Francesca Masciarelli, Luiss Guido Carli, 2017 The Business of Reading Julian Lovelock, 2022-02-24 In The Business of Reading Julian Lovelock charts the development of the English novel over the past hundred years. Smuggling in titles from Scotland, Ireland, and the Caribbean, he focuses on twenty texts written since the end of the First World War, some well known but others less so, placing them in their historical context. Novelists represented range from D. H. Lawrence, E. M. Forster, and Virginia Woolf through Graham Greene, Kingsley Amis, and Iris Murdoch to such contemporary writers as Ian McEwan, Maggie O'Farrell, and Graham Swift. Written in a lucid style that reflects his expertise and enthusiasm, Lovelock's innovative selection, perceptive analysis, and lightness of touch will appeal to the general reader, the book club member, and the student. He argues that our response as readers is an important part of the creative process, and while he mainly avoids the criticalisms that have characterised recent academic debate, he introduces such concepts as intertextuality, metafiction, and the role of the often unreliable narrator, showing how an appreciation of the way the language of fiction works can only add to our understanding and enjoyment. Business Brian K. Williams, Susan Berston, Stacey C. Sawyer, 2012-02-27 ALERT Before you purchase, check with your instructor or review your course syllabus to ensure that you select the correct ISBN.
