Sub-Saharan Africa Elizabeth J. Erling, John Clegg, Casimir M. Rubagumya, Colin Reilly, 2021-07-01 This edited collection provides unprecedented insight into the emerging field of multilingual education in Sub Saharan Africa SSA Multilingual education is claimed to have many benefits amongst which are that it can improve both content and language learning especially for learners who may have low ability in the medium of instruction and are consequently struggling to learn The book represents a range of Sub Saharan school contexts and describes how multilingual strategies have been developed and implemented within them to support the learning of content and language It looks at multilingual learning from several points of view including translanguaging or the use of multiple languages and especially African languages for learning and language supportive pedagogy or the implementation of a distinct pedagogy to support learners working through the medium of a second language The book puts forward strategies for creating materials classroom environments and teacher education programmes which support the use of all of a student's languages to improve language and content learning The contexts which the book describes are challenging including low school resourcing poverty and low literacy in the home and school policy which militates against the use of African languages in school The volume also draws on multilingual education approaches which have been successfully carried out in higher resource countries and lend themselves to being adapted for use in SSA It shows how multilingual learning can bring about transformation in education and provides inspiration for how these strategies might spread and be further developed to improve learning in schools in SSA and beyond Chapter 3 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> Linguistic Bibliography for the Year 2000 / Bibliographie Linguistique de l'Année 2000 Siemen Tol, Hella Olbertz, Mark Janse, 2004-12-10 Bibliographie Linguistique Linguistic

Bibliography is the annual bibliography of linguistics published by the Permanent International Committee of Linguists under the auspices of the International Council of Philosophy and Humanistic Studies of UNESCO. With a tradition of more than fifty years, the first two volumes covering the years 1939-1947 were published in 1949-1950. Bibliographie Linguistique is by far the most comprehensive bibliography in the field. It covers all branches of linguistics, both theoretical and descriptive, from all geographical areas, including less known and extinct languages, with particular attention to the many endangered languages of the world. Up-to-date information is guaranteed by the collaboration of some forty contributing specialists from all over the world. With over 20,000 titles arranged according to a detailed state-of-the-art classification, Bibliographie Linguistique remains the standard reference book for every scholar of language and linguistics. Political Communication in

Sub-Saharan Africa, Volume II Isaac Mhute, Esther Mavengano, 2024-12-02. This book is one of two volumes that examines the role of political communication media and language in transforming politics, governance, and democracy in sub-Saharan Africa. Interdisciplinary in approach, this second volume analyses themes including political advertising and rhetoric, activism, populism, fake news, and political violence. Combining theoretical work with individual case studies on countries including Tanzania, South Africa, Zimbabwe, Nigeria, and Ghana, the book highlights the important connection between political communication and governance and the ways in which language reforms can help to overcome challenges related to public administration. It will appeal to all those interested in public policy, public administration, governance, and political communication, as well as linguistics, media studies, and African politics. Multilingual Learning: Assessment,

Ideologies and Policies in Sub-Saharan Africa Colin Reilly, Feliciano Chimbutane, John Clegg, Casmir Rubagumya, Elizabeth J. Erling, 2023-11-30. This edited volume provides the follow-up to Erling et al.'s 2021 Multilingual Learning and Language Supportive Pedagogies in Sub-Saharan Africa. The strategies put forward in Volume 1 included multilingual pedagogies that allow students to draw on their full linguistic repertoires, translanguaging, and other language supportive pedagogies. While there is great traction in the pedagogical strategies proposed in Volume 1, limited progress has been made in terms of multilingual education in Sub-Saharan Africa (SSA). Thus, the main focus of this follow-up volume is to explore the question of why former colonial languages and monolingual approaches continue to be used as the dominant languages of education, even when we have multilingual pedagogies and materials that could and do work, and despite substantial evidence that learners have difficulties when taught in a language they do not understand. This book offers perspectives to answer this question through focusing on the internal and external pressures which impact the capacity for implementing multilingual strategies in educational contexts at regional, national, and community levels. Chapters provide insights into how to better understand and work within these contemporary constraints and challenge dominant monoglossic discourses which inhibit the implementation of multilingual education in SSA. The volume focuses on three main areas which have proven to be stumbling blocks to the effective implementation of multilingual education to date: namely, assessment ideology and policy An insightful collection that will be of great interest to academics researchers and practitioners in the fields of language education language in education policy and educational assessments in the wide range of multilingual contexts in Africa The Numeral Systems of Nigerian Languages Ozo-mekuri Ndimele,S.L. Chan,2016-04-30 The papers in this collection present the numeral systems of more than twenty Nigerian languages The papers mainly emanate from a workshop on the numeral systems of Nigerian languages organised by the Linguistic Association of Nigeria during its 23rd Annual Conference which was held at the University of Port Harcourt Nigeria The workshop arose from awareness created by Dr Eugene S L Chan on the need for Nigerian linguists to document this severely endangered but very important aspect of natural languages The quantum of mathematical computations addition multiplication subtraction or a combination of two or all of these involved in the numeral systems of Nigerian languages is remarkable The papers reveal that a variety of numeral systems do exist such as binary decimal incomplete decimal duodecimal quinary quaternary ternary mixed body part tally systems and much more The book is a resource about how different languages manipulate their numeral systems

Languages in Africa Elizabeth C. Zsiga,One Tlale Boyer,Ruth Kramer,2015-03-03 People in many African communities live within a series of concentric circles when it comes to language In a small group a speaker uses an often unwritten and endangered mother tongue that is rarely used in school A national indigenous language written widespread sometimes used in school surrounds it An international language like French or English a vestige of colonialism carries prestige is used in higher education and promises mobility and yet it will not be well known by its users The essays in Languages in Africa explore the layers of African multilingualism as they affect language policy and education Through case studies ranging across the continent the contributors consider multilingualism in the classroom as well as in domains ranging from music and film to politics and figurative language The contributors report on the widespread devaluing and even death of indigenous languages They also investigate how poor teacher training leads to language related failures in education At the same time they demonstrate that education in a mother tongue can work linguists can use their expertise to provoke changes in language policies and linguistic creativity thrives in these multilingual communities Handbook of Language & Ethnic Identity Joshua A. Fishman,Ofelia García,Oxford University Press,2010 This volume presents a comprehensive introduction to the connection between language and ethnicity The Arts and Indigenous Knowledge Systems in a Modernized Africa Runette Kruger,Rudi de Lange,Ingrid Stevens,2018-12-17 This collection derives from a conference held in Pretoria South Africa and discusses issues of indigenous knowledge systems IKS and the arts It presents ideas about how to promote a deeper understanding of IKS within the arts the development of IKS arts research methodologies and the protection and promotion of IKS in the arts Knowledge embedded in song dance folklore design architecture theatre and attire and the visual arts can promote innovation and entrepreneurship and it can improve communication IKS however exists in a post millennium modernizing Africa It is then the concept of post Africanism that would induce one to think along the lines of a globalized cosmopolitan and essentially modernized Africa The book captures leading trends and ideas that could help to protect promote develop and affirm indigenous knowledge and systems whilst also making room for ideas that do not necessarily oppose IKS but encourage the modernization not Westernization of Africa Political Independence with Linguistic Servitude Samuel Gyasi Obeng, Beverly Hartford, 2002 This book addresses important issues to the democratisation and development initiatives of developing countries In many former colonies the government remains centralised and many in the population are unable to fully participate in its functioning A critical difference between being a subject and a citizen is the ability to partake in governance Such involvement requires knowledge literacy and the availability of literature in local and national languages This book challenges policy makers and scholars to find creative ways of fostering political empowerment through developing language programmes
