The Last Wild Men of Borneo Carl Hoffman, 2018-03-06 A 2019 EDGAR AWARDS NOMINEE BEST FACT CRIME A BANFF MOUNTAIN BOOK AWARDS FINALIST Two modern adventurers sought a treasure possessed by the legendary Wild Men of Borneo One found riches The other vanished forever into an endless jungle Had he shed civilization or lost his mind Global headlines suspected murder Lured by these mysteries New York Times bestselling author Carl Hoffman journeyed to find the truth discovering that nothing is as it seems in the world's last Eden where the lines between sinner and saint blur into one In 1984 Swiss traveler Bruno Manser joined an expedition to the Mulu caves on Borneo the planet's third largest island There he slipped into the forest interior to make contact with the Penan an indigenous tribe of peace loving nomads living among the Dayak people the fabled Headhunters of Borneo Bruno lived for years with the Penan gaining acceptance as a member of the tribe However when commercial logging began devouring the Penan's homeland Bruno led the tribe against these outside forces earning him status as an enemy of the state but also worldwide fame as an environmental hero He escaped captivity under gunfire twice but the strain took a psychological toll Then in 2000 Bruno disappeared without a trace Had he become a madman a hermit or a martyr American Michael Palmieri is in many ways Bruno's opposite Evading the Vietnam War the Californian wandered the world finally settling in Bali in the 1970s From there he staged expeditions into the Bornean jungle to acquire astonishing art and artifacts from the Dayaks He would become one of the world's most successful tribal art field collectors supplying sacred works to prestigious museums and wealthy private collectors And yet suspicion shadowed this self-styled buccaneer who made his living extracting the treasure of the Dayak Was he preserving or exploiting native culture As Carl Hoffman unravels the deepening riddle of Bruno's disappearance and seeks answers to the questions surrounding both men it becomes clear saint and sinner are not so easily defined and Michael and Bruno are in a sense two parts of one whole each spent his life in pursuit of the sacred fire of indigenous people

The Last Wild Men of Borneo is the product of Hoffman's extensive travels to the region guided by Penan through jungle paths traveled by Bruno and by Palmieri himself up rivers to remote villages Hoffman also draws on exclusive interviews with Manser's family and colleagues and rare access to his letters and journals Here is a peerless adventure propelled by the entwined lives of two singular enigmatic men whose stories reveal both the grandeur and the precarious fate of the wildest place on earth
