Crist, 2008-12-16 A dream of many years has come to fruition For many years growing up I was encouraged to be a writer by my mother She told me to experience life and one day I will have the heart to write a great book I began sailing the Chesapeake Bay in my sixteen foot Hobie cat when I was a preteen As I gained experience I grew braver and ventured across the bay and into some of the major rivers that flowed into it One day about midday I was sailing up the York river and I met a young Mattiponi boy about my same age I offered to take him for a ride on my cat and a friendship developed When I graduated from high school I attended a small college in North Carolina The Vietnam war was developing so I felt it was my duty to join the service I became a Navy photographer When my tour of duty was completed I decided to return to college and get my degree I graduated with a BS in elementary education 4 7 I enjoyed my career of 28 years of teaching but I hadn t met my goal to write a book Having taught about the Woodland Powhatan Indians throughout the years I focused my research and learned about and visited close local tribe sights and museums I retired from teaching to write my book After many reams of paper and constant editing and revising my two plus years of writing finally became hopeful reality We all have watched Apache raids in movies and on tv and read James F Cooper s Last of the Mohicans but what about a story about Indian life before the invasion of the alien British Colonists Who were the Tidewater Woodland Powhatan Indians and what is their story Michael Crist North-western Christian Advocate ,1900 I Was and I Am Dust David M. Mellott, 2009-10-01 There are a variety of people practices and celebrations in the Catholic Church At times some of these can be dismissed too easily as extreme superstitious or uninformed Such is the case with the Penitentes of New Mexico In I Was and I Am Dust David M Mellott shares his experiences of the Penitentes as an outsider He explains their struggles with the institutional church and some of the seemingly extreme rituals they facilitate during Holy Week Through the voice of Larry Torres one of the senior members of the Penitentes Mellott poignantly provides readers with a more intimate picture of this community of practitioners Yet so much more than an analysis written by an outsider this work attempts to understand the experience of those within a group whose practices are considered outside the mainstream With Mellott and Torres readers may be surprised to discover a depth of meaning in these practices and to realize the beauty of being dust David M Mellott is assistant professor of practical theology and director of ministerial formation at Lancaster Theological Seminary where he teaches courses in philosophy ethnography and theology of ministry He is committed to supporting and nurturing Christian communities that empower people to live more authentically as they seek to love God neighbor and self more deeply Sailors and Sailing Adventures Cleon McClain, 2013-06 Sailors and Sailing Adventures is not just a collection of poetry about sailing Each of the delightfully
