Landscapes Of Memory:

Landscapes of Memory Patrizia Violi, 2017 What should we do with places that were theatres of mass suffering and atrocity Should we keep them as they were to remind us of the past or transform them This volume addresses these questions by discussing selected key trauma sites analysed with an innovative semiotic methodology that sheds new light on the notions of trauma and memory

The Architecture of Landscape Jan Birksted, 2000

Landscape And Memory Simon Schama, 1995 A Time Magazine Best Books of the Year In Landscape and Memory award winning author Simon Schama ranges over continents and centuries to reveal the psychic claims that human beings have made on nature He tells of the Nazi cult of the primeval German forest the play of Christian and pagan myth in Bernini's Fountain of the Four Rivers and the duel between a monumental sculptor and a feminist gadfly on the slopes of Mount Rushmore The result is a triumphant work of history naturalism mythology and art as encyclopedic as The Golden Bough and as irresistibly readable as Schama's own Citizens A work of great ambition and enormous intellectual scope consistently provocative and revealing New York Times Extraordinary a summary cannot convey the riches of this book It will absorb instruct and fascinate New York Review of Books

Landscapes of Memory, 2000

Landscape, Race and Memory Divya Praful Tolia-Kelly, 2016-04-22 Memory is seldom explored through the experience of geographically mobile racialized populations Whilst the relationships between the political value of landscape and national memory have previously been written through there has been little mention of postcolonial diasporic racialized citizens Using both visual and material culture this book examines the value of landscape and memory for postcolonial migrants living in Britain It uses memory to examine how postcolonial citizenship in Britain is experienced through remembered citizenships of other geographies abroad By reflecting on the cultural landscapes of British Asian women the book reveals social historical narratives about migration citizenship and belonging New spaces of memory are presented as mobile and as politically charged with meaning as the more formal spaces of memorialization The book offers a refiguring of race memory as being critical to English heritage and postcolonial politics and makes an important contribution to the writings on memory race and landscape

Tyner, 2016-11-16 This book explores how the legacy of violence during the Khmer Rouge regime in Cambodia is memorialized Engaging with war violence and critical heritage studies the book looks at how the selective production of heritage diminishes opportunities for justice and reconciliation beyond the violence It should be of particular interest to students and scholars interested in heritage studies memory trauma genocide dark tourism and Cambodia

Silent City on a Hill Blanche M. G. Linden, 2007 Originally published in 1989 this book offers an insightful inquiry into the intellectual and cultural origins of Mount Auburn Cemetery the first landscape in the United States to be designed in the picturesque style Inspired by developments in England and France and founded in 1831 Mount Auburn became the prototype for the rural cemetery movement and was an important precursor of many of America's public parks beginning with New York City's Central Park This new edition has been completely redesigned in a larger format with new photographs and a new epilogue that carries the story forward into the twentieth century Published in association with Library of American Landscape History <http://lalh.org>

Heritage, Memory and the Politics of Identity Yvonne Whelan, 2016-04-22 The study of the cultural landscape has gained momentum in recent years revealing new insights to geographers archaeologists sociologists and architects The cultural landscape is often viewed as an emblematic site and thus a key player in the heritage process This book explores the overlapping and often complex relationships between identity memory heritage and the cultural landscape It provides an overview of new approaches in the study of these relationships combined with evidence from Ireland England Scotland and the United States These case studies demonstrate the significance of the past in the contemporary construction of identity narratives and draw attention to the powerful role of monuments and parades as sites of cultural heritage The focus then shifts to the way in which heritage has become politicized for various ends demonstrating the changing perception of particular heritage sites and buildings and the role that this has played in constructing and reconstructing particular identities

Plantation Megan M. Bailey, 2024-02-27 Uncovering evidence of slavery and control in the spatial landscapes of a Maryland plantation In this book Megan Bailey uses archaeological data and historical records to document the treatment of enslaved people at L Hermitage Plantation in Maryland from 1794 to 1827 Bailey uses the concept of the nervous landscape a space where power is not absolute and where resistance is possible to show how the Vincendi re family s fear of losing control of their workforce drove their brutality Bailey shows how the Vincendi res strategies to maintain their power were inscribed in the plantation s landscapes through the design of the enslaved peoples village which maximized surveillance and control while suppressing individuality Despite the family s behavior enslaved people found ways to exercise agency including through use of yard space forming relationships with local residents and running away Considering fear and anxiety as a fundamental element of the colonial experience Bailey argues that emotion should be considered in archaeological analyses of the past Today L Hermitage Plantation is a part of the Monocacy National Battlefield operated by the National Park Service Bailey discusses the public interpretation of the site and how excavations of the plantation highlighted a more complicated narrative than the prevailing story of Civil War conflict and heroism Memory and Power at L Hermitage Plantation uses archaeology to connect the Vincendi res to the present day landscape in a complex layered narrative of precarity and control A volume in the series Cultural Heritage Studies edited by Paul A Shackel Publication of this work made possible by a Sustaining the Humanities through the American Rescue Plan grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities

The War of 1948 Avraham Sela, Alon Kadish, 2016-11-21 The 1948 War is remembered in this special volume including aspects of Israeli Jewish memory and historical narratives of 1948 and representations of Israeli Palestinian memory of that cataclysmic event and its consequences The contributors map and analyze a range of perspectives of the 1948 War as represented in literature historical museums art visual media and landscape as well as in competing official and societal narratives They are examined especially against the backdrop of the Oslo process which brought into relief tensions within and between both sides of the national divide concerning identity and legitimacy justice and righteousness of self and other

Landscape Research-I Öner Demirel, Ertan Düzgüneş, 2021-08-15 Landscape Research I Agency in Transnational Memory Politics Jenny Wüstenberg, Aline Sierp, 2020-07-01 The dynamics of transnational memory play a central role in modern politics from postsocialist efforts at transitional justice to the global legacies of colonialism Yet the relatively young subfield of transnational memory studies remains underdeveloped and fractured across numerous disciplines even as nascent boundary crossing theories on topics such as multi vocal traveling or entangled remembrance suggest new ways of negotiating difficult political questions This volume brings together theoretical and practical considerations to provide transnational memory scholars with an interdisciplinary investigation into agency the who and the how of cross border commemoration that motivates activists and fascinates observers      Places of Memory: Spatialised Practices of Remembrance from Prehistory to Today Christian Horn,Gustav Wollentz,Gianpiero Di Maida,Annette Haug,2020-09-24 This book examines spatialised practices of remembrance and its role in reshaping societies from prehistory to today it presents a reflection on the creation of memories through the organisation and use of landscapes and spaces that explicitly considers the multiplicity of meanings of the past      The Politics of World Heritage David Harrison,Michael Hitchcock,2005-01-01 This collection of papers discuss World Trade Law and focus on the contested nature of World Heritage at sites as diverse as The Netherlands Ellis Island USA post colonial Mesoamerica Cambodia Fiji Kyrgyzstan and Vietnam In addition eight research notes explore heritage interpretation in the USA Lebanon Peru Indonesia Singapore Tasmania and India      (In)scribing Body/landscape Relations Bronwyn Davies,2000 This is an exploration of body landscape relations and what is possible when body and language are thought of and written together instead of in opposition to each other
