Introduction to the Literary Art of the Gospel of John Paul Jaesuk Jo, 2022-05-24 The Gospel of John is a magnificent book Intricate fabrics interweave its beautiful robe and its material is a finely twisted linen of many colors Throughout the history of the church interpreters have long been captivated by its loveliness and power Many modern interpreters however would not hesitate to call it puzzling confusing or ridden with riddles at least What is John is therefore a fascinating question that lingers During the last half century literary theories have been brought into the study of the Fourth Gospel with varying degrees of success New analytical lenses are cast over the Gospel to render its secrets but it feels as if only those who are initiated into its mystery have the knowledge Reading and rereading strategies are offered but the path out of the vast labyrinth is difficult to find The Gospel of John however surprisingly reads much like the Old Testament In fact its form is deeply imbued in the styles of Old Testament poetry narratives and prophets that when they are properly understood together John's message comes across clearly Taking a comprehensive view of the styles of the Old Testament this book takes you to see John in its grand design

The Literariness of Media Art Claudia Benthien, Jordis Lau, Maraike M. Marxsen, 2018-09-21 The beginning of the 20th century saw literary scholars from Russia positing a new definition for the nature of literature Within the framework of Russian Formalism the term literariness was coined The driving force behind this theoretical inquiry was the desire to identify literature and art in general as a way of revitalizing human perception which had been numbed by the automatization of everyday life The transformative power of literariness is made manifest in many media artworks by renowned artists such as Chantal Akerman Mona Hatoum Gary Hill Jenny Holzer William Kentridge

Nalini Malani Bruce Nauman Martha Rosler and Lawrence Weiner The authors use literariness as a tool to analyze the aesthetics of spoken or written language within experimental film video performance moving image installations and other media based art forms This volume uses as its foundation the Russian Formalist school of literary theory with the goal of extending these theories to include contemporary concepts in film and media studies such as Neoformalism intermediality remediation and postdrama
