Interior Landscape Industry, 1986      Literary Landscapes Attie De Lange, G. Fincham, J. Hawthorn, J. Lothe, 2008-07-10

This book explores the varied ways in which modernist and postcolonial innovations in fiction are motivated by crises and revolutions in the human perception and appropriation of space Space for the writers concerned has its political historical cultural and gender dimensions as well as its geographical identity      Early and Middle Woodland Landscapes of the Southeast Alice P. Wright, Edward R. Henry, 2019-10-01 Fourteen in depth case studies incorporate empirical data with theoretical concepts such as ritual aggregation and place making highlighting the variability and common themes in the relationships between people landscapes and the built environment that characterize this period of North American native life in the Southeast      Space, Place and Religious Landscapes Darrelyn Gunzburg, Bernadette Brady, 2020-10-01 Exploring sacred mountains around the world this book examines whether bonding and reverence to a mountain is intrinsic to the mountain constructed by people or a mutual encounter Chapters explore mountains in England Scotland Wales Italy Ireland the Himalaya Japan Greece USA Asia and South America and embrace the union of sky landscape and people to examine the religious dynamics between human and non human entities This book takes as its starting point the fact that mountains physically mediate between land and sky and act as metaphors for bridges from one realm to another recognising that mountains are relational and that landscapes form personal and group cosmologies The book fuses ideas of space place and material religion with cultural environmentalism and takes an interconnected approach to material religio landscapes In this way it fills the gap between lived religious traditions personal reflection phenomenology historical context environmental philosophy myths and performativity In defining material religion as active engagement with mountain forming and humanshaping landscapes the research and ideas presented here provide theories that are widely applicable to other forms of material religion      Landscape and Branding Nicole Porter, 2015-10-05 Landscape and branding explores the way landscape is conceptualised conceived represented and designed by professionals in a brand driven age Landscape incorporating tangible physical space as well as intangible concepts narratives images and experiences of place is constructed by a number of creative industries This book tests the hypothesis that place branding a powerful marketing and management practice increasingly blurs the distinction between the promotion of landscape and its production in design terms Place branding involves the strategic and systematic composition of single minded experiential and market friendly place identities which are consistently communicated across various media including physical space How does this implicate or transform notions of place nature landscape experience and the qualitative value of landscape itself How does this affect the role of landscape architecture To answer these questions place branding theory and practice is critically examined alongside an in depth case study of one specific landscape the Blue Mountains Australia Projects undertaken between 1995 and 2015 including a branding strategy for the region media campaigns television cinema and several landscape architectural works in the public and private domain are comparatively analysed focusing on the discourse conventions and values informing their production and the landscape narratives they convey      Landscape and Images John R. Stilgoe, 2015-02-12 John Stilgoe is just looking around This is more difficult than it sounds particularly in our mediated age when advances in both theory and technology too often seek to replace the visual evidence before our own eyes rather than complement it We are surrounded by landscapes charged with our past and yet from our earliest schooldays we are instructed not to stare out the window Someone who stops to look isn't only a rarity he or she is suspect Landscape and Images records a lifetime spent observing America's constructed landscapes Stilgoe's essays follow the eclectic trains of thought that have resulted from his observation from the postcard preference for sunsets over sunrises to the concept of teen geography to the unwillingness of Americans to walk up and down stairs In Stilgoe's hands the subject of jack o lanterns becomes an occasion to explore centuries old concepts of boundaries and trespassing and to examine why this originally pagan symbol has persisted into our own age Even something as mundane as putting the cat out before going to bed is traced back to fears of unwatched animals and an untended frontier fireplace Stilgoe ponders the forgotten connections between politics and painted landscapes and asks why a country whose vast majority lives less than a hundred miles from a coast nonetheless looks to the rural Midwest for the classic image of itself At times breathtaking in their erudition the essays collected here are as meticulously researched as they are elegantly written Stilgoe's observations speak to specialists whether they be artists historians or environmental designers as well as to the common reader Our landscapes constitute a fascinating history of accident and intent The proof says Stilgoe is all around us      Reading the Landscape Peter Valenti, 1996 This reader rhetoric is appropriate for composition courses or single topic courses relating to the environment or ecology It provides a solid introduction to the writing process while moving the student from a me oriented personal view into a larger world of family and community through readings and exercises      Technologies for the Preservation of Prehistoric & Historic Landscapes, 1987      Light on the Landscape William Neill, 2020-04-22 See the images and read the stories behind the creative process of one of America's most respected landscape photographers William Neill For more than two decades William Neill has been offering his thoughts and insights about photography and the beauty of nature in essays that cover the techniques business and spirit of his photographic life Curated and collected here for the first time these essays are both pragmatic and profound offering readers an intimate look behind the scenes at Neill's creative process behind individual photographs as well as a discussion of the larger and more foundational topics that are key to his philosophy and approach to work Drawing from the tradition of behind the scenes books like Ansel Adams Examples The Making of 40 Photographs and Galen Rowell's Mountain Light In Search of the Dynamic Landscape Light on the Landscape covers in detail the core photographic fundamentals such as light composition camera angle and exposure choices but it also deftly considers those subjects that are less frequently examined portfolio development marketing printmaking nature stewardship inspiration preparation self improvement and more The result is a profound and wide ranging exploration of that magical convergence of light land and camera Filled with beautiful and inspiring photographs Light on the Landscape is also full of the kind of wisdom that only comes from a deeply thoughtful photographer who has spent a lifetime communicating with a camera Incorporating the lessons within the book you too can learn to achieve not only technically excellent and beautiful images but photographs that truly rise above your best and reveal your deeply personal and creative perspective your vision your voice
