Language Arts In Christian Schools:

Language Arts in Christian Schools Robert W. Bruinsma,1990      Religious Schools in the United States K-12 (1993)

Thomas C. Hunt,James Carper,2017-12-15 First published in 1993 this volume is an extension and revision of the 1986 book entitled Religious Schools in America A Selected Bibliography This new version contains additional annotated bibliographies of the various denominational schools as well as discussing governmental relation to each setting in the years from 1985 to 1992 This version also covers Greek Orthodox and Muslim schools that were not part of the previous volume and includes a chapter on the growth of home schooling which is often influenced by religion Finally unlike the previous edition this book only considers religious schools rather than the religious aspect or function of public schooling Each section includes a short chapter followed by an extensive annotated bibliography making it a useful source for anyone looking for information in the area      Moving Learning Forward in Christian Schools Steven F. Butler,2021-03-10 Are you ready to make changes in your

Christian school Moving Learning Forward in Christian Schools A Practical Guide for a Mission Focused Curriculum challenges those involved in Christian schools to consider changes to better prepare students to enter adulthood and impact the world Readers will gain insights into How current brain research about how the brain learns can be put into practice in classrooms How Christian schools can be much more mission focused than they currently are An excellent framework to shift Christian schools instructional programs from skills and knowledge textbook based curriculum to focusing on understanding and transfer with improved curriculum instruction and assessment A perfect platform for developing better integration of biblical concepts in all subject areas How the six Facets of Understanding from Understanding by Design provide a vehicle to intentionally include the development of personal characteristics that are Bible based and often related to the school s mission A wonderful guideline for helping Christian schools think systemically about changes needed and for developing a three to five year strategic plan for improving the instructional program This is your opportunity to consider concrete and practical ideas for school improvement      God's Schools Melinda Bollar Wagner,1990 Melinda Wagner goes beyond this stereotype to portray the way these schools foster American popular culture and professional education culture as well as Christian culture In her participant observation study of a variety of Christian schools sponsored by fundamentalist evangelical new charismatic Holiness and Pentecostal Christians Wagner describes and interprets how such compromises are made

English Language Arts as an Emancipatory Subject Andrew Goodwyn,Cal Durrant,Marshall George,Jacqueline Manuel,Wayne Sawyer,Melanie Shoffner,2024-12-24 English Language Arts as an Emancipatory Subject explores the changing nature and history of the English Language as an emancipatory subject as well as how its current activities and projects address and challenge inequalities Various forms of critical literacy have established English teaching as a radical force for social justice and subversion However the expert contributors to this book question whether English is a force for good in its capacity to develop literate citizens or are there larger contemporary complications surrounding it This book will re examine the history of English its present quality as a classroom subject and its future potential to re establish itself as an agent of social equality and change Edited by internationally leading scholars from the UK USA and Australia with contributions from New Zealand and Canada this work will also inspire English teachers to view their subject as one through which positive differences are imagined and complex real life issues are debated and challenged in the classroom The volume is an excellent overview of research and the latest thinking about the nature of English as an emancipatory subject its distinguished history and its potential for the future It will be a key resource for the research and teacher education community English teachers student teachers and anyone who views English teaching as a catalyst of social change

Legacies of Christian Language and Literacies in American Education Mary M. Juzwik, Jennifer C. Stone, Kevin J. Burke, Denise Dávila, 2019-10-23 Because spiritual life and religious participation are widespread human and cultural phenomena these experiences unsurprisingly find their way into English language arts curriculum learning teaching and teacher education work Yet many public school literacy teachers and secondary teacher educators feel unsure how to engage religious and spiritual topics and responses in their classrooms This volume responds to this challenge with an in depth exploration of diverse experiences and perspectives on Christianity within American education Authors not only examine how Christianity the historically dominant religion in American society shapes language and literacies in schooling and other educational spaces but they also imagine how these relations might be reconfigured From curricula to classroom practice from narratives of teacher education to youth coming to faith chapters vivify how spiritual lives beliefs practices communities and religious traditions interact with linguistic and literate practices and pedagogies In relating legacies of Christian language and literacies to urgent issues including White supremacy sexism and homophobia and the politics of exclusion the volume enacts and invites inclusive relational configurations within and across the myriad American Christian sub cultures coming to bear on English language arts curriculum teaching and learning This courageous collection contributes to an emerging scholarly literature at the intersection of language and literacy teaching and learning religious literacy curriculum studies teacher education and youth studies It will speak to teacher educators scholars secondary school teachers and graduate and postgraduate students among others

Assessing the Common Core: What's Gone Wrong--And How to Get Back on Track Robert C. Calfee, Kathleen M. Wilson, 2016-02-02 From distinguished educators this book imagines what our schools could look like if an authentic vision of the Common Core State Standards CCSS were put in place and thoughtfully critiques how and why implementation has faltered The authors outline a curriculum framework that focuses on student based inquiry and the use of formative assessment to monitor and guide student learning They provide workable innovative alternatives to the packaged instructional programs and summative tests that have come to be associated with the English language arts ELA standards Vignettes of diverse schools and districts highlight a range of successful approaches to making the CCSS work their collaborative experiences      Called, Equipped, and Anointed to Serve Christian Day Schools: K3-12Th Larry D. Armelin, 2016-08-15 The primary purpose of this book is to inspire Christian clergymen leaders and educators as well as parents and students to embrace promote and support the God ordained vision and mission of private Christian day schools Also this book profoundly expounds on how and why Christian day schools are very much relevant or needed in today's troublesome world This book is divided into four parts which expounds on foundational principles of a Christian day school God ordained assignments in the organizational structure of a Christian day school practical components of a quality Christian day school and posterity of Christian day schools The importance of being called equipped and anointed by God to serve within any capacity of a Christian day school is highlighted in this book as well Most importantly Christian day schools are established to meet the needs of the whole child spirit soul and body      Worldview as Worship Eddie Karl Baumann, 2011-08-01 The goal of many evangelical educators is to facilitate biblical thinking and the worldview transformation of their students Yet aside from upholding a set of moral behaviors or maintaining positions on issues perceived to be Christian the goals and aspirations of most evangelical young people differ little from their unbelieving peers As George Barna has noted We have a generation coming up that isn't looking at Christianity to answer spiritual concerns We either change or we lose them Worldview as Worship contends that the approach taken by most evangelical educators to the issue of worldview transformation has neglected to address two fundamental components of worldviews First that our initial worldviews are not philosophical systems but rather faith dispositions and that worldview transformation cannot simply present the biblical worldview as a more rational or logical system but must address issues of the heart as well as the mind Second unlike philosophies that are individual worldviews are communal and are learned and transformed within the context of community practice Appealing to Paul's teaching in Romans 12:1-2 Worldview as Worship approaches the renewing of your mind as the result of the believer's presentation of themselves as a holy sacrifice which is your spiritual service of worship The book advocates an approach to worldview transformation that focuses on believers as apprentices rather than simply as students an approach that holds true to the biblical model of discipleship As a result worldview transformation works best when the application of faith to the issues of learning and life are modeled by the faith community and where students are given the opportunity to put faith into practice      Graduate Programs in Business, Education, Information Studies, Law & Social Work 2015 (Grad 6) Peterson's, 2014-12-30 Graduate Programs in Business Education Information Studies Law Social Work 2015 contains helpful facts and figures on more than 11 000 graduate programs The comprehensive directory includes more than 1 850 institutions and their programs in all of the relevant disciplines such as accounting and finance business management education law library and information sciences marketing social work and many more Informative data profiles feature facts and figures on accreditation degree requirements application deadlines contact information financial support faculty and student body profiles Two page in depth descriptions written by featured institutions offer complete details on specific graduate program school or department as well as information on faculty research Comprehensive directories list programs in this volume as well as others in the graduate series     Indianapolis Monthly ,2003-02 Indianapolis Monthly is the Circle City s essential chronicle and guide an indispensable authority on what s new and what s news Through coverage of politics crime dining style business sports and arts and entertainment each issue offers compelling narrative stories and lively urbane coverage of Indy s cultural landscape
