Canada Stefan Dollinger,2008 This book details the development of eleven modal auxiliaries in late 18th and 19th century Canadian English in a framework of new dialect formation The study assesses features of the modal auxiliaries tracing influences to British and American input varieties parallel developments or Canadian innovations The findings are based on the Corpus of Early Ontario English pre Confederation Section the first electronic corpus of early Canadian English The data which are drawn from newspapers diaries and letters include original transcriptions from manuscript sources and texts from semi literate writers While the overall results are generally coherent with new dialect formation theory the Ontarian context suggests a number of adaptations to the current model In addition to its general Late Modern English focus New Dialect Formation in Canada traces changes in epistemic modal functions up to the present day offering answers to the loss of root uses in the central modals By comparing Canadian with British and American data important theoretical insights on the origins of the variety are gained The study offers a sociohistorical perspective on a still understudied variety of North American English by combining language internal features with settlement history in this first monograph length diachronic treatment of Canadian English in real time Worldwide Women Writers in Paris Alison Rice,2021 A study based on a set of filmed interviews with Francophone women writers in Paris that explores the literary phenomenon of an unprecedented number of women from around the world who have moved to Paris and become authors of written works in French

Flirting with French William Alexander,2014-09-16 A delightful and courageous tale and a romping good read Voila Mark Greenside author of I ll Never Be French No Matter What I Do William Alexander is more than a Francophile He wants to be French There s one small obstacle though he doesn t speak la langue fran aise In Flirting with French Alexander sets out to conquer the language he loves But will it love him back Alexander eats breathes and sleeps French even conjugating in his dreams He travels to France where mistranslations send him bicycling off in all sorts of wrong directions and he nearly drowns in an immersion class in Provence where faced with the riddle of masculine breasts feminine beards and a turkey cutlet of uncertain gender he starts to wonder whether he should ve taken up golf instead of French While playing hooky from grammar lessons and memory techniques Alexander reports on the riotous workings of the Académie française the four hundred year old institution charged with keeping the language pure explores the science of human communication learning why it's harder for fifty year olds to learn a second language than it is for five year olds and frustrated with his progress explores an IBM research lab where he trades barbs with a futuristic hand held translator Does he succeed in becoming fluent Readers will be as surprised as Alexander is to discover that in a fascinating twist studying French may have had a far greater impact on his life than actually learning to speak it ever would A blend of passion and neuroscience this literary love affair offers surprise insights into the human brain and the benefits of learning a second language Reading William Alexander's book is akin to having an MRI of the soul Laura Shaine Cunningham author of Sleeping Arrangements Alexander proves that learning a new language is an adventure of its own with all the unexpected obstacles surprising breakthroughs and moments of sublime pleasure traveling brings Julie Barlow author of Sixty Million Frenchmen Can't Be Wrong French Pronunciation and Spelling Gwen Berwick, Sydney Thorne, 2001 Meant for National Curriculum 2000 Programme of Study 1a this title aims to raise the standards in students listening speaking reading and writing skills It is meant for use from the earliest stages of learning French It is also aimed at more mature students The pack contains listening and speaking activities on photocopiable worksheets Religion and Pride Natalie Lang, 2021-02-10 Seeking recognition presents an important driving force in the making of religious minorities as is shown in this study that examines current debates on religion globalization diaspora and secularism through the lens of Hindus living in the French overseas department of La Réunion Through the examination of religious practices and public performance the author offers a compelling study of how the Hindus of the island assert pride in their religion as a means of gaining recognition self esteem and social status

Onomastics in Contemporary Public Space Oliviú Felecan, 2013-08-19 Onomastics in Contemporary Public Space aims at analysing names and name giving from an intercultural perspective within the context of contemporary public space As was the case of Name and Naming Synchronic and Diachronic Perspectives Cambridge Scholars Publishing 2012 the geographical areas investigated in the studies included in this volume are very diverse referring not only to European cultural space but also to American Asian African and Australian contexts Being a collective work the book brings together 49 specialists from 18 countries namely Australia Belgium Finland France Germany Israel Italy Japan Malta the Netherlands Poland Romania Russia Singapore South Africa Spain the United Kingdom and the USA Thematically the volume is organised so that it may cover all the dimensions of public space as far as onomastics is concerned The specific areas studied are the theory of names names of public places linguistic landscapes names of public economic cultural religious and sports institutions names of business establishments religious institutions places of worship and cultural associations as well as names in journals and magazines names of objects entities resulting from various processes in public space names of foods drinks and food brands code names of collaborators in secret service organisations names in literature nicknames bynames pseudonyms in the world of politics high life art and sport names in virtual space and zoonyms and miscellanea The originality and topicality of the subject lie in the multidisciplinary viewpoint adopted in the research in which onomastics merges with adjacent linguistic disciplines such as sociolinguistics psycholinguistics and pragmatics as well as other sciences such as history literature anthropology politics economy and religion Studies in French Applied Linguistics Dalila Ayoun, 2008 Studies in French Applied Linguistics invites the reader to adopt a broad perspective on applied linguistics illustrating the fascinating multifaceted work researchers are conducted in so many various inter connected subfields The five chapters of the first part are dedicated to the first and second language acquisition of French in various settings First language acquisition by normal children from a generative perspective and by children with Specific Language Impairment second language acquisition in Canadian immersion settings from a neurolinguistic approach to phonology and natural language processing and CALL The six chapters of the second part explore the contribution of French in various subfields of applied linguistics such as an anthropological approach to literacy issues in Guadeloupean Kr y l literacy issues in new technologies phonological and lexical innovations in the banlieues French in North Africa language planning and policy in Quebec as well as the emerging field of forensic linguistics from an historical perspective Encyclopedia of Contemporary French Culture Alex Hughes, Keith Reader, 1998 More than 700 alphabetically organized entries by an international team of contributors provide a fascinating survey of French culture post 1945 Entries include advertising Beur cinema Coco Chanel decolonization critique feminine football francophone press gay activism Seuil youth culture Entries range from short factual biographical pieces to longer overview articles All are extensively cross referenced and longer entries are facts fronted so important information is clear at a glance It includes a thematic contents list extensive index and suggestions for further reading The Encyclopedia will provide hours of enjoyable browsing for all francophiles and essential cultural context for students of French Modern History Comparative European Studies and Cultural Studies Intercultural Communication between Chinese and French Lihua Zheng, 2019-11-19T00:00:00+01:00 When two people from different cultures meet they both act in accordance with what is self evident that is to say natural to them The only problem is that the what is self evident to some may not coincide with what is self evident to others Also as people have a tendency to consider their way as going without saying or as universal when others do not act in the same way as they do and there is conflict they get easily annoyed As a French businessman in China once cried out The Chinese ask me if I eat snake I say to them I do not eat snake but swallow insults every day In fact in intercultural contacts when people seem strange to others often it is perhaps not that they are strange but because others judge their behaviour with their own cultural criteria Every culture has its own behavioural logic However the logic of some does not correspond to that of others Individuals often have the same objectives but to reach them they take different cultural paths The Great Dictionary English - French Benjamin Maximilian Eisenhower, This dictionary contains around 130 000 English terms with their French translations making it one of the most comprehensive books of its kind It offers a wide vocabulary from all areas as well as numerous idioms The terms are translated from English to French If you need translations from French to English then the companion volume The Great Dictionary French English is recommended New Directions in Spiritual Kinship Todne Thomas,Asiya Malik,Rose Wellman,2017-04-17 This volume examines the significance of spiritual kinship or kinship reckoned in relation to the divine in creating myriad forms of affiliations among Christians Jews and Muslims Rather than confining the study of spiritual kinship to Christian godparenthood or presuming its disappearance in light of secularism the authors investigate how religious practitioners create and contest sacred solidarities through ritual discursive and ethical practices across social domains networks and transnational collectives This book s theoretical conversations and rich case studies hold value for scholars of anthropology kinship and religion
