The Writing Warrior Laraine Herring, 2010-07-20 All writers are faced at some point with feelings of self consciousness and self doubt about their work In this invaluable guide Laraine Herring offers advice to writers who want to become more comfortable with their writing face their inhibitions and gain the confidence to release their true voice Utilizing the breath a vigorous movement practice designed to break up stagnation with the body and the mind and writing exercises aimed both at self exploration and developing works in progress Herring offers a clear path to writing through illusion Learn how to remove obstacles in your writing and develop techniques to help you relax into your own voice discover ways to enter into a compassionate non judgmental relationship with yourself so that you can write safely and authentically from a place of absolute vulnerability and discover the interconnectedness of your personal writing process and the community as a whole The Writing Warrior will not only help you find ways to develop your writing but also ways to develop yourself On the Cultures of Exile, Translation, and Writing Paolo Bartoloni,2008 The hypothesis of Paolo Bartoloni s book is based on the belief that a substantial and innovative discussion of the philosophical notions of immanence and potentiality is not only overdue but also necessary to address the social political cultural and ethical aporia confronting us today The phenomenon of globalization with its countless sub narratives such as mobility migration security authenticity and inauthenticity can be thought and contextualized through a close reading and articulation of immanence and potentiality The author provides a tangible and workable philosophical and cultural discourse within which to present an alternative understanding of subjectivity by engaging in a theoretical discussion with the philosophical discourse on potentiality and immanence of which the writings of Gilles Deleuze and Giorgio Agamben are among the most advanced and innovative examples to date Secondly Bartoloni presents a virtual insight into the potential immanent subject and community through exploring a radically new interpretation of exile translation and temporality Finally the author shows how the experience of potentiality and immanence and their ontological statuses have been explored and realized in literature through a close reading and articulation of a series of selected texts especially works by Giorgio Caproni and Maurice Blanchot The methodology of the study is interdisciplinary ranging across literary theory postmodern cultural analysis hermeneutics and comparative culture analysis Speaking of Writing: A Brief Rhetoric - with MLA 2021 Update Allegra Goodman,Michael Prince,2022-12-13 Co authored by a novelist and a scholar Speaking of Writing follows four college students from diverse backgrounds as they face the challenges of reading writing and critical thinking in first year composition classes and across the disciplines Each chapter engages students in relatable often humorous scenarios that focus on key challenges Through its story based approach this brief rhetoric enacts process based pedagogy showing student writers grappling with fundamental questions How can I apply my own strategies for success to new assignments How can I maintain my own voice when asked to compose in an academic style What do college professors mean by a thesis Why is my argument weak and how can I make it stronger The book vividly dramatizes a draft and revision process that includes instructor feedback peer review and careful research

Gestalt Process Writing to C Tine van Wijk, Gestalt Process Writing to C is about the longing to communicate and connect with teachers colleagues clients students and loved ones The moment I started my Gestalt training I started Process Writing though I didn't know this was what I was doing Gestalt opened a source a stream of energy that connected me with the wisdom that had been waiting there all the time I just didn't know how to reach it Gestalt not only taught me how to reach this wisdom but showed me how to express and contain it No matter what I did leading writing groups teaching creative Gestalt in workshops attending international conferences exploring the Jewish Renewal World I always had my notebook with me to connect with my thoughts feelings ideas frustrations longings Me and my notebook cannot be separated as we are One In this book you will find the most interesting results of my Process Writing which began in 1984 when I started my Gestalt training program You will find a complete Gestalt Process Writing to C Program to explore and write your own life story to find your own answers to such existential questions as Who am I Where do I come from Am I free to speak

Narrative, Identity, and the City Raul P. Lejano, Alicia P. Lejano, Josefina D. Constantino, Aaron J.P. Almadro, Mikaella Evaristo, 2018-02-16 Raul P Lejano offers a boldly original synthesis of narratology psychology and human geography This helps him articulate his two main insights that our identity as individuals though not completely determined by sociocultural factors nevertheless profoundly reflects our embeddedness in particular places and that the way we think of or would like to think of our own identity is most readily captured in the stories we tell about ourselves Most revealing of all he suggests are our stories about coming to grips with an entire city especially when our experience of it is actually one of dislocation or relocation when we in some sense or other lose a city to which we have hitherto belonged or when we find a new one By way of illustration the book includes four specially commissioned autobiographical stories by writers of Filipino origin which Lejano's analytical chapters compare and contrast with each other within his interdisciplinary frame of reference At once learnedly sophisticated and readably empathetic his commentaries are underpinned by a basically phenomenological orientation which leads him to view human individuals as essentially relational beings naturally inclined to enter into dialogue with both their fellow creatures and the larger environment
