Introducing Liberation Theology:

Introducing Liberation Theology Leonardo Boff, 1987      Introducing Black Theology of Liberation Hopkins, Dwight N., 2014-04-10 A book that reviews the principles of modern Black Theology its roots and contributions to the Christian world It also discusses what challenges Black theologians face in their minister and their religious communities      SCM

Studyguide: Theology in the Contemporary World Ben Pugh, 2017-11-30 No sooner have they mastered the basics than students of theology can quickly find themselves in over their heads They are bombarded with claim and counter claim as soon as they want to tackle anything topical The contentious subjects tend to be the historical Jesus gender and sexuality or the atonement Other subjects might be less contentious but attract an astonishing excess of literature Take the vast literature tackling the subject of the Church for instance or the bloated body of tomes on various aspects of Pneumatology This book tries to provide the bewildered and intimidated student with a primer that is at once introductory and incisive approachable and informative It will help those training for ministry to recover their fascination for the subject of theology and how it could apply to their future ministry Subjects covered include The Quests for the Historical Jesus Third Article Theology The Missional Church Liberation Theology Feminist LGBT and Queer Approaches Postmodern Faith and the Emerging Church Nonviolent Atonement      Peculiar Discipleship Claire Williams, 2023-06-30 This is not a theology of neurodiversity It is a theology from neurodiversity In her ground breaking and daring theological exploration Claire Williams considers how the experience of God for an autistic person challenges and interrogates our normal theologies about knowing God Demonstrating how her autistic perspective offers a distinct and fresh hermeneutical lens Williams shows that a liberation theology of neurodiversity can gift the church a new way of understanding worship practice ethics and even the nature of Christian hope itself      Voices from the Borderland Chris Shannahan, 2016-04-01 Urban theology affirms the importance of context notably the place of the city in theological reflection However it has often been confined to particular contexts or theological camps and thus failed to engage with the fluidity of contemporary urban societies Voices from the Borderland presents an overview of urban theology arguing that the twenty first century demands a dialogical model of theology that enacts progressive change The volume draws on studies of the multicultural and multi faith British urban experience and situates these within the wider international context The works of influential theologians in the field are examined and the dialogue between theology globalisation post colonialism postmodernism and post religious urban culture critically explored The volume is unique in bringing together urban liberation theology urban black theology reformist urban theology globalisation urban theology and post religious urban theology      Contextual Theology Sigurd Bergmann, Mika Vähäkangas, 2020-11-01 This book advances that history by exploring stories images and discourses across a worldwide range of geographical cultural and confessional contexts Its twelve authors not only enrich our understanding of the significance of the contextual method but also produce a new range of original ways of doing theology in contemporary situations The authors discuss some prioritised thematic perspectives with an emphasis on liberating paths and expand the ongoing discussion on the methodology of theology into new areas Themes such as interreligious plurality global capitalism ecumenical liberation theology eco anxiety and the anthropocene postcolonialism gender neo pentecostalism world theology and reconciliation are examined in situated depth Additionally voices from Indigenous lands Latin America Asia Africa Australia and Europe and North America enter into a dialogue on what it means to contextualise theology in an increasingly globalised and ever changing world Such a comprehensive discussion of new ways of thinking about and doing contextual theology will be of great use to scholars in Theology Religious Studies Cultural Studies Political Science Gender Studies Environmental Humanities and Global Studies

Towards A Pentecostal Theology of Praxis John Mark

Robeck,2021-03-24 This book outlines a Pentecostal theology of praxis while also providing a concrete example of how such a theology is fleshed out By investigating various elements of Pentecostal and Liberation theologies and highlighting various similarities and differences between the two camps John Mark Robeck constructs a framework through which a Pentecostal theology of praxis might be observed Taking a step further he offers a case study of three Pentecostal churches in El Salvador as an example of how such a theology is lived out Robeck examines the lives of the pastors of these congregations the engagement of these congregations in activities of social engagement that serve to bring about various forms of liberation as well as the participation of the congregations and their communities in transformative actions which serve to bring about real change

World Christianity Graham Joseph Hill,2024-10-08 World Christianity An Introduction provides an accessible introduction to the discipline methodology and field of world Christianity In this book Graham Joseph Hill engages with more than one hundred high profile Majority World and First Nations Christian leaders to learn what they can teach the West about mission leadership hospitality creation care education worship and more Hill challenges the Western church to move away from a Eurocentric and Americentric view of church and mission and he calls for the church to engage with crucial paradigm shifts in world Christianity The future of the global church including the churches in the West exists in these global exchanges World Christianity is an indispensable guide for the church as it navigates the unique global experiences of the twenty first century

Competing for Caesar Chammah J. Kaunda,Marja Hinfelaar,2020-11-03

Competing for Caesar brings together for the first time key scholars working on various issues related to religion and public life in Zambia They explore the interplay between religion and politics in Zambian society and how these religions manage and negotiate their identities in public life This book analyzes recent religious dynamics in the nation s political life and considers what constructive role religion could play to promote an alternative political vision to subvert neo colonialism Competing for Caesar carries forward a unique commitment on the part of Fortress Press to engage with the challenges and opportunities of Christianity in the Global South The book will be of interest to scholars professors and students in a wide range of fields

Christianity: A Brief Survey Michael D. Robinson,2022-05-13 Christianity is a way of life centered on the person life teaching death and resurrection of Jesus the Christ As a religious way of life Christianity is multifaceted involving numerous beliefs and practices This book explores many of the varied facets of the Christian faith including its foundations in the story of Israel the person of Jesus the early Christian community and the sacred text called the Bible In turn Robinson s book examines Christianity s core doctrines ethical norms and worship practices rounding out the study by considering four key contemporary challenges faced by Christian believers namely the problem of evil the relationship of Christianity to other religions and to science and the role of women in church and society Among the strengths of this book is that it addresses these multiple features of Christianity in a single volume it is aptly titled Christianity A Brief Survey      The Business

Francis Means Martin Schlag,2017-11-08 An overview of Pope Francis s teachings on money and morality that bridges the gap between political sides Pope Francis generally speaking has thus far chosen to concentrate his papacy on social justice issues as opposed to doctrinal or liturgical issues This has led to Francis being hailed as a hero to many on the left while it has made some conservative supporters of St John Paul II and Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI disappointed and uncomfortable even as they love and appreciate his person and gestures of mercy and compassion Some find his teachings difficult to embrace especially those concerning business and the economy Pope Francis has spoken of building bridges as part of what it is to be Christian but aspects of his message seem to be just constructing walls between the Holy Father and groups of the faithful The Business Francis Means aims to break through these walls showing that Pope Francis has something to say to all Christians His message taken as a whole keeps us from dividing the seamless garment of Christ he reminds the conservatives of the problems of inequality and poverty and the liberals that social justice is not enough the Church is the bride of Christ not a social institution or an NGO Martin Schlag summarizes and explains the message of Pope Francis on business and the economy in this compact volume The Business Francis Means will be of great interest to the Catholic layperson especially one involved in political or economic life      Safari Based Theology

Dr. Enos Lwamba,2012-12-21 In Safari based Theology Dr Enos Lwamba has developed an approach to theology and mission based on his proposed safari motif for the development of theology and mission Based on his Ph D dissertation The Safari Motif in the Development of Theology in Africa Dr Lwamba argues that God has used a series of divine redemptive safaris in the Bible to reveal Himself progressively to people The author develops his proposed motif around a tri dimensional conception of reality and time and explores a threefold aspect of the safari mwanzo sasa and mwisho which provide keys to the African mindset He explores the various meanings and uses of the safari idea from both a biblical and theological perspective In addition to the literal safaris journey is an analogy of the church and believers are on a divine safari individually and collectively The safari model highlights the absolute necessity of the biblical message and the contextual situation to help Christians live effective and fruitful lives in society now and in future Inspired by both John Mbitis The African Concept of Time and Paul Hieberts The Flaw of the Excluded Middle the author utilizes biblical theological historical and contextual sources to make his point In the philosophical aspect of the safari

the author develops his notion of an African conception of time modeled on the cultural safari idea which he relates to development of theology and mission He refutes the western influenced or commercially based notion that safari refers to a game hunting or tourist expedition to Africa Dr Lwamba promotes the argument that the philosophical framework and methodology drawn from the safari approach provides a more effective way of doing theology and mission in Africa and other contextual situations He also draws parallels to the safari concept from such sources as Augustines City of God John Bunyans The Pilgrims Progress and others in a refreshing and original style that the reader will find engaging The motif provides interpretational and practical application tools as it harmonizes the unity of the biblical message Its practical appeal makes Safari Based Theology a must read for Christians and others interested in their daily journey of faith The author contends that just as the idea of logos described the mindset conception of divine truth and aspirations of the Greek mind the concept of safari does the same for the African This book is highly recommended for pastors missionaries and teachers as well as students of Bible and theology culture and missions and other related disciplines

Theologies of the 21st Century David L. Smith, 2014-10-02 What theologies are popular and formative of Christian thinking in the present day How should they be assessed by those Christians who want to be in the world without being of the world Theologies of the 21st Century begins with an overview of the historical roots from which current theological thinking has developed and then moves on to a detailed evaluation of the chief doctrinal and practical emphases taking an evangelical biblical perspective that seeks to be at once both critical and irenic

Baby, You are My Religion Marie Cartier, 2014-09-11 Baby You Are My Religion argues that American butch femme bar culture of the mid 20th Century should be interpreted as a sacred space for its community Before Stonewall when homosexuals were still deemed mentally ill these bars were the only place where many could have any community at all Baby You are My Religion explores this community as a site of a lived corporeal theology and political space It reveals that religious institutions such as the Metropolitan Community Church were founded in such bars that traditional and non traditional religious activities took place there and that religious ceremonies such as marriage were often conducted within the bars by staff Baby You are My Religion examines how these bars became not only ecclesiastical sites but also provided the fertile ground for the birth of the struggle for gay and lesbian civil rights before Stonewall

The Role of Women's Experience in Feminist Theologies of Atonement Linda D. Peacore, 2010-03-11 A strong critique of traditional atonement theology is found in the work of many contemporary feminist theologians This approach in large part is related to the notion of women s experience a category that is used widely within feminist theology But what is women s experience and how does it affect feminist theology particularly views on the atonement The category of women s experience is pivotal to feminist theology yet its use may lead to models of atonement that place excessive stress upon the subjective element of Christ s saving work thereby neglecting to address adequately the objective aspects of the cross This book focuses on the methodological issues regarding the category of women s experience generally its definition and use in feminist theology with a more detailed analysis of its use in the context of feminist theologies of atonement Utilizing the work of a wide variety of feminist theologians in conversation with theologies of experience this work attempts to understand the role of women s experience as it shapes feminist views on the atonement noting the strengths and limitations of feminist approaches to soteriology Faithful Exchange David W. Opderbeck,2025-06-24 Debates about capitalism versus socialism reflect a deep divide in American society in both the broader culture and the church While those attracted to liberation theology radical orthodoxy and some kinds of Anabaptist theologies support forms of socialism many others continue to believe capitalism is the best real world option Among serious theologians as well as at the popular level the debate suffers from misunderstandings and mischaracterizations of how different economic systems function and how those systems relate to higher ethical and legal principles These misunderstandings and mischaracterizations in turn fuel overly confident pronouncements about what the biblical witness and the Christian tradition say about possible forms of economic life Faithful Exchange offers a careful review of the biblical and historical materials and a critical appraisal of the current debate The book does not recommend either capitalism or socialism as a preferred form of economic order but rather suggests perspectives from Christian theology that provide both prophetic critique of and missional engagement with various economic structures in cultural and historical context An Emancipatory Pedagogy of Jesus Terrelle B. Sales,2021-06-28 An Emancipatory Pedagogy of Jesus Toward a Decolonizing Epistemology of Education and Theology is an in depth analysis on the emancipatory power of love exhibited and exemplified in the life pedagogy and praxis of Jesus Christ This book takes its reader on an intellectual and spiritual journey that uncovers the importance of how culture identity development spirituality and ethnicity are essential elements in the intellectual academic and spiritual development of Black bi cultural and indigenous students teachers educational leaders and researchers who have traditionally been oppressed and marginalized It courageously presents Jesus Christ as the quintessential critical educator who Himself was also bi cultural marginalized and oppressed This book provides a unique perspective on Jesus the Teacher Oftentimes scholarship seeks to examine only the ethics and teachings of Jesus however this work looks to unearth the emancipatory power of the pedagogy of Jesus and its foundational contributions to social movements such as Liberation Theology in Latin America and the fight for Justice and Civil Rights for African Americans here in North America By examining both the theological and pedagogical offerings of Jesus this book seeks to determine not only what can be learned from a critical pedagogy of Jesus but more importantly who benefits most from engaging in His praxis Through Jesus masterful integration of theology and pedagogy He is presented as the literal embodiment of the spiritual physical and intellectual liberation from all forms of oppression It is in Jesus emancipatory pedagogy where both theology and education find their greatest fulfillment through an emancipatory praxis for liberation ultimately resulting in a pedagogy that reconciles humanity back to God and God to humanity

Theology without Words Wayne Morris,2016-02-17 This book is a study of a Christian theology without words focussing on theology in the Deaf Community Deaf people's first and preferred method of communication is not English or any other spoken language but British Sign Language a language that cannot be written down Deaf people of faith attend church on a regular basis profess faith in God and have developed unique approaches to doing theology While most Western theology is word centred and is either expressed through or dependent on written texts theology in the Deaf Community is largely non written This book presents and examines some of that theology from the Deaf Community and argues that written texts are not necessary for creative theological debate a deep spirituality or for ideas about God to develop The Ubuntu God Samuel A. Paul, 2009-01-01 In 1948 the Afrikaner Nationalist Government became the ruling party in South Africa and instituted the brutal system known as apartheid To maintain their power Afrikaners drew on Christian scripture and traditions to create self justifying religious narratives that supported their oppressive ideologies prohibiting inclusion and suppressing pluralism In time these Afrikaner Christian narratives began to unravel as counter narratives within the Christian tradition influenced the Black church to demand equality and democracy This socio political and cultural transformation is best understood and interpreted through the vision of ubuntu a mode of thought in African culture that places a value on humanity in community and shifts the focus from singularity to plurality in South African society In The Ubuntu God Samuel A Paul traces how the dismantling of apartheid led to recognition of the religious other the recovery of alternate narratives and the reappearance of ubuntu perspective and practice in the political and public sphere After the peaceful transition to a democratically elected government the Truth and Reconciliation Commission created a platform for multiple voices stories and religious narratives to be shared in a public political context This multiplicity of voices resulted ultimately in the formation of a new constitution for South Africa that sought to uphold African values of community and inclusion in its institutions While South Africa's apartheid system and the Truth and Reconciliation Commission are both rooted in the biblical narrative the former used its theology to enforce an iron rule while the latter combined Christian and African concepts to create a pluralistic and open society Such a society is characterized by a culture that emphasizes communality and interdependence Mission as Accompaniment Brian E. Konkol, 2017-06-15 Mechanistic dehumanization occurs when human beings are objectified and exploited as a means to an end comparable to expendable components of a machine This misconstruction of human value is a source and sustainer of overproduction an excess of consumption and the pursuit of unrestrained economic growth damaging both people and the planet Can the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America ELCA Global Mission respond to mechanistic dehumanization through mission as accompaniment The notion of mission as accompaniment which emerges from liberation theology and development methodology promotes solidarity among church companions that embodies interdependence and mutuality Grounded in the New Testament expression of koinonia Mission as Accompaniment is affirmed in this study as a suitable foundation to counteract mechanistic dehumanization Through this research with the University of KwaZulu Natal South Africa Theology and Development program Brian E Konkol incorporates economics ecology anthropology and postcolonial missiology He maintains that two particular elements the African concept of Ubuntu and an Olive Agenda when integrated into mission as accompaniment will equip the ELCA Global Mission with an advocacy driven trajectory in response to mechanistic dehumanization
