Music contemplates and celebrates the mysterious powerful dynamic relationship between ourselves and the songs we love the way in which songs work upon our minds and in which our minds because of the inevitable creative force of our imaginations and memories work upon them The book does not propose or develop a unified argument nor does it tell chronologically the story of the author s life of listening Instead in recognition of the varied fluid and ultimately mysterious ways in which our minds respond to songs it is structured associatively with one topic inspiring thoughts of another the book begins with a song drifting into the author s mind and it ends with that mind still in the midst of listening waiting for a beat that will never come
