

French Town

Kenneth Meyer Setton

French Town:

Frenchtown, New Jersey: Robert Rando & Caroline Scutt, 2015 Frenchtown is a picturesque community on the banks of the Delaware River. In the late 1700s a series of land sales to French speaking Swiss gave the town its name. The river fostered the town's growth throughout the nineteenth century bringing railroads and successful businesses like Frenchtown Porcelain Works. Remnants of this industrial past are still visible in places like the Delaware and Raritan Canal State Park. Visitors and locals admire historic landmarks along Bridge Street including the Frenchtown Inn and the Hummer Building. Annual celebrations like Bastille Day and RiverFest celebrate the town's home and heritage. Local authors Robert Rando and Caroline Scutt commemorate the unique history of this bucolic New Jersey community. The Frenchtown Project Thomas A. Latousek, 1995 Frenchtown Chronicles of Prairie du Chien Mary Elise Antoine, Lucy Eldersveld Murphy, 2016-09-23 Albert Coryer the grandson of a fur trade voyageur turned farmer had a gift for storytelling. Born in 1877 he grew up in Prairie du Chien hearing tales of days gone by from his parents, grandparents and neighbors who lived in the Frenchtown area. Throughout his life Albert soaked up the local oral traditions including narratives about early residents, local landmarks, interesting and funny events, ethnic customs, myths and folklore. Late in life this lively man who had worked as a farm laborer and janitor drew a detailed illustrated map of the Prairie du Chien area and began to write his stories out longhand in addition to sharing them in an interview with a local historian and folklore scholar. The map, stories and interview transcript provide a colorful account of Prairie du Chien in the late nineteenth century when it was undergoing significant demographic, social and economic change. With sharp historical context provided by editors Lucy Eldersveld Murphy and Mary Elise Antoine, Coryer's tales offer an unparalleled window into the ethnic community comprised of the old fur trade families: Native Americans, French Canadian farmers and their descendants. A History of the Crusades, Volume IV Kenneth Meyer Setton, 1977-09 This work contains information and analysis of the history, politics, economics and culture of the medieval world. The six volumes stand as a history of the Crusades spanning five centuries encompassing Jewish, Muslim and Christian perspectives. Lippincott's Pronouncing Gazetteer. ... Joseph Thomas, Thomas Baldwin, 1857 Europe - What's in a Name Peter H. Gommers, 2001 Europe is a word that is almost daily on our lips. But how far do we have to go back in order to find the origins of its name? The first part of this beautifully illustrated book traces the geographical and mythological basis of Europe's name. Who came up with the idea to distinguish the world in continents with proper names? The search will bring the reader back to the early history of mankind. How did the ancient Egyptians see the world and populations around them? Where did the Hebrews get the idea to split the world in three? And what was the world picture in ancient Greece laid down in geographic treatises and fragments? Where did the name Europe originate from? Could it be from a person, either mortal or divine? In ancient Greek literature the name Europa appears quite frequently for Greek goddesses and Greek women. Strangely enough the best known Europa myth concerns a Phoenician princess loved by the Greek god Zeus. Many mythographs doubt the Asian descent of the Phoenician Europa Is her real origin to be located on mainland Greece How can the contradicting Greek myths be interpreted and was the name universally accepted as the name for the continent In the second part of this book the author tells the amazing story of how the Arts have treated the Europa myths for almost three millennia He shows the extraordinary influence of the personification of the geographic continent Europe on literature music sculpture painting tapestry and other applied arts All this clearly demonstrates the vivid interest in Europe for the subject throughout the ages and illustrates according to Karel van Miert in his Foreword our common European culture Lolo National Forest (N.F.), Frenchtown Face Ecosystem Restoration ,2006 Lippincott's Gazetteer of the World ,1880 A History of the Crusades Kenneth M.
