A Companion to the Etruscans

Sinclair Bell, Alexandra A. Carpino, 2016-02-23 This new collection presents a rich selection of innovative scholarship on the Etruscans a vibrant independent people whose distinct civilization flourished in central Italy for most of the first millennium BCE and whose artistic social and cultural traditions helped shape the ancient Mediterranean European and Classical worlds Includes contributions from an international cast of both established and emerging scholars Offers fresh perspectives on Etruscan art and culture including analysis of the most up to date research and archaeological discoveries Reassesses and evaluates traditional topics like architecture wall painting ceramics and sculpture as well as new ones such as textile archaeology while also addressing themes that have yet to be thoroughly investigated in the scholarship such as the obesus etruscus the function and use of jewelry at different life stages Greek and Roman topoi about the Etruscans the Etruscans reception of ponderation and more Counters the claim that the Etruscans were culturally inferior to the Greeks and Romans by emphasizing fields where the Etruscans were either technological or artistic pioneers and by reframing similarities in style and iconography as examples of Etruscan agency and reception rather than as a deficit of local creativity

Modern Etruscans Chiara Zampieri, Martina Piperno, Bart Van den Bossche, 2023-10-16 L. Truie est la mode French archaeologist Salomon Reinach bluntly stated in 1927 Since the beginning of the nineteenth century Etruria had not only been attracting the attention of archaeologists and specialists of all sorts but it had also been a fascinating and in some cases captivating destination for poets novelists painters and sculptors from all over Europe This volume deals with the impact of the constantly expanding knowledge on the Etruscans and their mysterious civilisation on Italian French English and German literature arts and culture with particular regard to the modernist period 1890-1950 The volume brings a distinctive point of view to the subject by approaching it from an interdisciplinary and comparative perspective and by looking at a quite diverse range of topics and artefacts which includes but is not limited to the study of drawings art works travel essays novels cooking recipes schoolbooks photographs and movies By exploring a new paradigm to understand ancient cultures beyond the traditional ideas and models of reception of the classics and by challenging the alleged fracture between the so called two cultures of humanities and natural sciences Modern Etruscans will be of interest to scholars from various disciplines Designed as a learning tool for university courses on the interplay between literature and science in the twentieth century it is suited as recommended reading for students in the humanities

Dependency and Social Inequality in Pre-Roman Italy Martin Bentz, Patrick Zeidler, 2024-10-21 In the past most studies on Pre-Roman societies in Italy 1st millennium BCE focused on the elites their representation and cultural contacts The aim of this volume is to look at dependent and marginalized social groups which are less visible and often even difficult to define slaves servants freedmen captives foreigners athletes women children etc The methodological challenges connected to the study of such heterogeneous and scattered sources are addressed Is the evidence representative enough for defining different forms of dependencies Can we rely on written and pictorial sources or do they only reflect Greek and Roman views and iconographic conventions Which social groups can't be traced in the literary and archaeological record For the investigation of this topic we combined historical and epigraphical studies Greek and Roman literary sources Etruscan inscriptions with material culture studies images sanctuaries necropoleis including anthropological and bioarchaeological methods These new insights open a new chapter in the study of dependency and social inequality in the societies of Pre-Roman Italy
