Bridge Over Troubled Water Leah Junck, 2018-06-07 In spite of South Africa's progressive constitution citizens intolerance of non citizens refugees and economic migrants has escalated in recent years What is more xenophobic attacks are covered in the public discourse as mere episodes of crisis and often rather fuel rhetoric of national machismo than leading to an acknowledgement of the stories and experiences of people seeking refuge and being exposed to hostility on an everyday basis This ethnography engages with the strategies employed by a group of refugee men from different African countries in surviving and stabilising their existence in the mother city Cape Town in the face of precarity It grapples with questions of how the men manage to bring about certainty in the face of unpredictability and extends its focus to the mens dreams and the modes by which these are sought to be achieved It thereby highlights the ways in which objectifications as refugees and less than human are somewhat transcended by navigating spaces with care purpose and imagination Poet's Way

Ron McCoy's Sea of Diamonds Gregory Day, 2008-07-01 Winner of the Patrick White Literary Award. On the wild clifftop of the coastal town of Mangowak Ron McCoy lives an almost marsupial existence with his elderly mother. He hunts and gathers while the town sleeps; he is acutely shy but in the privacy of his imagination fostered as it is by his love of music and the oceanscape of his birth all things are possible. Liz and Craig Wilson meanwhile are lovers of the surf and the bush. When Craig is offered a job by Colin Batty Mangowak's larrikin real estate agent the dream of bringing up their kids away from the city is finally realised. But working for Batty Real Estate is not as simple as it seems. The surrounding landscape is full of alchemic power and mystery and when Ron McCoy and his mother decide to sell half their land the subtle generational differences between young and old Australia begin to swirl. Written in a precise painterly style Gregory Day's follow up to his award winning debut novel The Patron Saint of Eels is a powerful meditation on belonging on landscape and on love.
