Hurricane And Spitfire Pilots:

Hurricanes & Spitfire Pilots at War Terence Kelly, 2004-11-19 Most people asked to name one British Second World War airplane would say the Spitfire Yet the Hawker Hurricane flew in greater numbers in more variants and in more theaters than the redoubtable Spitfire Adrian Stewart has researched the evolution of the Hurricane from its 1935 maiden flight through to victory in the Far East in 1945 He brings his story alive by letting those who flew this legendary aircraft tell it as it was After the faltering first steps in the mid 1930s the Hurricane really took off and became hugely popular in the RAF and allied air forces They Flew The Hurricane contains numerous first hand accounts from pilots operating in such diverse campaigns as the Battle of Britain North Africa Russia the Far East and North West Europe from 1940 to 1945 These thrilling vignettes combine to bring to life action in the air Hurricane and Spitfire Pilots at War Terence Kelly, 1986 Fight for

Volume 2 Christopher Shores,Giovanni Massimello,Russell Guest, Frank Olynyk, Winfried Bock, 2014-07-19 This second volume in the seminal series on aerial combat pilots and tactics in Libya and Egypt in the middle of World War II In volume two of this series historian Christopher Shores begins by exploring the 8th Army s movements after Operation Crusader when they were forced back to the Gazala area in northeastern Libya as well as their defeat in June 1942 the loss of Tobruk and the efforts of Allied air forces to protect their retreating troops Shores continues with the heavy fighting that followed in the El Alamein region This features the Western Desert Air Force and the arrival of the first Spitfires The buildup of both army and air forces and the addition of new commanders on the ground aided the defeat of Rommel s Deutsche Afrika Korps at Alam el Halfa after which came the Second Battle of El Alamein With the arrival of the United States Army Air Force the Allied air forces gained dominance over the Axis Shores recounts the lengthy pursuit of the Italo German forces right across Libya including the capture of Tripoli and the breakthrough into Southern Tunisia This allowed a linkup with other Allied forces in Tunisia whose story appears in Volume 3 Included with the action are stories of some of the great fighter aces of the Desert campaign such as Jochen Marseille and Otto Schulz of the Luftwaffe Franco Bordoni Bisleri of the Regia Aeronautica and Neville Duke Billy Drake and Eddie Edwards of the Commonwealth air forces Finally Shores touches on the Allied and Axis night bombing offensives and the activities of the squadrons cooperating with the naval forces in the Mediterranean Aces High, Volume 1 Christopher Shores, Clive Williams, 2008-09-18 First in the Aces High series a military reference of the fighter pilots who had five or more confirmed victories while serving in the Royal Air Force Introduced by the French quite early in World War I the term ace was used to describe a pilot credited with five or more aerial victories But in the United Kingdom the term was never officially recognized Becoming an ace was partly luck especially considering the campaigns in which they flew and the areas of combat There are three distinct kinds of aces the defensive ace the offensive ace and the night fighter This book is a revised collection of the biographies of the highest scoring Allied fighter pilots of World War II including those with the confirmed claims of shooting down five aircraft and those pilots with lower scores but whose wartime careers prove them worthy of inclusion All details of their combat are arranged in tabular form Included are a selection of photographs from hitherto private collections There are some authors whose name alone is sufficient reason to buy a book and Christopher Shores is surely one of these By profession a chartered surveyor he served in the Royal Air Force in the 1950s so his writing bears the stamp of authenticity HistoryNet Hurricane John Dibbs, Tony Holmes, Gordon Riley, 2017-05-18 2017 marks the 80th anniversary of the remarkable Hawker Hurricane formally entering service The RAF s first monoplane fighter it dragged the Air Force into a position where it could defend Britain in her hour of need The true workhorse of the RAF the Hurricane came into its own in the hot summer months of 1940 valiantly defending the skies above Britain Outnumbering Spitfires three to one the Hurricane also downed far more enemy aircraft Without the obvious elegance of the Me 109 or the Spitfire the Hurricane was nonetheless beloved by its pilots for its ability to simultaneously take a battering and inflict serious damage from its remarkably stable gun platform This stunning book reveals the Hurricane in all its glory from fascinating first hand accounts from the men who flew her to the truly breath taking images from John Dibbs of the Hurricanes still in flight today This lavish fully illustrated edition is a must have for all fans of aviation history Dowding's Despatch Andy Saunders,2021-10-22 In September 1946 the London Gazette published a despatch from Air Chief Marshal Sir Hugh C T Dowding that was titled simply The Battle of Britain Written and submitted to the Air Ministry in 1941 this document became the very framework for the accepted Battle of Britain narrative which has been established across the following eighty years Set out by the leader of the Few himself its authoritative tone could surely be considered a definitive outline of the battle how it was fought and the eventual outcome It even retrospectively set the dates for the commencement and conclusion of the campaign In this work Andy Saunders takes a critical look at Dowding s despatch and analyses the facts and details contained in that important document He also puts flesh on the bones of the matters that the former commander in chief of RAF Fighter Command outlines adding intriguing historical detail and perspective to the 1946 publication Additionally Andy looks at the behind the scenes machinations at the highest levels of government and Air Ministry before the despatch finally saw the light of day As a historical document Dowding s London Gazette despatch is worthy of the critical analysis and factual expansion which the author provides in what is a uniquely different look at the Battle of Britain with illustrations throughout Fighters Over Malta Brian Cull,Frederick Galea,2018-08-17 All known combat claims and losses Many personal accounts and memories of the battle Illustrated with new and rarely seen photographs Brian Cull and Frederick Galea s definitive Fighters over Malta Gladiators and Hurricanes 1940 1942 is a highly detailed account of the gallant band of RAF and Commonwealth pilots who flew in defence of Malta between June 1940 and April 1942 when help in the guise of Spitfires finally arrived Most of the Hurricanes which held this tiny outpost of the British Empire in the heart of Axis dominated territory had been flown from the decks of aircraft carriers or from bases in North Africa while a handful of fighter pilots arrived by Sunderland flying boats or other aircraft in transit from the UK via Gibraltar Many of these pilots were inexperienced and quickly paid the supreme price particularly when Messerschmitt Bf 109 pilots of the elite 7 JG26 arrived in Sicily in early 1941 and later in the year when JG53 made their presence felt Important personal diaries and journals have come to light and these have been widely quoted to provide the atmospheric background and thoughts and hopes of Hurricane pilots who defended Malta Not all diarists survived but their impressions provide a fitting tribute to their courage aspirations and fears Much of the early period of the air defence of Malta is enhanced by the personal experiences of Flt Lt then Sgt Plt James Pickering AFC who flew Hurricanes with 261 Squadron
