Hyman, 2001-01-01 Gavin Hyman explores in depth two antithetical schools of postmodern theology the radical orthodoxy of John Milbank and the nihilist textualism of Don Cupitt Hyman critiques Milbank's influential project from a postmodern perspective and then points out the major difficulties with Cupitt's approach Finally he explores the work of Mark C Taylor and Michael de Certeau to articulate a third way that leads beyond the responses of both Cupitt and Milbank Analogical

Thinking in Architecture Jean-Pierre Chupin, 2023-07-27 This book provides an in depth exploration of the rich and persistent use of analogical thinking in the built environment Since the turn of the 21st century design thinking has permeated many fields outside of the design disciplines It is expected to succeed whenever disciplinary boundaries need to be transcended in order to think outside the box This book argues that these qualities have long been supported by analogical thinking an agile way of reasoning in which think the unknown through the familiar The book is organized into four case studies the first reviews analogical models that have been at the heart of design thinking representations from the 1960s to the present day the second investigates the staying power of biological analogies the third explores the paradoxical imaginary of analogous cities as a means of integrating contemporary architecture with heritage contexts while the fourth unpacks the critical and theoretical potential of linguistic metaphors and visual comparisons in architectural discourse Comparing views on the role of analogies and metaphors by prominent voices in architecture and related disciplines from the 17th century to the present the book shows how the analogical world of the project is revealed as a wide open field of creative and cognitive interactions These visual and textual operations are explained through 36 analogical plates which can be read as an inter text demonstrating how analogy has the power to reconcile design and theories Language of post-modern architecture C. Jencks,1991 This is Not Architecture Kester Rattenbury,2005-08-04 This is Not Architecture assembles architectural writers of different kinds historians theorists journalists computer game designers technologists film makers and architects to discuss the characteristics cultures limitations and bias of the different kinds of media and to build up an argument as to how this complex culture of representations is constructed The Changing Image of Affordable Housing Ulduz Maschaykh,2016-03-09 Illustrated by a range of case studies of affordable housing options in Canada this book examines the liveability and affordability of twenty first century residential architecture Focussing on the architects and communities commitment to these housing programmes as well as that of the private building sector it stresses the importance of the context of the neighbourhoods in which they are placed which are either in the process of urban transition or already gentrified In doing so the book shows how and to what extent twenty first century dwelling architecture developments can help to create an integrated sense of community diminish social and demographic exclusions in a neighbourhood and incorporate people s desires as to what their buildings should look like This book shows that there are significant architectural projects that help to meet the needs and desires of low to middle income households as well as homeowners and that gentrification does not necessarily lead to the displacement of low income families and singles if housing policies such as those highlighted in this book are put into place Moreover the migration of the middle class can result in a healthy mix of classes out of which everyone can enjoy a peaceful and habitable coexistence Philosophy and Architecture ,2021-11-01
