Freedom Strike:

Human Strike and the Art of Creating Freedom Claire Fontaine, 2020-12-29 The first English language publication of writings by the collective artist Claire Fontaine addressing our complicity with anything that limits our freedom This anthology presents in chronological order all the texts by collective artist Claire Fontaine from 2004 to today Created in 2004 in Paris by James Thornhill and Fulvia Carnevale the collective artist Clare Fontaine creates texts that are as experimental and politically charged as her visual practice In these writings she uses the concept of human strike and adopts the radical feminist position that can be found in Tiqqun a two issue magazine cofounded by Carnevale Human strike is a movement that is broader and more radical than any general strike It addresses our inevitable subjective complicity with everything that limits our freedom and shows how to abandon these self destructive behaviors through desubjectivization Human strike Claire Fontaine writes is a subjective struggle to separate from the inevitable harm we do to ourselves and others simply by living within postindustrial neoliberalism Human Strike is the first English language publication of Claire Fontaine's influential and important theoretical writings

Political Freedom Howard Davis, 2000-01-01 Howard Davis looks at how the presence of political motives when balanced against other motives affects the legal character of the action and asks why common law and statute should differentiate the political from the nonpolitical An original and important contribution to the debate on the nature of an effective democracy and the legal rules necessary to establish and sustain it

Regulating Strikes in Essential Services Moti (Mordehai) Mironi, Monika Schlachter, 2018-11-09 Designing a fair effective and acceptable regime that will reconcile public interest and the public's need for an uninterrupted flow of essential services on the one hand while maintaining the freedom of collective bargaining on the other is an ever more difficult public policy challenge This book the first detailed comparative analysis of existing legal and practical approaches across a spectrum of key national jurisdictions provides a structured and insightful overview of the law and practice of regulating strikes in essential services As such it can be of great value for public policy debate and the enhancement of national law in the field The editors have assembled experts from fourteen countries who describe and analyse their respective country s experience with strikes in essential services and the legislative and judicial as well as informal approaches towards regulating and intervening in such strikes Departing from legal theory with systematic comparative law in action research the contributors offer innumerable valuable insights into a broad array of issues and topics as the following mechanisms aiming at compensating employees for encroaching on their collective bargaining rights public accountability and responsible management of public finance role of international conventions effects of globalization and advances in technology privatization outsourcing and the decline of unions and workers solidarity growing popular intolerance towards strikes in essential services effect of human rights related court decisions convergence and divergence among contemporary legal regimes in defining and approaching strikes in essential services dispute process design and dispute resolution processes mediation conciliation and arbitration and substantive and procedural restrictions on the right to organize bargain collectively and strike The country reports are preceded by a detailed analysis of the inherent normative policy dilemma and a conceptual framework for designing and evaluating models of regulation The concluding chapter presents a comparative overview of the insights gained With its comparative perspective on one of the most sensitive areas of industrial relations and labour law and its contextually relevant options for strategic choice and public policy debate this incomparable volume will be welcomed by labour lawyers legislators policy makers judicial bodies and researchers in the field of collective labour relations and fundamental human rights of workers on the national as well as international level The New Freedom William A. Donohue, 2021-09-28 The root cause of contemporary American psychological and social disorders argues William Donohue in this major new book is the dominant culture s embracement of a fraudulent conception of freedom In fact the tension between an individual liberty without limits and the social need for civility and community has created havoc in the lives of many Americans Conventional wisdom about the nature of freedom is characterized by both the uncoupling of a concept of rights from a concept of responsibilities and by an overweening doctrine of moral neutrality This preoccupation with individual liberty to the neglect of other competing values has left a trail of social discord that will be difficult to redress Constraint of any kind is now seen as the enemy of liberty and all that limits or burdens the individual in any way is seen as anathema to freedom The New Freedom critically examines how this new concept of freedom developed historically and why it exploded on the American scene in the 1960s Its impact on the deepest recesses of American society including marriage the family sexuality the schools the churches and the criminal justice system are fully explored The costs have been high

Information on the psychological and social health of Americans suggests that all is not well But the ultimate cost says Qonohue may be the ultimate failure of liberty as the fraudulent new freedom collides with the human need for community Sure to be controversial The New Freedom will provide policymakers social scientists and specialists in the family education and religion a compelling new perspective on old questions The book will also appeal to general readers who seek to understand the root causes of the nation s unprecedented volume of social and psychological problems The Chicago Freedom Movement Mary Lou Finley, Bernard LaFayette Jr., James R. Ralph Jr., Pam Smith, 2016-04-22 Six months after the Selma to Montgomery marches and just weeks after the passage of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 a group from Martin Luther King Jr s staff arrived in Chicago eager to apply his nonviolent approach to social change in a northern city Once there King s Southern Christian Leadership Conference SCLC joined the locally based Coordinating Council of Community Organizations CCCO to form the Chicago Freedom Movement The open housing demonstrations they organized eventually resulted in a controversial agreement with Mayor Richard J Daley and other city leaders the fallout of which has historically led some to conclude that the movement was largely ineffective In this important volume an eminent team of scholars and activists offer an alternative assessment of the Chicago Freedom Movement s impact on race relations and social justice both in the city and across the nation Building upon recent works the contributors reexamine the movement and illuminate its lasting contributions in order to challenge conventional perceptions that have underestimated its impressive legacy Free Trade & Freedom Karla Slocum, 2006 Considers the relationship between market liberalization social movements and everyday forms and narratives of work Domains of Freedom Thembela Kepe, Melissa Levin, Bettina von Lieres, 2016-09-12 After more than 20 years of freedom in South Africa we have to ask ourselves difficult questions are we willing to perpetuate a lie search for facts or think wishfully Freedom has been enabled by apartheid s end but at the same time some of apartheid s key institutions and social relations are reproduced under the guise of democracy This collection of essays acknowledges the enormous expectations placed on the shoulders of the South African revolution to produce an alternative political regime in response to apartheid and global neo liberalism It does not lament the inability of South Africa s democracy to provide deeper freedoms or suggest that since it hasn t this is some form of betrayal Freedom is made possible and or limited by local political choices contemporary global conditions and the complexities of social change This book explores the multiplicity of spaces within which the dynamics of social change unfold and the complex ways in which power is produced and reproduced In this way it seeks to understand the often non linear practices through which alternative possibilities emerge the lengthy and often indirect ways in which new communities are imagined and new solidarities are built In this sense this book is not a collection of hope or despair Nor is it a book that seeks to situate itself between these two poles Instead it aims to read the present historically critically and politically and to offer insights into the ongoing iterative and often messy struggles for freedom Joint Force Quarterly , 2008 Red Road to Freedom Tom Lodge, 2022 Definitive and gripping narrative history of the Communist Party of South Africa Land and Freedom Joseph Dana Miller,1901 Experiences of Freedom in Postcolonial Literatures and Cultures Annalisa Oboe,Shaul Bassi,2011-03-30 Modern ideas of freedom and human rights have been repeatedly contested and are hotly debated at the beginning of the third millennium in response to new theories needs and challenges in contemporary life This volume offers culturally diverse contributions to the debate on freedom from the literatures and arts of the postcolonial world exploring experiences that evoke desire imagine and perform freedom across five continents and two centuries of history Experiences of Freedom opens with an introductory philosophical essay by Achille Mbembe and is divided into four sections that consider resisting history and colonialism the right to move and to belong the right to believe in free futures imaginative freedom and critical engagement Each section contains a piece of creative writing directly connected to these topics from authors Chris Abani Anita Desai Caryl Phillips and Alexis Wright followed by a selection of critical essays Contributors Chris Abani Rochelle Almeida Gil Anidjar Jogamaya Bayer Elena Bernardini Anne Collett Carmen Concilio Paola Della Valle Roberto Derobertis Anita Desai Lorna Down Francesca Giommi Gareth Griffiths Dave Gunning John C Hawley Peter H Marsden Russell McDougall Achille Mbembe Cinzia Mozzato Kevin Newmark Berndt Ostendorf Mai Palmberg Owen Percy Kirsten Holst Petersen Caryl Phillips Annel Pieterse Christiane Schlote Nermeen Shaikh Patrick Williams Alexis Wright and Robert J C Young S. 1868, the International Religious Freedom Act of 1998 United States.
