focusing on the formation of the tradition and the organization of the Cultural Left Wald investigates the elective affinity of its avant garde poets the Afro cosmopolitanism of its Black radical literary movement and the uneasy negotiation between feminist concerns and class identity among its women writers Feminist Issues in Literary Scholarship Shari Benstock,1987 an important and valuable collection the essays are at the cutting edge of post modernism Maggie Humm Women s Studies International Forum This well written carefully edited anthology provides an excellent overview of the thicket of contemporary feminist literary theory No library should be without it Kathryn Allen Rabuzzi Syracuse University Religious Studies Review In all this is a rich and varied collection Journal of Modern Literature Explores the aesthetic and political issues inherent in feminist critical theory and practice Contributors include Shari Benstock Elaine Showalter Nina Baym Paula A Treichler Jane Marcus Josephine Donovan Judith Kegan Gardiner Judith Newton Lillian S Robinson Nina Auerbach Elizabeth Fox Genovese Hortense J Spillers and Susan Stanford Friedman Afterlives of Modernism John Carlos Rowe,2015-02-05 In times of liberal despair it helps to have someone like John Carlos Rowe put things into perspective in this case with a collection of essays that asks the question Must we throw out liberalism s successes with the neoliberal bathwater Rowe first lays out a genealogy of early twentieth century modernists such as Gertrude Stein John Dos Passos William Faulkner and Ralph Ellison with an eye toward stressing their transnationally engaged liberalism and their efforts to introduce into the literary avant garde the concerns of politically marginalized groups whether defined by race class or gender The second part of the volume includes essays on the works of Harper Lee Thomas Berger Louise Erdrich and Philip Roth emphasizing the continuity of efforts to represent domestic political and social concerns While critical of the increasingly conservative tone of the neoliberalism of the past quarter century Rowe rescues the value of liberalism s sympathetic and socially engaged intent even as he criticizes modern liberalism s inability to work transnationally Letters of Compassion, Love and Lust of all Time Celebrities. Mastodon Edition. Igor Boyko,2023-03-30 Love is a universal language that has been expressed in countless ways throughout history One of the most enduring and intimate forms of love expression is the love letter From Shakespeare to Napoleon from Jane Austen to Frida Kahlo famous people have poured their hearts out on paper revealing their deepest emotions and desires These letters offer a glimpse into the private lives of some of the world s most beloved figures capturing their passions joys and sorrows in a way that only the written word can This book is a collection of love letters from some of the most iconic figures in history providing readers with an intimate look at the love lives of these famous individuals Whether you re a hopeless romantic or simply curious about the inner workings of great minds this book is sure to captivate and inspire The Poetics of the Common Knowledge Don Byrd,1994-01-01 The Poetics of the Common Knowledge focuses on Descartes Hegel Freud and the information theorists on the one hand and the poets of the American avant garde on the other This book is a call literally for a new poetry a new making that manifests the possibility for sense making in a postmodern condition without universals or absolutes In such a poetry fragmentation bespeaks not brokenness but the richness of the world apprehended without the habits of recognition
