Language, Power, and Pedagogy Jim Cummins,2000-01-01 As linguistic diversity increases in countries around the world policy makers and educators are faced with complex and conflictual issues regarding appropriate ways of educating a multilingual school population This volume reviews the research and theory relating to instruction and assessment of bilingual pupils focusing not only on issues of language learning and teaching but also the ways in which power relations in the wider society affect patterns of teacher pupil interaction in the classroom   Language is Power John Honey,1997-01-01 Across the English speaking world there is a liberal orthodoxy which opposes the use of standard English in schools and in society at large But does this truly protect the underprivileged or has it inflicted lasting educational damage on a generation of children Is Steven Pinker best selling author of The Language Instinct right to claim that all languages and dialects are equal Professor John Honey refutes the arguments that for the past three decades have been put forward against standard English and shows how apparently egalitarian notions of Black English and other dialects can effectively limit access to standard English and hence power for disadvantaged or minority groups He discusses the charge that the worldwide teaching of English amounts to linguistic imperialism and examines whether British English will inevitably lose out to American   Language and Power. The Implications of Language for Peace and Development Birgit Brock-Utne,Gunnar Garbo,2009-09-15 Language is a tool used to express thoughts to hide thoughts or to hide lack of thoughts It is often a means of domination The question is who has the power to define the world around us This book demonstrates how language is being manipulated to form the minds of listeners or readers Innocent words may be used to conceal a reality which people would have reacted to had the phenomena been described in a straightforward manner The nice and innocent concept cost sharing which leads our thoughts to communal sharing and solidarity may actually imply privatization The false belief that the best way to learn a foreign language is to have it as a language of instruction actually becomes a strategy for stupidification of African pupils In this book 33 independent experts from 16 countries in the North and the South show how language may be used to legitimize war making promote Northern interests in the field of development and retain colonial speech as languages of instruction languages of the courts and in politics The book has been edited by two Norwegians Birgit Brock Utne is a professor at the University of Oslo and a consultant in education and development From 1987 until 1992 she was a professor at the University of Dar es Salaam Gunnar Garbo author and journalist and former member of the Norwegian Parliament was the Norwegian Ambassador to Tanzania from 1987 to 1992

Language Power: Grades 3-5 Level A Teacher's Guide Elizabeth C. McNally,Emily Corbin,2012-10-30   Language, Power and Pedagogy Jim Cummins,2000-09-22 Population mobility is at an all time high in human history One result of this unprecedented movement of peoples around the world is that in many school systems monolingual and monocultural students are the exception rather than the rule particularly in urban areas This shift in demographic realities entails enormous challenges for educators and policy makers What do teachers need to know in order to teach effectively in linguistically and culturally diverse contexts How long does it take second language learners to acquire proficiency in the language of school instruction What are the differences between attaining conversational fluency in everyday contexts and developing proficiency in the language registers required for academic success What adjustments do we need to make in curriculum instruction and assessment to ensure that second language learners understand what is being taught and are assessed in a fair and equitable manner How long do we need to wait before including second language learners in high stakes national examinations and assessments What role if any should be accorded students first language in the curriculum Do bilingual education programs work well for poor children from minority language backgrounds or should they be reserved only for middle class children from the majority or dominant group In addressing these issues this volume focuses not only on issues of language learning and teaching but also highlights the ways in which power relations in the wider society affect patterns of teacher student interaction in the classroom Effective instruction will inevitably challenge patterns of coercive power relations in both school and society   Power and Politeness in Action Miriam A. Locher,2010-09-03 This study investigates the interface of power and politeness in the realization of disagreements in naturalistic language data Power and politeness are important phenomena in face to face interaction Disagreement is an arena in which these two key concepts are likely to be observed together both disagreement and the exercise of power entail a conflict and at the same time conflict will often be softened by the display of politeness defined as marked relational work The concept of power is of special interest to the field of linguistics in that language is one of the primary means to exercise power Often correlated with status and regarded as an influential aspect of situated speech the workings of the exercise of power however have rarely been formally articulated This study provides a theoretical framework within which to analyze the observed instances of disagreement and their co occurrence with the exercise of power and display of politeness In this framework a checklist of propositions that allow us to operationalize the concept of power and identify its exercise in naturalistic linguistic data is combined with a view of language as socially constructed A qualitative approach is used to analyze the concepts of power and politeness The material for analysis comes from three different contexts 1 a sociable argument in an informal supportive and interactive family setting 2 a business meeting among colleagues within a research institution and 3 examples from public discourse collected during the US Election 2000   Language Power: Grades K-2 Level C Teacher's Guide Hayley Lehoski,Linda Vander Wende,2012-09-30   Language Power and Hierarchy Linda Tsung,2014-10-27 Shunning polemicism and fashioning a new agenda for a critically informed yet practically orientated approach this book explores aspects of multilingual education in the People s Republic of China PRC Amongst other issues it also looks at the challenges associated with bilingual and trilingual education in Xinjiang and Tibet as well as the mediation between religion and culture in multi ethnic schools covering these issues from a range of perspectives Korean Uyghur Tibetan Mongolian and Yi The PRC promotes itself as a harmonious stable multicultural mosaic with over 50 distinct ethnic groups striving for common prosperity Beneath this rhetoric there is also inter ethnic discord with scenes of ethnic violence in Lhasa and Urumqi over the last few years China has a complex system of multilingual education with dual pathway curricula bilingual and trilingual instruction specialised ethnic schools This education system is a lynchpin in the Communist party state s efforts to keep a lid on simmering tensions and transform a rhetoric of harmony into a critical pluralistic harmonious multiculturalism This book examines this supposed lynchpin Language Power: Grades 3-5 Level C Teacher's Guide Nancy Bosse,Christine Dugan,2012-10-30 Language Power: Grades 6-8 Level B Teacher's Guide Elizabeth C.
