Historical View of the Language and Literature of the Slavic Nations Talvj,1850 The present work is founded on an essay which appeared in the Biblical Repository for April and July 1834 then conducted by the undersigned The essay was received with favour by the public and awakened an interest in many minds as laying open a new field of information hitherto almost inaccessible to the English reader A few copies were printed separately for private distribution Some of these were sent to literary men in Europe and several scholars of high name among those acquainted with Slavic literature expressed their approval of the work Since that time and even of late inquiries have repeatedly been made by scholars and by public libraries in Europe for copies of that little treatise which of course it was impossible to satisfy These circumstances together with the fact that in these years public attention has been more prominently directed to the character and prospects of the Slavic nations have induced the author to recast the work and to lay it anew before the public corrected enlarged and continued to the present time as a brief contribution to our knowledge of the intellectual character and condition of those nations in the middle of the nineteenth century Preface
