Frenchmen A Photographic Interview With:

The Frenchman Philippe Halsman, 2005 Making faces a highly original visual Q A with France's most beloved comic actor In New York in 1948 photographer Philippe Halsman had a chance meeting with Fernandel a French movie star from the vaudeville tradition and asked the actor to participate in a completely original photographic experiment Halsman would ask Fernandel questions about America to which he would respond using only facial expressions With his wide lovable horse face Fernandel mimicked the answers to such questions as Does the average Frenchman still pinch pretty girls in a crowd silly grin and What was your reaction to the great American game of baseball perplexed Fernandel's reactions are laugh out loud funny and the book that resulted from this unusual collaboration is nothing short of wonderful The Frenchman has been out of print for over fifty years but TASCHEN's reprint thankfully brings it back to life

The Frenchman Philippe Halsman, Fernandel, 1949 Theorising the Artist Interview Lucia Farinati, Jennifer Thatcher, 2024-08-29 Reflecting on the relationship between artists and their audiences this book examines how artists have presented themselves publicly through interviews and sought to establish a critical voice for themselves Considering the interview as a form of cultural production contributors explore the criteria for determining the artist interview as a distinct field of research in relation to other cultural fields Structured in four parts History and Historiography Subverting the Biographical Model Interviews as Practice and Materiality and Technology the book takes an interdisciplinary approach that encompasses the fields of art history fine art oral history curating media studies and museum conservation By theorising the artist interview as a form of cultural production and embracing it as a co constructed critical practice this volume aims to show and encourage an approach to art history which dismantles old hierarchies in favour of valuing dialogue and collaboration The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history museum studies oral history and historiography

The Frenchman Philippe Halsman, 1949 Philippe Halsman. the Frenchman, 2015 When photographer Philippe Halsman met French movie star Fernandel he struck upon a genius idea If Fernandel spoke no English but possessed one of the most expressive faces he had encountered why not run an interview with him in which faces not words determined every answer Through furrowed brows and twinkling eyes stony stares and Communication in History Peter Urquhart, Paul Heyer, 2024-01-26 Comprehensive history of communication from antiquity to the present comprised of essential texts of communication scholarship contextualized and supported by original material Core or supplementary text for courses in Communication History Media History or Introduction to Communication courses in departments of Communication Media History and Cultural Studies New materials to this edition link communication to larger historical contexts and increase the book's coverage of digital media social issues and non Western contexts New case studies explore the Black Press the impact of photography on journalism gender and civil rights discourses in the media and the effects of algorithmic data on modern social media platforms The French in Love and War Charles Rearick, 1997-01-01 Describes developments in French popular culture between 1914 and 1945 and argues that the harsh times led to the emergence of images glorifying the common Frenchman in songs film and popular literature

Getting the Picture Jason E. Hill,Vanessa R. Schwartz,2020-09-08 Powerful and often controversial news pictures promise to make the world at once immediate and knowable Yet while many great writers and thinkers have evaluated photographs of atrocity and crisis few have sought to set these images in a broader context by defining the rich and diverse history of news pictures in their many forms For the first time this volume defines what counts as a news picture how pictures are selected and distributed where they are seen and how we critique and value them Presenting the best new thinking on this fascinating topic this book considers the news picture over time from the dawn of the illustrated press in the nineteenth century through photojournalism s heyday and the rise of broadcast news and newsreels in the twentieth century and into today s digital platforms It examines the many kinds of images sport fashion society celebrity war catastrophe and exoticism and many mediums including photography painting wood engraving film and video Packed with the best research and full colour illustrations throughout this book will appeal to students and readers interested in how news and history are key sources of our rich visual culture Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series
