Languages In British Business An Analysis Of Current Needs:

Languages in British Business Stephen Hagen,1988

Language use in business and commerce in Europe

European Federation of National Institutions for Language. Conference, Gerhard Stickel, 2010 The linguistic domains of business and commerce are especially affected by the economic and communicative globalization Since language use in these domains has an impact on the use of a language in other domains the future development of the European languages will not mainly depend on language internal processes but will increasingly be influenced by the use of English as the international vehicular language The present development in Europe is discussed in several overview articles and a series of reports on the specific situation in various European countries In addition the Lisbon Resolution of EFNIL pointing at the advantages of multilingualism in international business is presented in 26 languages including the 23 official languages of the European Union It calls the EU and its members to acknowledge languages as key factors for economic success also from the perspective of consumers and workers

Aspects of European Cultural Diversity Monica Shelley, Margaret Winck, 2005-06-29

The word Europe is seen and heard constantly in newspapers on television and children are taught about it in school But what does it really mean to us Does it have the same meaning for everyone How does it affect our everyday lives Do we consider ourselves to be Europeans and what does that mean in practice This book concentrates on aspects of European cultural diversity The four essays included deal with language education the mass media and everyday culture The issues under discussion are those that strongly influence the way in which we define our common everyday identity They are also issues which determine our access to opportunities of different kinds The book is designed to enable readers to identify those factors which make them and their own environment unique and to place themselves within the context of everyday Europe

Issues in Modern

Foreign Languages Teaching K. Field, 2004-08-02 Issues in Modern Foreign Languages Teaching draws together a range of issues in the teaching of modern foreign languages into one volume that will encourage students and newly qualified teachers to consider and reflect on the issues so that they can make a reasoned and informed judgement about their teaching of MFL It will be relevant for students and newly qualified teachers at both primary and secondary level and will fill a gap in their knowledge due to time constraints and an emphasis on standards on ITT and PGCE courses Diversificatn Mod

Lang Teachng David Phillips, Caroline Filmer-Sankey, 2005-08-04 First published in 1993 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Language Planning from Practice to Theory Robert B. Kaplan, Richard B. Baldauf, 1997-01-01 Language Planning from Practice to Theory examines and reviews the field of language policy and planning In the first section of the book language policy and planning definitions current practices goals and ways of thinking are discussed as a foundation for understanding current practice in the discipline The central elements of language policy and planning practice are then described from two perspectives In the second section the methodology for collecting language planning data is outlined and the key cross societal issues of language in education planning literacy and economics in language planning are discussed In the third section case studies related to language and power bilingualism and status and specific purpose issues in language planning are covered The final two chapters draw together the critical issues and problems which have arisen from current practice and which must be considered in building a theory of the discipline A reference appendix to language planning in national situations is included The book provides the only up to date overview and review of the field of language policy and planning and challenges language planners to think more critically about their discipline Since language will be planned there is a need to consider how it will be done The Position of the German Language in the World Ulrich Ammon, 2019-08-08 The Position of the German Language in the World focuses on the global position of German and the factors which work towards sustaining its use and utility for international communication From the perspective of the global language constellation the detailed data analysis of this substantial research project depicts German as an example of a second rank language The book also provides a model for analysis and description of international languages other than English It offers a framework for strengthening the position of languages such as Arabic Chinese French Portuguese Spanish and others and for countering exaggerated claims about the global monopoly position of English This comprehensive handbook of the state of the German language in the world was originally published in 2015 by Walter de Gruyter in German and has been critically acclaimed Suitable for scholars and researchers of the German language the handbook shows in detail how intricately and thoroughly German and other second rank languages are tied up with a great number of societies and how these statistics support or weaken the languages functions and maintenance Writing Business Francesca Bargiela-Chiappini, Catherine Nickerson, 2014-06-11 Writing Business Genres Media and Discourses offers an analysis of the genres and functions of written discourse in the business context involving a variety of modes of communication The evolution of new forms of writing is a key focus of this collection and is only partly attributable to the ever increasing application of technology at work Alongside machine mediated texts such as electronic mail and computer generated correspondence the contextualised analyses of both traditional genres such as facsimiles and direct mailing and of lesser studied texts such as invitations for bids contracts business magazines and ceremonial speeches reveal a rich complexity in the forms of communication evolved by organisations and the individuals who work within them in response to the demands of the social organisational and cultural contexts in which they operate This rich textual variation is matched by a discussion of a range of methodological approaches to the development of business writing skills including rhetorical analysis organisational communication analysis social constructionism genre analysis and survey and experimental methods Using authentic data and benefiting from a fresh interdisciplinary approach the volume will be of interest to students and researchers of business communication Language for Specific Purposes LSP English for Specific Purposes ESP and sociolinguistics

Diversification in Modern Language Teaching Caroline Filmer-Sankey, David Phillips, 2023-04-21 As the effects of European integration become more widely felt the effective teaching of modern languages is moving towards the centre of the educational agenda and more and more schools are considering starting pupils on a first foreign language other than French a development encouraged by the National Curriculum orders in Modern Languages Diversification in Modern Language Teaching gives language teachers and heads of department the evidence upon which to decide if diversification is right for them It looks at the factors which effect children s learning in this area and at the managerial issues both within and outside the school Throughout it argues that the decision must be a purely educational one based on pupil motivation and accessibility as well as on particular local strengths among staff and parents

Balance-of-Payments Theory and the United Kingdom Experience Heather D. Gibson, A.P. Thirlwall, 2016-07-27 Contains a statement of balance of payments accounting and a critical appraisal of balance of payments adjustment theory The book also features chapters on the capital account of balance of payments and the theory of exchange rate determination in the United Kingdom
