Languages for a Multicultural World in Transition Heidi Byrnes,1992-01-01 Applied Language Learning,2006 Sociopolitical Perspectives on Language Policy and Planning in the USA Thom Huebner,Kathryn Anne Davis,Joseph Lo Bianco,1999 In the third part some practical issues are raised by looking into the role of language and culture in teaching reading foreign language policy in higher education Hawaiian language regeneration and gender neutralization in American English BOOK JACKET Linguistic Genocide in Education--or Worldwide Diversity and Human Rights? Tove Skutnabb-Kangas,2013-05-13 In this powerful multidisciplinary book Tove Skutnabb Kangas shows how most indigenous and minority education contributes to linguistic genocide according to United Nations definitions Theory is combined with a wealth of factual encyclopedic information and with many examples and vignettes The examples come from all parts of the world and try to avoid Eurocentrism Oriented toward theory and practice facts and evaluations and reflection and action the book prompts readers to find information about the world and their local contexts to reflect and to act A Web site with additional resource materials to this book can be found at <http://www.ruc.dk/tovesk> Georgetown University Round Table on Languages and Linguistics (GURT) 1992: Language, Communication, and Social Meaning James E. Alatis,1993-10-01 This volume based on the forty third annual Georgetown University Round Table covers a variety of topics ranging from the relationship of language and philosophy through language policy to discourse analysis The Work of Language in Multicultural Classrooms Katherine Richardson Bruna,Kimberley Gomez,2009-06-02 Exploring the ways in which language comprises the implicit or explicit curriculum of teaching and learning in multicultural science settings this book contributes to scholarship on the role of language in developing classroom scientific communities of practice expands that work by highlighting the challenges faced specifically by ethnic and linguistic minority students and their teachers in joining those communities and showcases exemplary teaching and research initiatives for helping to meet these challenges Handbook of Undergraduate Second Language Education Judith W. Rosenthal,2013-06-17 This volume offers the most comprehensive up to date description of the wide array of second language programs currently available to undergraduate students in the United States and abroad It brings together for the first time detailed descriptions of programs in foreign language English as a second language ESL dual language bilingual American Sign Language Native American and heritage languages Addressing both theory and practice the volume presents the historical development current practices and future directions of each type of program along with detailed case studies For second language teachers academic administrators and teacher educators this Handbook provides information that will be useful in making instructional and programmatic planning decisions Intercultural Competence in Instructed Language Learning Paula Garrett-Rucks,2016-03-01 There is pressure on world language educators to prepare learners with 21st century skills to meet the challenges of an increasingly interconnected globalized world The need for change was summarized in the 2007 report of the MLA Ad Hoc Committee on Foreign Languages that suggested the implementation of curricular reform by developing students translingual and transcultural competence p 3 which allows someone to operate between languages p 237 However the integration of such a meaningful cultural component in instructed language learning is a complex topic This book recognizes the difficulty world language educators face to achieve the goals of the MLA report particularly at beginning levels of instruction in target language use classrooms Accordingly this book informs instructed language learning and teaching by bridging developmental theories from the fields of intercultural competence with second language pedagogies particularly communicative language teaching CLT and literacy based approaches providing examples of practical applications inside the classroom and beyond It is intended to support the many FL educators who have consistently reported that they are struggling to incorporate meaningful cultural instruction into their practice Fox Phillips Sercu 2005 This book provides a framework to foster learners deep cultural reflection at beginning levels of instruction while preserving target language use policies bridging CLT pedagogies to intercultural communicative competence ICC literacy based approaches It starts by synthesizing prominent definitions of culture and culture learning models and then summarizes disparate sources of research findings on culture learning projects which primarily take place at advanced levels of language learning to the Standards based classroom at all levels of instruction K 16 Although research on fostering learners intercultural competence at beginning levels of language instruction is in its infancy it is of utmost concern given that the vast majority of U S language learners rarely continue to advanced levels of instruction Zimmer Lowe 2008 In addition this book challenges FL educators to advocate for their FL programs and to give greater visibility and credibility to the profession in institutional internationalization efforts The theoretical components of this book deconstruct the connections between language thought and culture and problematize developmental models in the IC field that neglect to consider the important role of language This book provides K 16 FL educators with the discourse needed to 1 explain to administrators parents and students how world language study prepares learners to compete in an increasingly global market beyond the learner s development of linguistic proficiency and 2 convince administrators of the value in and the need for world language study in order to support institutional internationalization efforts The last chapter of this book provides guidance and suggestions on ways to expand K 12 teacher preparation programs and continuing education training to foster learners intercultural communicative competence while preserving a Standards based curriculum In sum this book is intended to 1 support all K 16 world language educators with their program advocacy and instruction 2 serve as a reference manual or course book in teacher preparation programs 3 serve as a reference manual or course book for research and graduate courses on the teaching and learning of languages accessible manner to readers without previous knowledge of language science literature and education     Critical Multiculturalism Stephen May, 2005-08-18 This book aims to bring together two movements multiculturalism and anti racism which though having aims in common have been at arms length in the past Differences of emphasis have meant that classroom practice has been the natural realm of multiculturalism while anti racism has been dissatisfied with an approach that accentuates life style at the expense of challenging or changing the racism that minority students experience In these debates there has been a concentration on culturally specific topics and this book goes beyond national boundaries to find how international concerns and contexts might provide answers to problems faced in single countries Leading figures in the USA Canada South Africa the UK and Australasia write on the issues
