Problems and Perspectives Wendy Ayres-Bennett,Janice Carruthers,Rosalind Temple,2014-02-25 Problems and Perspectives Studies in the Modern French Language looks at a number of interesting or problematic areas in the phonology morphology syntax and lexis of the French language and encourages the reader to think critically about different ways of approaching describing and explaining these issues or data The book is divided into two parts the first section is a preliminary to and contextualises the discussion of the more specialised topics of the second part Part two presents problematic and controversial areas in the description and analysis of the contemporary language Where appropriate historical and sociolinguistic issues are also integrated into the discussion of modern French Aimed primarily at advanced students and researchers in French linguistics the introductory sections of part one also make this book accessible to undergraduates beginning their study of French linguistics and to less specialised readers

Cartographies of Knowledge Celine-Marie Pascale,2010-11-04 Interpretative Qualitative Research Agency Subjectivity and Experience frames the concerns and processes of standard analytic induction ethnomethodology and symbolic interaction in terms of cutting edge issues for contemporary qualitative research It is the first book to demonstrate how interpretive paradigms for qualitative data analysis produce research findings that are rooted to significantly different understandings of personal agency and social structures subjectivity and identity and the nature of human experience Specifically the book explores the analytical process interpretative power and political effects of these three styles of interpretative research The result is a rich pedagogical resource that explores not only how data is interpreted but also the kinds of problems solutions and questions that can be investigated

Arab Regionalism Silvia Ferabolli,2014-09-25 Arab regionalism details and examines the power relations involved in the making of an Arab region On an empirical level this book concentrates on the drawing of topographic and ideational boundaries in the Arab region on Arab regional organizations on the functional cooperation among Arab states and institutions and on the socio cultural infra structure that supports the Arab region making process with a strong focus on post 1990 dynamics On a theoretical level this work makes a case for the analytical autonomy of Arab regionalism as opposed to regionalism in the Middle East or in the Mediterranean and for the necessity of approaching it as an actual process instead of a failed project The attitude of debasement and erasure towards Arab regionalism that is common place in the field of regional studies is replaced in this book for the acknowledgment that there is much more political coordination economic cooperation and social integration in the Arab region than has previously been assumed Providing a fresh perspective on Arab regionalism this book will be an essential resource for scholars and researchers with an interest in Regionalism Middle Eastern Politics and International Relations
