English Lexicology Leonhard Lipka, 2002 Toward a Science of Translating? Stefan Felber, 2025-03-27 Eugene A Nida is one of the pioneers and founders of modern translation theory coining the terms dynamic equivalence and formal equivalence and energetically promoting the former though in his latter years preferring the term functional equivalence Originally formulated for the Bible Translation efforts amongst people groups without the Bible Nida's theories of translation have also been widely influential in Translation Studies making this presentation of Eugene A Nida's life 1914 2011 and assessment of his works especially timely and significant Stefan Felber is a German Old Testament scholar former seminary professor and author of the German only Wesen und Würde des Wortes Biblisch theologische Grundlagen für das Verständnis von Sprache und Kommunikation The Nature and Dignity of the Word Biblical Theological Foundations for Understanding Language and Communication in Zwischen Babel und Jerusalem Aspekte von Sprache und Übersetzung among other works As such he is uniquely qualified to offer this fair minded and masterful yet critical evaluation of Nida's model of translation doing so from a rich variety of disciplines including exegesis theology philology and philosophies of language

Whether one agrees or disagrees with either Nida or Felber I highly recommend this rigorous and wide ranging exposition for advancing informed dialogue and promoting further understanding and advances in Translation Studies Professor Tom McCormick Tyndale University College Toronto Although the theory of Dynamic or Functional Equivalence was the most widely used method in global Bible translation after the Second World War there has been no comprehensive study of its foundations and how it was developed by Eugene Nida Filling this gap is one of the great merits of Felber's study Felber while showing great respect for Nida critically evaluates Dynamic Equivalence from various perspectives exegetical theological philosophical and linguistic This multi dimensional nuanced approach provides the reader with thought provoking and helpful insights that further the discussion in important ways Felber's study is a must read for all who deal with language and translation in theology and the church in Bible translation and mission Prof Dr Markus Zehnder Internationale Hochschule Bad Liebenzell Evangelische theologische Fakultät Leuven Ansgarskolen Kristiansand Stefan Felber's Toward a Science of Translating is a landmark study in Biblical Translation Theory focussing on Eugene Nida 1914 2011 who for many years was a central figure in the American Bible Society and the United Bible Societies Nida has been described as probably the world's leading scholar on translation and his theory of Dynamic or Functional Equivalence provided a leading paradigm for Bible translators for decades In this thorough analysis of his work and its reception Felber highlights a number of weaknesses as well as some strengths affiliated with Nida's theory promoting translation theory based on reader oriented thought for thought patterns rather than traditional source oriented analysis of textual form and content Felber's evaluation raises a critical question Are facets of the biblical text pertaining to biblical language and hermeneutics theology and the transcendent downplayed in Nida's addressee oriented approach to translation I hope this book will be widely read by translators biblical scholars and others interested in translation of the Bible Dr Tomas Bokedal Associate Professor of New Testament and Early Christianity NLA University College Norway Docent of New Testament Exegesis Lund University Sweden

Contrastive Phraseology Fabio Mollica, Paola Cotta Ramusino, 2020-02-06 This volume is addressed to researchers in the field of phraseology and to teachers translators and lexicographers It is a collection of essays offering a comprehensive modern analysis of phrasemes embracing a wide range of subjects and themes from linguistic both applied and theoretical to cultural aspects The contrastive approach underlying this variety of themes allows the divergences and analogies between phraseological units in two or more languages to be outlined The languages compared here are both major and minor European and non European and the text includes contrastive analyses of the most commonly investigated languages French German English Spanish Russian German as well as some less frequently investigated languages like Ukrainian Romanian Georgian and Thai which are not as well represented in phraseological description despite their scientific interest

The Specialised Lexicographical Approach Nuria Edo Marzá, 2009 This book puts forward the specialised lexicographical approach SLA as the result of a natural evolution in the field of specialised dictionary making that goes a step further the mere terminographical practice The kind of specialised lexicographical works to be obtained with this approach are specialised active user friendly user focused corpus based dictionaries deeply grounded on the belief that terminology has a practical communicative dimension that terminographical works have not normally reflected All through this book the theoretical and applied aspects of this approach have been illustrated by showing the elaboration process of an active corpus based bilingual English Spanish Spanish English dictionary of the ceramics industry The first part of the book provides a sound theoretical framework in which the different aspects involved in the creation of dictionaries within the SLA for speciality areas of knowledge have been progressively disclosed namely a review on specialised languages corpus linguistics terminology and socio economic aspects all this leading to the final characterisation of specialised lexicography from a theoretical perspective On the basis of this theoretical framework and according to the SLA this book also presents an innovative corpus based method of work for specialised dictionary making closely linked to the use of corpora terminotics and new technologies

Cognitive Lexicography Carolin Ostermann, 2015-07-31 English lexicography and linguistics have always shared close ties yet the potential of cognitive linguistics for lexicography has only been hesitantly acknowledged in the literature This is what cognitive lexicography attempts to change by using insights gained in cognitive semantic research for the development of new dictionary features After a short survey of the history and practice of English monolingual learner lexicography as well as an outline of the relationship between linguistics and lexicography three new dictionary features are developed They cover three different cognitive semantic theories as well as three different parts of the monolingual dictionary entry each time for a new set of lexemes Frame semantics conceptual metaphor theory as well as cognitive conceptions of polysemy are used to create a new example section for agentive nouns a new defining structure for emotion terms and a new microstructural arrangement for particle entries Dictionary analyses on all as well as user studies on two of the features complement these suggestions The monograph thus presents a new approach to lexicography that incorporates into its description of lexical items how humans perceive and conceptualise language

Pedagogical Lexicography Today Fredric Thomas Dolezal, Don R. McCreary, 2014-07-24 The aim of this monograph which has rich and evaluative annotations is to contribute to a more comprehensive understanding of the issues in a major developing area of pedagogical lexicography With this monograph researchers and students can have access to a set of 521 articles from a diverse array of publications many in hard to find sources that will prove valuable in reviewing the literature of the area Because articles on language users and dictionary users are published in journals devoted to reading research language acquisition second language teaching linguistics and lexicography most of the past research in the area has not shown critical awareness of this diffuse collection of research The annotated bibliography found in this monograph supplies scholars in all the different fields of enquiry a critical guide to past and current work in pedagogical lexicography Because this subfield of lexicography has developed in a variety of disciplines it is difficult for researchers in any single discipline or sub discipline to find relevant and important articles this annotated bibliography not only provides a highly defined topical index based on a key word analysis of the literature but also annotations and commentary that provide the reader with a critical understanding of the important issues and debates in the development of the study of learners dictionaries and dictionary users The authors of this monograph have written the critical annotations in a manner that foregrounds the points of debate within the area which helps to define the concerns of the area

Natural Language Processing and Cognitive Science Bernadette Sharp, Rodolfo Delmonte, 2015-03-10 Peer reviewed articles from the Natural Language Processing and Cognitive Science NLPCS 2014 meeting in October 2014 workshop The meeting fosters interactions among researchers and practitioners in NLP by taking a Cognitive Science perspective Articles cover topics such as artificial intelligence computational linguistics psycholinguistics cognitive psychology and language learning

Discourse Analysis and the New Testament Stanley E. Porter, Jeffrey Reed, 1999-06-01 The volume contains contributions by many of the major discourse analysts of the New Testament including E A Nida W Schenk J P Louw and J Callow Some of these essays deal with methodology raising necessary questions about what it means to analyse discourse Others demonstrate an already committed approach by reading specific texts A state of the art volume for all scholars interested in this increasingly important area of New Testament research

Living Words Tom McArthur, 1998 In this collection of articles the author reflects on the nature of language the art of lexicography and the developments in communication the media and information technology in the late 20th century The three main subjects looked at are language at large and particularly English the most widely used language in the history of the world the art and study of dictionaries and reference science embracing all past present and potential reference materials from the OED to the Yellow Pages and the processes through which communication information and knowledge has evolved from cave art to the personal computer
